

maritime growth

In 1840 the S.S. "Britannia" crossed the Atlantic carrying mails under contract. Such was the modest beginning of the great Cunard Line . . . founded by a Maritime man, Samuel Cunard.

More recently another enterprise was founded by Maritime men . . . the Maritime Life Assurance Company . . . with the same modest beginning and the same rapid yet wisely controlled growth. It was founded with a patriotic aim: to keep Maritime money in the Maritimes.

CURRENCY

NEW YORK, June 25—British currencies hardly moved during Saturday's session on the foreign exchange here. Dealings were at a low ebb following the hectic trading in the earlier sessions of the week.

The Canadian dollar did not hedge at all from Friday's final quotation of 90 1/2 cents.

The pound sterling moved within a range of 3/4 of a cent and wound up at 84 1/2¢ off 1/4 from Friday's close. Sterling however, finished with the largest weekly advance since the United Kingdom suspended the gold standard in 1931—Saturday's final rate of 84 1/2¢ comparing with 84-07 1/2¢ a week ago. In that period the Canadian dollar gained 1 1/2 cents.

PRODUCE

(Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, June 25—Prices of all lines on the Montreal dairy and produce market advanced and quotations were the continuation of gains displayed during the previous two weeks.

With receipts considerably heavier, butter finished only slightly higher, quotations at the end of last week being 19 1/2 cents a pound for No 1 butter in cartons or less, the price at the close of the previous week was 19 cents a pound. A total of 28,227 boxes was offered for sale, as against 49,041 boxes a week ago. There was no butter exported from Montreal to the United Kingdom last week.

The price of cheese was substantially stronger. Due to the heat sweeping the country causing receipts to be lighter, extras brought 20 to 20 1/2 cents a dozen, up to 2 1/2 cents, firsts 15 1/2 to 16 cents a dozen, up one cent, up a half to one cent for graded shipments in cartons or less. Receipts amounted to only 11,202 cases, 5,000 less than the previous week. There were only 10 cases exported which went to the West Indies.

Ontario cheese was slightly easier at the end of last week while Quebec cheese firmed 1/4 a cent. At the close of trading, the general quotation for Ontario cheese was 11 cents a pound, with Quebec cheese bringing the same price. Arrivals last week totalled 3,000 boxes at compared with 3,317 boxes a week ago. A total of 18,802 boxes was exported to the United Kingdom while 157 went to the West Indies.

Potatoes rose 10 cents per 80 pound bag last week ending at $1.00 to $1.05 for New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island green mountains and 80 to 85 cents for Quebec whites.

who were fighting the battles of peace and waging a war against war. Those same qualities were necessary in the fight against depression to sustain the people in a trying time. It was the spirit exhibited by the soldiers which must prevail against ignorance, superstition and various forms of crime.

As Rev. Mr. Charman had remarked in his address at the opening of the hall, the men had gone overseas to tear down an old order of things and depended on the people of today to build up a new world. The speaker also made reference to a speech given by the Prince of Wales last August when he had pointed out the duty of the people.

Dr. Martin paid a high tribute to the mothers of the men whose names appeared on the monument. These names testified against the past, and called for a better civilization founded on peace.

While eulogizing the dead one must also remember the soldiers who returned, particularly those who now find themselves in difficulties. As Provincial President of the Legion, the speaker was cognizant of existing conditions, as daily he received many communications and had visits from individuals in difficulty. Golden promises made at the time of enlistment had not wholly been fulfilled, and the Legion was endeavouring to see to it that ex-service men were restored to the positions which they normally would have occupied had no war taken place.

Pioneers Recalled

In opening his address Rev. John A. Pritchard made reference to those who had given service at home in the militia during the war, and to the sorrow which the war had brought to many homes in the British Isles as well as in this country. He paid a high tribute to the early pioneers who had left their homes and loved ones to explore a new country, leaving all for a strange land. They were worthy of honour and respect. The pioneers had taught the lesson of courage. Only men of courage would cross the Atlantic in sailing vessels, and endure the great hardships of the early days. The world today is in need of the same courageous spirit as that which actuated the early settlers. Patriotism, love of country, was a noble quality, the surrendering of personal for national interests, the forgetting of self, the love of the native land, courage. Dissatisfied immigrants should be deported from Canada and the doors should not be left too wide open, the speaker declared. The very essence of patriotism was unselfishness, willingness to fight in the great battle for human happiness.

The pioneers also had taught the lesson of faith, faith in the future, faith in God. The churches stood as memorials of this faith which the pioneers had in the reality and existence of a Supreme Being. They also contributed to the churches which they built, as was their duty. The speaker asked the people to go back to their communities and to see to it that the graves of the pioneers were kept in good condition, and in closing referred to the desirability of international friendship.

The Task Remaining

Rev. M. K. Charman remarked on the fact that the occasion was the last one in which he would appear in Mount Stewart. He stated that remembrance was not the first thing which the fallen deserved. If they could speak they would ask for the completion of their task, the restoration of world peace. There was no peace at present, but merely an armistice, a standing at arms, which had been signed in 1918. The French speaker pointed out, had built since the war, an immense air fleet capable of destroying the entire city of London in a few hours, and in its budget the United States had allotted vast sums of money for the building of battleships. What was needed was the teaching in schools and churches of the disastrous effects of war. The fallen were asking for the building of a world fit for humanity to live in, free from ignorance, superstition, and disease. Rev. Mr. Charman's final remarks were to the veterans whom he asked to see that the rights of their comrades were protected.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

ST. JAMES CHURCH

Yesterday morning the midsummer Communion Service was celebrated at St. James Presbyterian Church, the Minister, the Rev. Dr. R. Moorhead Legate, presiding and preaching. There was a large congregation.

In the evening a service of thanksgiving was held, at which the soloist was Mr. Mason B. MacKay, who rendered very feelingly "Shadows."

It was intimated that the Sunday School picnic would be held at Stanhope shore on Thursday afternoon, to which members of the congregation generally are cordially invited.

ST. PETERS CATHEDRAL

His Lordship Right Reverend Dr. Hackenley, Bishop Co-adjutor of the Diocese was present at the 8 o'clock celebration of the Holy Communion in St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday. At 11 o'clock His Lordship administered the apostolic rite of Confirmation to twelve candidates, who were presented to him by Rev. Canon Malone, after which the Bishop delivered a splendid address to those just confirmed.

At Evensong Sadhu J. N. Christamanda from India preached a splendid sermon from the words "That none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper," which words are taken from the Gospel for the day in the 14 Chapter of St. Luke.

Thursday is the Festival of Saint Peter, Apostle and martyr. There will be a choral celebration of the Holy Eucharist in the Cathedral at 7.15 a. m.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed at the morning service and was largely attended. Two new members were received into fellowship, one by certificate and one on profession of faith. Rev. Mr. Brown preached the communion sermon from the fifth chapter of Romans, verses 8, 1 and 9. "God commended his love towards us in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us. Therefore being justified by faith we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Much more than being now justified by his blood we shall be saved from wrath through him."

In the evening Rev. Mr. Brown again conducted the service and preached from the text Romans, 8-31, "If God be for us who can be against us." Mrs. L. H. D. Howatt rendered a solo in her usual capable manner. One of the hymns sung was Psalm 121, "Unto the hills around do I lift up my longing eyes," and in connection therewith I pass along the following lines from a Church Bulletin sent to me from Brooklyn:

"There should be a hill country in every life, some great up-towering peaks which dominate the common plain. There should be an upland district, where springs are born, and where rivers of inspiration have their birth. 'I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills.' The soul that knows no hills is sure to be oppressed with the monotony of the road. The inspiration to do little things comes from the presence of big things. It is amazing what dull trifles we can get through when a radiant love is near. A noble companionship glorifies the dingiest road. And what if that Companion be God? Then, surely, 'the common round and daily task' have a light thrown upon them from 'the beauty of His countenance.' The 'heavens' are our salvation and our defense. 'His righteousness is like the great mountains.'—J. H. Jowett.

THE SALVATION ARMY

In the morning service Adj. Kimmins spoke on God's revelation to Isaiah as revealed in Rev. 6th chapter.

At 3 o'clock an open air service was held at the Sanatorium which was much appreciated.

At the evening service kind words of appreciation and farewell were said by different members of the local corps to Adj. and Mrs. Kimmins who leave on Thursday morning for Fredericton, N.B. Though much regretting their orders to go Adj. and Mrs. Kimmins being true Salvationists are obeying and trusting that God's work will be forwarded and that His blessing will be upon the new officers Adj. and Mrs. Stevens of Fredericton. Taking as his text St. John, Chap. 16, verses 8 and 9, "And when He is come He will reprove the world of sin and of righteousness and of judgment of sin because they believe not in me." Adj. Kimmins preached a forceful sermon on the sin of unbelief.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

At the morning service yesterday the Rev. A. C. Vincent, D. D. spoke from the words "Judas—not Iscariot." Names are significant, and no fisherman ever had a luckier catch or was more delighted than Miss Hardy when she discovered a lovely set of dishes in the Deauville pattern. The charming angler also brought in other gifts which were accompanied by amusing and original little verses. A dainty lunch was served. Assisting Mrs. Warren were Mrs. C. B. C. MacMillan, Mrs. W. A. Rix and Mrs. R. Gay. Mrs. Warren's attractive little daughter Joyce, attended the door. Mrs. J. Johnson of Long River was an out-of-town guest.

PERSONALS

Mrs. W. H. Spencer has left on an extended holiday to Great Village, N. S.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tweedy left Saturday to attend the Rotary convention in Boston.

Miss Hannah Carver was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower last week given by her friends of Hazelbrook at the attractive home of Mrs. William Woods, Waterside.

Mrs. Dorothy Murray, of Three Hills, Alberta, is spending a few weeks at DeSable, P. E. I., visiting with her aunts, Mrs. Walter Ince and Mrs. Chester Shaw.

Eye Comfort

For eye workers is a matter of vital importance.

From early morn to late at night we "crowd" our eyes relentlessly, from one job to another.

How long will they stand it?

Are you now enjoying that efficiency and comfort which ought to be yours?

Consult us if you are not. You have much to gain, and nothing to lose.

In any case the knowledge gained from an examination, makes it well worth while.
