SAD NEWS — The sad news has reached relatives and friends in Freetown that the death occurred at his home in Saskatchewan recently of Mr. Patrick Murphy, who with his family removed to that Province about twenty-five years ago. The late Mr. Murphy was born and lived in Freetown until a few years previous to going west, when he resided in Mt. Pleasant, Lot 112 for a short time. He was well respected wherever known, and many old acquaintances and friends in this Province will regret to learn of his death. He leaves a wife and family in the west, who have the sympathy of friends in this province.

Thirteen members answered Roll Call with "The Funniest Scrape I ever saw anyone in." Four visitors present. Money was voted for new pointer, also School Dictionary with stand. Entertainment to be held Nov. 4 was discussed. The meeting closed with National Anthem. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Austen McLellan.

—WEDDING BELLS.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Huestis, Kensington, was the scene of a pretty wedding on the evening of Oct. 19th, when their daughter, Miss Ada Letourneau, was united in marriage to Mr. Waldron N. Stewart of Newboro. A large number of guests were present and the nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Fred Williamson. The bride was attended by Miss Etta Stavert, while the groom was supported by Mr. Mayne Stewart. The bridal party took their places under a prettily decorated arch to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, beautifully rendered by Mrs. R. A. Stavert, Aunt of the bride. A sumptuous wedding supper was served and a pleasant evening spent in music by Miss Lilian and Mr. Emerson Huestis and Mrs. R. A. Stavert. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful pearl necklace, to the bridesmaid a bracelet and to the groomsmen a set of gold cuff links. The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful gifts. A few days previous the bride-to-be was regaled with a miscellaneous shower by her young friends, at the home of her brother, Mr. Lyman Huestis, Wilmot.

Malpeque

A very pretty home wedding took place on Monday, Nov. 7th (Thanksgiving), when Miss Louise Ramsay, daughter of Mr. John O. Ramsay, Baltic, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Cousins, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Cousins, Baltic. The home was decorated with cut flowers and potted plants and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. M. Grant, Malpeque, in a place under an arch of running spruce and white bells. The bride looked lovely in her costume of white canton crepe with pearl trimmings and with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of the cut flowers and asters. The bridesmaid, Miss Marion MacLellan, teacher, Sea View School, was gowned in pink and white carnations. The groomsmen were Mr. Reginald MacNutt, cousin of the groom. The Wedding March was played by Miss Constance Hunter, who also sang "O Promise Me", during the signing of the register. The groomsman, Mr. Robert Cousins, was gowned in pink and white carnations, and carried a bouquet of cut flowers and asters. The bride and bridesmaid, were nearly and to the groomsmen, gold cuff links. The gifts to the bride were numerous and costly—consisting of cut glass, linen and cheques.

Malpeque

About fifty invited guests partook of supper and ere it was finished, the serenaders in full force, were in waiting. Mr. and Mrs. Cousins left on Tuesday morning for New Brunswick and New Scotia. The bride's travelling costume was sand crepe meteor with a hat of sand and blue. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Cousins will reside in the Baltic. The bride has been previously referred to in this column as a well-deserved popular young lady, and the groom is a young man of splendid qualities. A host of friends wish them health, happiness and prosperity.

McIntyre Is Winner Over Buddy Lewis

GLACE BAY, Nov. 8.—Johnny McIntyre, of Glace Bay, welterweight champion of the Maritime provinces, successfully defended his title against Buddy Lewis, in a place under an arch of running spruce and white bells. The bride looked lovely in her costume of white canton crepe with pearl trimmings and with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of the cut flowers and asters. The bridesmaid, Miss Marion MacLellan, teacher, Sea View School, was gowned in pink and white carnations. The groomsmen were Mr. Reginald MacNutt, cousin of the groom. Keep Your Stomach Young and Sweet

Every bite of food you eat MUST be digested, and the waste matter eliminated. That's sure. If your stomach is sluggish and old, from the excessive acids which keep eating away the gastric juices, you must dissolve them, or you never will be free from indigestion, sour risings, bloating and drowsiness after you eat.

Get a package of Pape's Diapepsin from your nearest drug store and chew one of the tablets after meals. Instantly the distress is relieved, it dissolves the acids, sweetens the stomach and you will have an appetite again like you had when you were a child.

All drug stores have Pape's Diapepsin. More than 5 million packages are used a year.

LETTER OF THANKS

On behalf of the Charlottetown Executive Council of the Canadian Legion I wish to thank His Honour the Lieutenant Governor, Mr. LePage, Acting Premier, and His Worship the Mayor for having been present officially at the Armistice service today. I also wish to tender our sincere thanks to the three clergymen who assisted at the service, also to the unfailing Band for the good music provided for the route march, to Professor Fletcher for having taken charge of the music and also to Comrade Charles Hine for blowing the "Last Post" and "Reveille." Finally I want to thank the police officers for the splendid order maintained in the vicinity, to the ladies and young girls for their sale of poppies and also the public for their large attendance at the service.

Yours faithfully,
T. EDGAR MACNUTT,
President.

IN MEMORIAM

MISS LUCINDA SHAW

The death occurred yesterday morning at her home No. 41 Grafton Street of Miss Lucinda Shaw, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John M. Shaw, Brackley Point. For the past few months Miss Shaw had been in poor health, and four weeks ago entered the Prince Edward Hospital for treatment, young as she was. It was thought at first that she was improved but she took a turn for the worse and gradually grew weaker until she peacefully passed away.

Miss Shaw was saleslady with Messrs. Sinclair & Stewart, and Holmans Ltd., Summerside for a number of years, after which she came to Charlottetown and entered the employ of Mr. S. A. McDonald. Miss Shaw was held in high regard by the various firms with whom she was employed, being highly efficient and courteous. She made many warm friends in this city and throughout the province, and the news of her death will be learned with widespread regret. She possessed a large degree of those splendid qualities of mind and body which made her admired by all who knew her. She was a member of St. James Presbyterian Church in this city, and also took active interest in church work, and in furthering every worthy movement.

She leaves to mourn three brothers, Mr. D. Edgar Shaw, Stipendiary Magistrate for Queen's County, Mr. Albert Shaw, Brackley Point, and Mr. James E. Shaw, Watertown, Mass., also two sisters, Mrs. J. W. Shaw of Charlottetown and Mrs. (Dr.) C.S. Mathieson of Harrington. To the bereaved relatives the Guardian extends its sincere sympathy.

Mr. Lloyd Jewell is out again, after being confined to his home for a few days.

Mrs. Charles Doull, Carleton Place, returned to her home after spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Clark, Chelton.

Mr. Edwin MacFarlane, Lower Bedeque, is busy engaged in hauling spuds with his truck to Bedeque wharf.

Messrs Harold Holland and Hudson Jeffery were visitors to Chelton last week.

Miss Sophie Henderson, Teacher Carleton School, spent her Thanksgiving holidays with her mother, Mrs. Alexander Henderson, Bedeque.

Misses Marjorie Wartman and Isabelle Petrie have returned to their homes in Moncton, N.B., after spending pleasant holidays with friends in Bedeque.

Miss Lila Bradshaw, North Bedeque, is visiting friends in Albany.

Mrs. Elliot Wright, Middletown, has left for Sackville to see her mother, Mrs. George Wright, who has been very ill.
