OPENS MISSION—Rev. George F. Bradley, S. J., Montreal, who arrived on the Island last week opened a mission in St. Columba's Church East point yesterday. He will be joined by his brother, Rev. Austin Bradley, S. J., of Toronto, the latter part of the month.

VISITORS RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kenison and Mrs. Kenison of Tewksbury, Mass., who have been visiting Mrs. Daniels' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Clark, of Cape Travers, have returned to their homes. They were accompanied by Mr. David Dobson of Lowell, Mass., who visited his sister, Mrs. Wendell Lea and Mrs. Frank Dixon of Tryon.

VISITING PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. H. Dingwell and son Teddy of Toronto, Ont., arrived in the city on Friday evening and motored to Riverside Cottage, Bay Fortune, with his brother Leigh to remain some time with his mother and his father, Mr. C. Howard Dingwell, who has been very ill. Reg has been with the Canadian Pacific Railway as Conductor for the past thirty years. The Guardian is pleased to report that Mr. Howard Dingwell is resting much easier and it is the wish of his many friends that they will soon be greeting him again as his kindly and obliging disposition has ever made friends with all who have ever known him.

WEDDING AT BIDEFORD

The marriage took place on June 30th, at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. J. A. Nicholson Bideford, of Pauline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Linkletter, Northam, and Robert son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Miller, Bideford, immediately after the ceremony, the couple left by motor on a short honeymoon trip. On their return on Saturday, a reception was held at the home of the bride. Later in the evening the couple were joyfully serenaded. Prior to her marriage many friends gathered at the home of Miss Linkletter, and showered her with many useful and valuable gifts.

VACATIONING HERE
