THE MARITIME CLUB CLUB OF MONTREAL

The club headquarters were opened June 1st in Room 116, Windsor Hotel, Montreal. There have been many calls both in June and July. The moonlight excursion on the St. Lawrence River in June was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by more than 500 members and their friends.

TRADE—Optimism prevails in the Maritimes among all classes of the various communities. The rapidly growing influx of summer tourists from other Canadian provinces and the United States has given a new lease of life to the hotels and there has been increased activity in building.

Inquiries of various kinds have been received by the club. Among them was one regarding the wholesale price of salmon and the possibility of a market in Montreal. Apparently all salmon from eastern waters, no matter where it is caught, is marketed in Montreal under the name of "Gaspe." Naturally one wonders why it could not be named from the waters from which it comes. No true maritimer would admit any superiority for salmon from waters outside the "home" Provinces.

Considerable correspondence has taken place in an effort to persuade apple growers that there is a good market in Montreal for Maritime apples properly graded and boxed. British Columbia, New Zealand and western U. S. apples may be had, but it is like the proverbial needle in the haystack to find a maritime apple at any season of the year. While we have not succeeded in our efforts we are still hopeful.

TOURISTS—Maritimes and others in increased numbers are beginning to call and make use of the club room. Callers this month registered from the home provinces, Ontario, United States and South America. Many enquiries regarding the maritimes have been answered and pamphlets and motor maps, etc., have been distributed.

REFERENCE LIBRARY—General Canadian statistics with special reference to the maritimes are now tabulated and filed. The classification consists of farming, logging, mining, fishing, hunting, manufacturing, construction, transportation, storage, communication (telephones and telegraph), finance and service. It is hoped we may shortly be able to obtain a sectional bookcase where the various reports, pamphlets and books can be properly kept. Members are invited to make use of the present and the additional data hereafter gathered.

NEWSPAPERS—The club desires to record its appreciation of the courtesy extended by maritime newspapers. Members can now avail themselves of papers from Saint John, Chatham, Campbellton, Halifax, New Glasgow and Sydney, and The Maritime Merchant, Halifax.

PICTURES—The club room is now adorned by magnificent pictures showing Margate Valley, Cape Breton; Wentworth Valley, Cumberland County, N. S.; Kennebecasis Valley, N. B., and a pastoral scene in P. E. Island; also splendid scenes of Saint John Harbor and St. Andrews, N. B., and Grand Pre, N. S. Memorial Park. We are greatly indebted to the Canadian National Railways, through one of our members, Mr. H. H. Melanson, for these first named; and to the Canadian Pacific Railway, through Mr. C. B. Foster, also a club member, and to Mr. A. T. Smith, General Freight and Passenger agent, Dominion Atlantic Railway, Halifax, for the three last named pictures.

We are also indebted to another club friend, Mr. J. F. Harris, director of publicity for the International Paper Company, New York, for large photographs of Grand Falls on the Saint John River, to Miss Helen Grant for views of Prince Edward Island done in water colors, and to Charles H. Gibbon for a view of Saint John Harbor in colors.

MEMBERSHIP—Members would greatly help the club's progress by forwarding the annual dues of $15.00. NOTES—The four leading Canadian banks are now managed by Maritimers. Sir Frederick Williams-Taylor, general manager of the Bank of Montreal, born at Moncton, N. B.; Norris W. Wilson, recently promoted General Manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, born at Lunenburg, N. S.; (C. E. Neill, Vice-President of the Royal Bank is a native of Fredericton, N. B.) These gentlemen are members of this club. John A. MacLeod, general manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, born at Park Corner, P. E. I., and Sidney H. Logan, General Manager Canadian Bank of Commerce, was born at Springhill, N. S. These latter two reside in Toronto.

The first Industrial Exhibition in any British colony was held in the Provincial Building, Halifax, October 15th, 1854.

The Halifax-Dartmouth Ladies Athletic team consisting of six girls supervised by Mr. and Mrs. Sterling of Halifax, took part in the Canadian Women's Track and Field

Championships in Montreal, July 1st. The team gave a good account of themselves, winning third place in points scored. Miss Gertrude Finney of Halifax, was the outstanding star of the meet, according to a sport writer on the Montreal Star. The acting secretary on behalf of the club, took the team on a bus tour around the city and Dr. J. G. McDougall, of Halifax, gave a dinner to the team and a number of friends in the Blue Room of the Windsor Hotel.

From a recent visitor at the Club Rooms it is learned that the plans for the extension of the Nova Scotia diatomite industry in Colchester and Digby Counties, where are located the largest and purest reserves in North America, are going forward steadily.

It appears that diatomite is used in large quantities in heat and sound insulated products, as an admixture in cement and concrete, as a filter for sugar, syrups, chemicals, etc., as well as some fifty odd smaller tonnage uses. Nova Scotia reserves are particularly favourably situated for economical production and transportation of the best world markets.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. BENJAMIN MATHESON

On July 16th, 1929, the people of Brookfield and vicinity were deeply grieved to hear of the death of Mr. Benjamin Matheson, at the early age of fifty-seven years. Although in very poor health for nearly two years, the end was not thought to be so near until a few days before. All that medical skill and tender nursing could do was of no avail. He was a faithful adherent of the Church of Scotland and while in good health was always found at service. As he lived, so he died, in the faith of the Gospel. He will be greatly missed in the church and community, but it is in the home where the loss is felt most keenly. Mr. Matheson was twice married, first to Alice L. Smith who predeceased him eight years ago. Six years ago he married Mary J. MacRae, who now mourns the loss of a kind and loving husband. To the first marriage were born two daughters and one son, viz.—Oliver, Govan, Sask.; Beatrice and John at home who cherish the memory of a most loving father. He also leaves two brothers and three sisters, John L. and George P., at Wheatley River, Mrs. Alex. Cairns, Stanchel, Mrs. Wm. M. MacRae, Wheatley River and Mrs. John Green, Auburndale, Alta. The funeral took place on Thursday, the 18th, and was very largely attended, service at the house and grave being conducted by Rev. D. V. O'Meara who spoke from John 6:24, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that heareth my word, and believeth on Him that sent Me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life." He dealt eloquently and earnestly with the comforting thought in that beautiful passage, that death means entering into the richer and larger heritage, the life beyond the grave. The floral tributes were: Crescent, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Matheson; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Frank MacRae; wreaths, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. MacRae, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Carew; bouquets, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Aquilla Bowman, cut flowers, Greenvale Women's Institute. The pall bearers were six nephews, Earle MacRae, Fred MacRae, Norman MacLeod, Elmer MacRae, Peter Matheson and William Younker.

CORNELIA RYAN

The angel of death visited the home of Cornelius Ryan, at an early hour on the morning of Aug. 18th, and claimed for its own the bright little flower of the home, little Cornelia. Cornelia was stricken on Saturday with what seemed to be only a bilious attack, but when medical aid was summoned, it proved to be a ruptured appendix. A very skillful performed operation took place on Monday from which she seemed to rally very well, but other and more serious complications set in, and despite all efforts to save her the candle of her little life kept burning lower, until at 1:30 a. m., on Tuesday morning, it finally flickered and went out.

Deceased, who had passed her tenth birthday in May, had a very bright and loving disposition and was a general favorite with all. She will be greatly missed in her circle of little friends and especially in the home where she was the eldest of a family of six, and a little mother to each one.

Cornelia was attended in her illness by the most skilled physicians and surgeons, and nursed by the most kind and loving of nurses, but God ruled otherwise and that little soul strengthened by the last sacraments of Holy Church, administered by her pastor, and Fr. Kiggins born into this world ten short summers ago, was sent to blossom in Heaven.

Come Everybody. Bring Your Friends and Their Friends.

Besides her sorely grieved parents three sisters and two brothers, she leaves her heart-broken grand parents, and a number of loving uncles and aunts, to mourn her loss. The mass cards, spiritual bouquets and flowers, including a beautiful spray from her schoolmates, bore testimony of the esteem Cornelia was held in by her many friends. Her funeral Mass was sung by her pastor, Rev. M. J. Rooney on Wednesday morning, after which the remains were laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery, beside that of her twin brother, who died in infancy. The pall-bearers were her brother Regia and five little cousins, Clarence Ryan, Richard Quinn, Joseph Quinn, Robert McNeil and John Donahue, R. I. P. Island papers please copy)

As services were being beautifully chanted by Rev. F. Gallant, assisted by Mr. David A. Cameron, sorrowing relatives and sympathizing friends followed in procession from the church, where, in youth, she first received Holy Communion and many times beautifully decorated with flowers in honor of Him who suffered for all. Her body rests beside those of her parents in St. Mary's Cemetery. (May her soul rest in peace)

On the morning of the funeral Mass for the repose of her soul, was offered up, at the request of her sisters—who were unable to be present—in New York City.

Telegram of sincere regret and sympathy from sisters, New York City.

Letter of condolence from Maple Leaf Women's Institute to Mrs. H. P. McNeill, Travellers Rest; Dear Mrs. McNeill:—

We your neighbors, friends, and co-workers take this opportunity of expressing the very deep sympathy we feel for you in your sad bereavement. We feel our words are inadequate to such a task for you know the loss of a sister such as she was in irreplaceable. We speak what we know, that to know her was to love her. Our meetings, which in her health, she loved to attend were made bright and cheery by her very presence. True, she has passed beyond the vale, but in that passing she has left with us the memory of an unselfish noble character, who thought always of others, never of herself. So in the quiet lonely hours which we feel sure you will have so

Signed in sincere sympathy, Mrs. Harry Walker, Miss Etta Walker, Miss Emmeline Marchbank.
