Don't delay fighting constipation with BRAN that is ALL BRAN!

When constipation flashes its signals-of-sickness into your eyes and cheeks; into your breath, your brain and your appetite, it is absolutely necessary that you head it off! Toxic poisoning stands close by; Bright's disease and other dangerous diseases await their turn!

The remedy that nature offers is the simplest and most effective—Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, which is ALL BRAN! And it is ALL BRAN! It is ALL BRAN you need when you start to fight constipation. You can't afford to delay a minute and you can't afford to use half-way measures with foods that contain a percentage of bran! Your physician will recommend Kellogg's Bran because it is not only effective, but because it is delicious. Why—you will like its nut-like flavor, which adds so much to any food with which it is served.

Be certain to eat Kellogg's Bran regularly—at least two tablespoonfuls daily; in chronic cases with each meal. Results will prove astounding. Remember that Kellogg's Bran is nature's own regulator, which operates in nature's way—which is the best way!

Eat Kellogg's Bran as a cereal, sprinkled on other hot or cold cereals, or make it up into the best of muffins, pancakes, raisin bread, cookies, macaroons. Kellogg recipes are printed on each package. Let the children eat Kellogg's Bran. It is wonderfully beneficial. It will improve their health just as it will really and truly make-over men and women. The value of Kellogg's Bran cannot be overestimated. Sold universally by grocers.

Damning the Captain Cost Sailor His Legs

NEW YORK, May 21.—A story that he was placed in irons for 11 days, ultimately causing the amputation of both his legs, because he resented the captain's alleged disregard of Union Seamen's rule, was told to his attorney today by Amandee J. Jalbert, known as "Frenchy" Amandee, now a patient in the Chelsea Marine Hospital of Boston, came here today to testify tomorrow against the New York and Cuba Mail Steamship Company in his suit for $150,000 damages. That company owned the Siboney, the ship upon which Amandee served.

Two days out from Havana runs "Frenchy's" yarn, he was ordered to cover a lifeboat that had been painted. He told the second mate, he said, that such a task constituted manual labor and that union rules called for double time for all manual labor after 5 p. m.

"I went down to get my book," narrated "Frenchy." "I showed the captain the Union rules. He said 'Damn the Union,' and I said Damn you, mister,' and he had me placed in irons."

"Frenchy" said he was left in the unventilated pantry, where for 11 days he lay uncovered and delirious. He was discharged and paid off when the Siboney reached its Spanish destination, he said. There were long black marks on his legs when he shipped to the United States. His legs constantly became worse and finally gangrene set in. At Fort McHenry Hospital, Baltimore, his left leg was amputated, and within a few months the right one was taken off.

Toronto Policeman Saves Girl's Life

TORONTO, May 21—Methods of artificial respiration applied for about 18 minutes by Police Constable Thomas O'Neill proved successful in saving the life of Miss Etta McKendrick, aged 25, who was overcome by fumes of illuminating gas at her home at daybreak today.

Moans of the young woman awakened her elder brother, who, upon investigation, detected fumes of gas emanating from her room, and broke in the door. He immediately ran to the street and summoned Constable O'Neill, who put in a call for the police ambulance. The constable took the pulmotor from the patrol box and hurried to the girl's aid.

O'Neill, who was almost overcome himself while working on the girl, stated that several times he thought she had expired.

Gas was found to have escaped from a faulty pipe in the girl's room.

'Marvellous' Murray Still the Savior

ST. CATHARINES, May 21.—"I still hold th eidea of being the Saviour," declared "Marvellous" Murray to Police Magistrate Campbell today.

As Murray entered the box after a week's remand in jail he was asked by the Magistrate if he felt better.

"I feel fair, yes," replied Murray.

"Have you still got the idea of who you are?" queried His Worship.

"It was just enthusiasm that made me feel like that," stated Murray, adding, "I still hold the idea of being the Saviour."

The defendant stated that he went out collecting funds because he was nearly out of money, and he went from house to house preaching the gospel of love, that everyone should love one another.

The magistrate: "And everyone who loved should contribute a little?"

Murray is the man who last week interrupted the Ascension Day services at the St. Catharines Roman Catholic Church when he ran down the aisle with arms extended and declared that he was going to ascend to heaven, he being the King of Kings and Ruler of Rulers.

The magistrate remanded him for another week until further enquiries shall have been made.

Nearly Half of Philippine Children Now Go to School

MANILLA, May 18.—The Philippine Islands have a total of 8,174 schools, public and private, with an approximate enrollment of 1,160,000, according to the bureau of education and the superintendent of private schools. It is estimated that the Philippines have a population of 2,500,000 children of school age.

Public schools alone number 7,641 and attendance reached a total of 1,094,472 during the last year while private schools number 532 and have an enrollment of 64,835.

Eighty-five per cent of the private schools in the Philippines are religious institutions, and 67.5 per cent secular. Seventy-seven per cent of the religious private schools are Catholic, while the remaining eight per cent are Protestant.

The public school system, in which English is taught, includes 24,878 teachers, 341 of whom are Americans.

IN MEMORIAM

PETER W. McLEOD

Mount Stewart and surrounding communities mourn the death of Peter W. McLeod, which took place Tuesday, May 8th. Born at Valleyfield, July 15th, 1854, the son of Norman McLeod, he received his early education in the public school of that district whose fame has been recognized far beyond its own borders. At an early age he passed a successful examination as a teacher and followed the profession for some years and among the stalwart friends of his life, were the men and women who had the privilege of being his pupils.

He engaged in the general merchandise business in Mt. Stewart nearly forty years ago and conducted the same with honor to himself, for he was honest and truthful and courteous. He transferred the business to his son W. L. McLeod about four years ago, yet while he had strength to walk he kept in touch with its affairs until ten days before his passing away.

He was one of an illustrious family. His brother John P. McLeod, beginning his scholastic career in the public school of Valleyfield, was a successful competitor for the Prince of Wales Scholarship at the age of 13 years. Afterwards at Dalhousie carrying all before him and achieved a standing that has not been surpassed by any other student since his day. Other brothers have also been connected with educational work in Canada. Angus was principal of Kentville Academy for fifteen years.

He was a loyal Conservative and a personal faithful friend of the late lamented Hon. Alex Martin, who in his early days was the teacher in Valleyfield Public School

Mr. McLeod was a devoted friend having tast and sympathy in him, patience was truly a virtue. From childhood he had been taught to worship and reverence God. It was the training of the Christian home and he became a member of the Presbyterian Church. He was a profound thinker and conversant with world affairs.

Besides a wide circle of friends he leaves to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father, his widow, nee Margaret Jardine who had lived forty years of happy wedded life with him. His son Wm. L. McLeod merchant, Mt. Stewart, two daughters Lalia and Mary Mrs. Clark, both of Seattle, Wash., besides a sister Catherine, Mrs. Angus Nicholson, Valleyfield and two brothers Wm. N. McLeod, Mt. Stewart and Norman McLeod, Amherst, N. S.

He was laid to rest Thursday, May 10th. The services at the home being conducted by his pastor Rev. J. C. Martin, assisted by the Rev. John M. McLeod, St. Peters Bay, who is a cousin of the departed one and Rev. Mr. Palethorpe. Many friends regardless of creed gathered to bear a tribute of their love and regard. The sympathy of friends far and near is extended to the bereaved.

"He had served his own generation, by the will of God and fell on sleep."

MY PASS TO PARADISE

I had a pass to Paradise,
But then I didn't know
If I should want to use it, for
Perhaps I wou'dn't go.

And so I went and sold my Pass;
I thought the price was high,
But now I rather wonder if
I'll think so bye and bye.

I used to watch the quiet crowd
Who went along that way;
I thought them rather stupid folk
To live with every day.

But maybe they had qualities
Of Virtue that I lack
I sold my Pass to Paradise—
I wish I had it back!

Fortune Continues To Smile On Charlottetown

The management of Prince Edward theatre has been fortunate in securing the College Players of Mount Allison in their 1923 production, "Daddy Long-legs," which will be staged in Charlottetown on Friday, May 25.

The Mount Allison Players have toured the Maritimes for several seasons when they have always been greeted by capacity houses and have always pleased. This year's production, "Daddy Long-legs," written by Jean Webster, (an authoress whose name stands for excellence) is considered to be one of the best in which this versatile company of actors have ever appeared, Love, pathos and a happy ending all combine to hold the audience from start to finish, and send them away satisfied. Action is the keynote of this excellent play which has not a dull moment from start to finish.

In addition to this banner production, graduate artists from the Mount Allison Conservatory of Music will appear between acts in musical specialties. In previous years this feature of the programme has always pleased exceedingly those who have been privileged to hear it.

The coming of the College Players offers a rare treat to the people of Charlottetown. Get your seats early. Tickets on sale at prices within reach of all, 37c, 52c, 80c.

BLOCKADE OF ICE CAUSES BIG LOSS

MONTREAL, May 20—Canadian and British firms interested in cattle shipments to Great Britain estimate that a total of at least $50,000 has been lost owing to the ice blockade which delayed vessels for about three weeks and held up shipments of close to 5,000 head of cattle. Most of these cattle have been accumulating at Montreal, St John, N. B., Toronto and Winnipeg, and the average cost of upkeep runs to about $10 a head during the period of delay.
