The latest news, first of all.
 Don't forget the big championship races at the Arena Friday night.
 A reader states that she thinks The Guardian always has the most news.
 The tide will be high this afternoon at 1.43 and tomorrow afternoon at 2.08.
 Mrs. Capt. Holman, York, celebrated her ninety fourth birthday yesterday.
 Skating at the Arena tonight 4th Regt. Band. Admission to everyone only 10 cents.
 The program to be given at New Wonderland tonight appears in reader on page four.

W. Holland of Lowell, Mass., formerly of Bedeque was a passenger to Cape Tormentine yesterday.
 Wm. Garrick of this city is in Carleton on a very interesting pleasure trip.
 The ladies of the York Methodist Church met last Wednesday at Mrs. H. Howard for the business of the month.
 Any persons paying their electric light bill on or before Feb. 10 will receive the discount and thus save money.
 A cheese and butter maker is wanted by the Orwell Dairying Co. Particulars will be found in the ad in this issue.

The latest report regarding the condition of Rev. S. D. McPhee, Belfast, is that he is improving slightly. His many friends sincerely hope for his speedy recovery.
 Jack and Ned Sterns, sons of E. D. Sterns of this City, showed much kindness to, an old gentleman, of ninety years of age, Thos. Johnson, on Sunday, and are being highly commended for their thoughtfulness.
 The mails will continue to be sent by the Capes until regular trips by the steamers can be assured. Sunday night a mail for Nova Scotia was sent by the special which left here for Georgetown to connect with the Minto--Pat.
 In sending coupons to The Guardian some persons address to News Department, others to Advertising Department, others merely to The Guardian but all should be addressed "Tour Editor, The Guardian, Charlottetown."

Seven boats left Cape Traverse at 7.50 yesterday morning with their bags mail and two passengers. Six boats left Cape Tormentine and arrived at Cape Traverse about twelve bringing sixty seven bags mail and one passenger.
 The marked superiority of the Cyclon planter's agricultural methods, the adaptation of automatic machinery in every process imparts to "Salada" Tea a delicious flavor and strength that makes it very economical to use.
 On Friday last the home at E. Brown, York, the ladies of the W. S. of the Methodist Church and their friends spent a pleasant evening with games and other amusements. Refreshments were served and a liberal offering taken for the missionary fund.

A dispensary for the treatment of Tuberculosis will be opened in this city on Pownall Street today. Mrs. Rogers, a skilled nurse will be in charge. The druggists have kindly consented to give drugs free, and the Mark Wright Furnishing Co., have given donations of furniture.
 Tonight Harold Jenkins lectures in St. James Hall, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Old times in Prince Edward Island, is the subject and many new illustrations will be used, making the lecture a most enjoyable one. A silver collection will be taken.
 It is certainly commendable on the part of the Sons of England of this city that their flag is flying half mast and they will attend the funeral of the late Sidney J. Allison as mourners, merely because he is an Englishman and away from home and friends, for he is not a member of the order.

A social, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of Central Christian Church city, was held at the home of Rev. J. F. and Mrs. Floyd, last evening. Quite a large crowd gathered and while the older ladies transacted business regarding church affairs the young people amused themselves in the many ways most enjoyed by each.
 There was a young wife who said "Why can't I make an acceptable pie?" Said her husband "Don't fret there is hope for us yet For on Stewart's we sure can rely Telephone 211

 The Dominion Hotel property at the Emerald about fifty yards from the station is being offered for sale at a bargain. For further particulars see ad which appears in this issue.
 A very interesting and much appreciated lecture was given in the public hall at York on Thursday last by Harold Jenkins on Prince Edward Island with fine views shown by Walter Bourke of this city. The proceeds were in aid of the Sunday school.
 Thomas King of the Charlottetown Condensed Milk factory had two or three of his fingers badly bruised yesterday while handling a barrel of sugar, about noon. The injured hand was dressed by Dr. Kelly and it is hoped he will be ready for work again in a few days.
 Owing to the large amount of news to be set in type for yesterday's issue it was impossible to give more than the result of the hockey match on Saturday evening between the Commercial Travellers and a team from Prowse Bros. The winners are congratulating themselves upon their well earned victory over the home team, some of whom they claim were not merely amateurs. At the close the proprietor of the Victoria treated the Knights of the Grip to oyster stews, prepared in the hotel's best style.
 W. A. Winfield, who tendered his resignation to the P. E. I. Telephone Co. some days ago, has accepted the management of the Cape Breton Telephone Co., with headquarters at Sydney. He leaves for his new field of labor early in April. Mr. Winfield has been in Charlottetown for almost six years, and his many friends will regret his departure. Under his management the P. E. I. Telephone Co. has made rapid strides, not only in this city and the towns but also throughout the rural districts. Its service, particularly in Charlottetown, is now thoroughly up to date.

The death occurred at Lynn, Mass., on January 27th, of Mrs. Full sister of F. H. Beer, of the firm of Beer & Goff, of this City and wife of Rev. William Full, brother of George E. Full. Mrs. Full was born in Charlottetown, P. E. I., and was 64 years of age. She was the daughter of Hon. and Mrs. George Beer, of the Governor's Council. In 1864 she married Rev. William Full, and soon after left her native home and began the work with her husband. In recent years Mrs. Full has been a partial invalid, but in all her sufferings she has maintained a fortitude that has been surprising to her family and friends. Of four children, but one, Mrs. Fred C. Harden, who resides in Sausage, remain. Besides the husband and daughter a brother, F. H. Beer, of Charlottetown, and one sister, Mrs. Oliver Jones of Moncton, N. B., survive.

D & A CANADIAN CORSET

DE LUXE IS EQUAL TO PARISIAN MODELS IN STYLE AND SHAPELINESS BUT FAR MORE DURABLE AND MUCH LESS COSTLY

YESTERDAY and the previous day we told you a little about the great new range of corsets that we have just opened up for you. To-day we will go a little more into detail. We need hardly speak again of the importance of the long, slenderly graceful models made necessary by the present vogue of the Directoire.
 Just in passing--we cannot emphasize too often that the excellence of your costume is almost entirely a matter of the correct fit and proper lines of your corset--and above all that we have the right corsets. There is a D & A corset for every figure--we have most of them--if we cannot supply from stock we can procure in about six days.

Directoire model--16 inches long, made of fine, close white coutil, slim, graceful shape 4 hose supporters attached ..... $1.00
 A beautifully made corset of fine strong white coutil, bias cut, strongly and firmly boned, deep over hip--4 hose supporters, top finished in lace and ribbon ..... $1.35
 A particularly fine number is our 424, very modern in cut, low bust, very deep overhip, one of the most effective "slim hip" designs shown, 4 heavy hose supporters--lace and ribbon top, patent lace fastener ..... $1.75
 A notable sample of the Directoire design is shown in our number 211, made of fine firm coutil, carefully cut to an accurate fit, daintily finished in ribbon and lace. 15 inches deep. $1.50

The "Crest" finest of all corsets for stout figures--appears a new model--in accord with present style demands. This is the ingenious corset separated at waist line and lacing over hip with elastic laces. Hose supporters are attached. $2.25
 Ordinary model Crest also $1.35.

Our special No 646
 particularly smart ma el.
 Strictly first class in every way is this beautiful garment of 100% white coutil 16 inches deep at hip, low bust, 4 heavy hose supporters, top trimmed with wide and narrow ribbon, and fine lace. We strongly recommend this number ..... $2.7

Corsets from 50c to 3.50, every shape--every style that is good.
