

THE SUMMER SIDE GUARDIAN

and PRINCE COUNTY CHRONICLE

The Western Guardian

This column is reserved for news of local interest but advertising of a new nature may be inserted at a word strictly payable in advance.

BISMA-REX for stomach troubles, 75¢ at Taylor Drug Co., Kennington. L-9803

CARD PARTY and Dance, Kennington tomorrow night. L-9814-9-26-11.

BEDEQUE UNITED CHURCH, Friday, September 27th, Robert Gordon will speak on trip to England. Summerville soloist and male quartette. L-9881

THE MALPEQUE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE will hold a pantry sale at Sinclair and Stewart's Saturday afternoon, Sept. 28th, in aid of Sanatorium. L-9880

BRACE'S new Monarch "A" 2 or 6 volt combination auto or radio storage battery will live from 5 to 10 days and operate the average radio set 600 hours without recharging. L-9800-9-25-21.

RETURNED TO HALIFAX—Dr. Hunt who has been visiting his home in St. Eleanor's for the summer months has returned to his duties at Kings College, Halifax. L-9854-9-25-31

ORGANIZATION TUG-O-WAR gathering, Bedeque Rink, Friday, Sept. 27, to receive entries. Coaches are invited to bring their teams and try them out on the ropes. Admission free, luncheon sold at 15 cents. L-9854-9-25-31

"DOC" MacPHERSON SAYS—I have received a beautiful lot of overcoats cut by my made-to-measure firm, cut and style the way I want them and the way you want them. Call and see them. L-9852-9-21-31

FOX SHOW AT EGMONT BAY—The exhibit of foxes at the Egmont Bay exhibition was highly commended upon by the visitors. Top prizes for this exhibit were won by the following: Dark to Medium, Silver Fox, adult pair, Aubin J. Gallant, Abrams Village; 3-4 to full silver, adult pair, Aubin J. Gallant; 1-4 Silver pups, one pair, C. Arsenault, Urbainville; half silver pups, one pair, Edwin Darby, Abrams Village; 3-4 to full silver, one pair, Edwin Darby, Abrams Village. L-9854-9-25-31

TRYON BOYS AND GIRLS HOLSTEIN CLUB—On Monday afternoon the Boys and Girls Holstein Club held their annual Field Day at Tryon Creamery. There were about fifty head of cattle brought out and Mr. Walter Shaw, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, said that the show was a very meritorious one and did credit to the young people. Mr. Roper who judged the classes commended the boys and girls on the manner in which they had brought out their stock and the sportsmanship they had displayed in their placings. Mr. Roper had a difficult task in placing the awards as all the cattle were of an excellent fit and finish and all high class stock. L-9854-9-25-31

Largest Sale in the Maritimes!

Sussex PALE DRY GINGER ALE

THE QUALITY KIND

Sussex Ginger Ale Limited, St. John's, N.S.

Maritimers may differ in politics—but there's one platform on which they all agree, that Sussex is their favourite beverage. Largest in sales because finest in flavour—as it has been for nearly half a century. Stock up with this 5 glass size—only a couple of pennies a glass.

1-LB. FLOOR WAX and 1, 15-lb. floor polishing brush with long handle, Special now at Brace's $1.25. L-9800-9-25-31.

VISITING OLD HOME—Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Nesbitt of Boston, and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Nesbitt of Portland, Maine are visiting their old home in Tyne Valley, the guests of Mr. Thomas Nesbitt. L-9800-9-25-31.

PERSONALS

Mr. Thomas White, son of Ven. Archdeacon C. de W. White, D.D., and Mrs. White, Summerville, left on Tuesday to continue his studies at Kings College, Halifax. L-9800-9-25-31.

Mrs. A. B. MacLeod, has returned to her home in Truro after a delightful visit with Mrs. Artemas Schurman, Bedeque. L-9800-9-25-31.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Woodside, Summerville, and Mrs. Woodside's mother, Mrs. A. J. Phillips of Charlottetown left on Wednesday morning for a short visit to Boston. L-9800-9-25-31.

PROHIBITION

(Continued from Page 1)

administration of this law the Government should take that responsibility on its own shoulders, and not only that but should have and exercise full and complete control. And I do not see that the Government is going to be amenable to political or other influence any more than a Commission appointed from partisan supporters as has been very often the case in the past.

Expenses of the Commission, Mr. Campbell continued, amount to $2,600 annually. The Attorney General formerly received a salary of $2,000 when the portfolio was held separately. In 1923 Premier Stewart assumed the office and reduced the remuneration to $1,500. It is proposed now to restore the salary to $2,000, the Attorney General to assume, in addition to his other duties, the duties hitherto discharged by the Prohibition Commission. The Government feels that large savings in other directions can be made by this move. For example the funds collected by the Prohibition Commission. The Government feels that large savings in other directions can be made by this move. For example the funds collected by the Prohibition Commission.

There was an anomaly in the situation, Mr. Campbell said, because while the Mounted Police are nominally under the control of the Attorney General and subject to his direction, yet on questions arising under the Prohibition Act the Attorney General cannot give any instructions.

VOICES STRONG PROTEST

Mr. MacKay (First Queens) said he was strongly against the bill. There is a proviso in the bill that vendors, clerks, and other officials may be appointed and their remuneration may be fixed by the Governor-in-Council. No one can tell what amount of expenses may be incurred in enforcing the Act under the Attorney General's administration. "As a member of this House I am opposed to the principle of that. I would like to see the Commission continued, an independent Commission. I think this is a little premature to bring up at a special session. At the very least, I think it should have been left to the regular session. Those who are most interested in the enforcement of this law—the temperance organizations and almost all the clergy—are in favour of a Commission to enforce the Act. I think that until such time as they could have an opportunity of voicing their sentiments before the Government we have no right to pass this legislation. On these grounds I may say that I am not in favour of the amendment as proposed."

MR. LEPAGE APPROVES

Hon. Mr. LePage defended the bill, on the ground that by making the Attorney General and the Government responsible, better enforcement than heretofore would be obtained. "All money coming into this province should be handled by the treasurer," he maintained. "The Prohibition Commissioners are not responsible to the people. They don't have to run an election and their efforts in a great many cases were very lax. For instance they had two men employed, one as a purchasing agent who did probably an hour's work in a year and received not only salary but travelling expenses amounting in all to approximately $600; they also had a secretary who was receiving another $600. This was absolutely unnecessary. Those two men have been discharged already and this is one of the moves by the present Government to economize. There will also be a saving of $2,000 and about $200 expenses by the Commission themselves. In all I find that we have been paying $3,400 for this year. I am informed that this higher. Therefore it would be wise for us to take authority to fund this overdraft."

Cox And Dennis Vainly Protest

(Continued from Page 1)

Demands Information

Mr. Dennis (Second Prince) said he thought the Government should be prepared at this stage to give full information.

Premier Lea: "That is what we are in committee for. The authority asked for is not only to meet the overdraft, but to provide for other refundings that it may be wise for us to deal with. We may easily anticipate, too, an increase of several hundred thousand of dollars in the overdraft before the end of the year."

Mr. Saville (Fifth Kings): "Is it the intention that any of this money be used for relief purposes? If so, it seems to me that there might be work provided, which would save direct relief."

Premier Lea: "The Government is endeavoring to deal with that as far as possible. I think other members of the House will feel as I do, that our people expect us to economize. I would like to know to what amount the indebtedness has been increased."

Premier Lea: "An audit is being made by the Provincial Auditor. So far as an External Audit is concerned, members will know that we have abandoned that for several years past, both by our predecessors and ourselves. We are now having an audit made by the Provincial Auditor, which will be as accurate as may be had."

NO EXTERNAL AUDIT

Mr. Dennis: "We would like to have the amount of the increased indebtedness since the books were closed in 1924."

Premier Lea: "That is being prepared. It is not ready yet."

Mr. Dennis: "Then we are not in the position of knowing what the indebtedness of the Province is at the present time."

Premier Lea: "We know what the overdraft is."

Mr. Dennis: "Won't you give us what that amounts to?"

Premier Lea: "I may say that unless it is checked up daily it is pretty hard to give it, because bills are coming in very rapidly. There is much work being done on the black base and permanent highways. I would say around $900,000, and it is increasing very rapidly. It will be perhaps $1,000,000 or $1,200,000 before the end of the year, because of the amount of the work yet to do."

Mr. Cox (Second Kings): "If the overdraft is $1,200,000 what are you doing with the other $1,800,000?"

Premier Lea: "We can refund."

Mr. Cox: "But the whole trouble is this—if you have too much money to work on you may be extravagant, just like an individual. I don't think that the Government should have too much. It might, as I say, have a tendency to make them extravagant if they can issue three million dollars of debentures."

Hon. Mr. McIntyre: "It is not the intention to refund what has already been borrowed at a lower rate of interest."

Mr. Cox: "Yes, but you can do it any time you like when you have the authority to do it. That's the point. You can issue debentures whenever you like for $1,800,000 over and above the amount you will need to take care of the overdraft."

Hon. Mr. McIntyre: "If the opportunity presents itself we can refund at a lower rate of interest, provided we have the authority. For instance if there is a change in the Act at Ottawa to refund at lower interest rates."

Mr. Aorn (First Kings): "I think what the Premier has told us regarding interest rates at present existing and the necessity of having legislation to refund some of our liabilities coming due in the near future, is a very wise precaution. I understand that during the next five years we have $1,536,000 falling due, and to retire that we have in the sinking funds $486,000; which means that we must pay off over a million dollars, if by giving the necessary authority to the Government now to borrow that, this Government could save some thousands of dollars to the taxpayers, I think we are in duty bound to pass the legislation."

Mr. Dennis: "We are passing over to the Government the authority to obtain that much money, are we not?"

Premier Lea: "Yes; but that is not borrowing at all."

Mr. Dennis: "Isn't it?"

Premier Lea: "No. We may never use it."

Mr. Dennis: "You have to get that authority before you do so. We have given authority before to governments on the same assurance that it might not be needed; but they always saw fit to use it. That very thing may be done again. There was, I understand, an amount voted for the Potato Growers Association by the Government. Whether the money was paid to the Bank, or whether the amount was guaranteed or not, we do not know. I would like—"

000 annually on that account. It is not possible at the present time to do that but it is something leading up to it, whereby the high interest rate bonds will be reduced materially by all the Provinces of Canada, headed by the Federal Government. For this overdraft of $1,800,000 at the present time we are paying 3 1/2 percent more interest at the bank than it is necessary for us to pay when we sell the bonds. We must have the power to float this issue when the opportunity arises."

Mr. Dennis: "Are we asked to believe that you or someone else has some mysterious power that will induce bond holders receiving six per cent interest to hand over those bonds to the Provincial Government for other bonds at three per cent? Money lenders are not that class of men."

Hon. Mr. Allen: "At the present time we have an offer which will save this Province, on part of this million and a quarter issue, something equal to over $100,000."

Mr. Dennis: "Will you explain that offer?"

Hon. Mr. Allen: "I won't take the time by going into details, but I think the hon. member should accept that statement."

Premier Lea: "The offer has been made."

"JUST TAKING AUTHORITY"

Mr. Dennis: "The point is we want to give the Government every facility we can to carry on the business of the country in the way they think best. But our people at the present time are expecting the members they elected to protect their interests, and we have got to find minutely why this huge amount of money is being voted."

Premier Lea: "We are not in Supply."

Mr. Dennis: "We are not voting; we are just taking the authority to do it. My hon. friend is confused."

Mr. Dennis: "We are passing over to the Government the authority to obtain that much money, are we not?"

Premier Lea: "Yes; but that is not borrowing at all."

Mr. Dennis: "Isn't it?"

Premier Lea: "No. We may never use it."

Mr. Dennis: "You have to get that authority before you do so. We have given authority before to governments on the same assurance that it might not be needed; but they always saw fit to use it. That very thing may be done again. There was, I understand, an amount voted for the Potato Growers Association by the Government. Whether the money was paid to the Bank, or whether the amount was guaranteed or not, we do not know. I would like—"

The Chairman: "Will you confine yourself to the clauses."

"PRESSES QUESTION"

Mr. Dennis: "I submit that we are dealing with the loan that will possibly be made. We have a right to analyze the question as to how the money will be used if it is borrowed. And I submit that I am perfectly in order in asking if this money may be used by the Government to pay off the Potato Growers Association indebtedness. I am waiting for you to rule if I am in order."

The Chairman: "You have a right to know if it is for that purpose."

Mr. Dennis: "If the Premier will kindly explain, if it is not too much trouble."

Premier Lea: "That is another matter entirely."

Mr. Dennis: "What?"

Premier Lea: "We are drifting away from the matter of this clause."

The Chairman: "He wants to know if the leader of the House intends paying this money."

Mr. Dennis: "That is the idea; whether it is his intention."

Premier Lea: "No, we are not going to pay any indebtedness. There is a provision made that I will explain in the proper time."

"REFUSES INFORMATION"

Mr. Dennis: "Don't you think this is the proper time to explain it?"

Premier Lea: "No; we have no time today. This is a special session."

Hon. Mr. LePage: "I think we are protecting the interests of the people in asking authority to borrow sufficient money to pay off the overdraft. This is not on account of any expenditure of the present Government. A great part of the money had already been spent and a great amount of contracts entered into which we couldn't possibly do otherwise than complete. That is going to require probably a million dollars more at the end of the season. We are not responsible for this overdraft in any way, shape or form. We are fulfilling now the contracts that the other government entered into, for which they provided no funds to pay. If we allow this to run along till next March we will have to pay more, because there are going to be some big Dominion issues between this and the end of the year and we want to be in a position to try the market out for funding part of this overdraft at the present time. Another matter that comes up is this. The Dominion electricity is on the 14th of next month and we have at least three parties and they are speaking of refunding the federal, provincial and municipal debts down to lower rates of interest. Whatever party is returned to power wishes to do this, and we want to be in a position to fund at least the six per cent bonds at the present time. If we ask for about two million dollars for refunding purposes then we will be in a position to do that. I believe that whatever government comes back at Ottawa, this has got to be done."

Mr. Saville (Fifth Kings): "I understand that the additional amount after paying the overdraft would only be spent in refunding and interest rate reduction. I would support the bill on those grounds."

Mr. Stewart (First Queens) supported the bill "very heartily."

Mr. Linkletter (Third Prince) asked how the Government purposed getting back the bonds now issued at high interest rates. Will the man who has this mortgage on the Province give it up?"

Premier Lea: "He will give it up if you pay him something worth while for it. Between 6 1/2 percent and what you can at present borrow money for we will be able to save $105,000 or $110,000. A saving will be effected whether we will have to pay out more money or not."

Mr. Linkletter: "Have you any information that they will surrender these bonds?"

Premier Lea: "We have very definite information that arrangements can be made."

"PRE-ELECTION PROMISES"

Mr. Stewart: "The authority is expected to come after the Dominion Parliament meets again. They will pass arbitrary legislation to enable all the provinces to refund their high interest bonds."

Mr. Linkletter: "These things are pre-election promises. I don't think we should issue very heavy bonds on pre-election promises."

Premier Lea: "We are not touching that at all. The bill is only to give us authority if we deem it wise."

Mr. Dennis: "But you are voting two million dollars for that purpose."

Premier Lea: "Pardon me; we are not voting anything today at all."

Mr. Dennis: "It is giving you the power, the legislative authority. You and I differ on terms, that is all."

Premier Lea: "No, no, it is an altogether different matter."

Mr. Dennis: "I notice that permanent works of a permanent nature are to be conducted by the Government. I as a member of the House do not wish to make it possible for the Government to borrow this huge amount of money to be spent for that purpose."

Hon. T. A. Campbell: "I think the explanation of that has already been given, that the overdraft is at the present time $900,000 but between now and the time the Legislature meets there will be a great many additional bills come in. We are not spending the money; the contracts have already been let and they have to be carried out and completed, and we have to find the money somewhere to pay for them. If we authorize only the funding of the past overdraft then we would be following the steps of our predecessors in making no provision for the payment of the balance of these large amounts."

"VOICE OF THE PEOPLE"

Mr. Cox: "Has this amount ever been authorized before—three million dollars—by any Government? It is going all through the country right now that this Government has only been in one month and they are going to borrow three million dollars."

Hon. Mr. Prowse: "I think that is very good information to go broadcast because we are trying to refund a loan—a colossal blunder made by the past government—and save $100,000, as well as paying off an overdraft that the bank is getting 4 1/2 per cent for, and getting it for 3 per cent."

Hon. T. A. Campbell: "We have been advised by all the bond houses that the bond interest rate is likely to increase appreciably between now and next spring or summer. That is one of the additional reasons for passing this bill at the present time. May I also point out that apart from whether we like it or not, we shall have to refund half a million dollars in bonds which mature next June, which our predecessors issued on a two year term."

Premier Lea: "I move the section."

(The Chairman said something inaudible from the press gallery.)

Mr. Dennis: "Before this section carries."

Premier Lea: "It is already carried."

Mr. Dennis: "I didn't hear any motion."

(The chairman put the motion audibly, and the clause carried. Mr. Dennis did not ask for a division.)

"OTHER SECTIONS"

The remaining clauses carried without discussion, as follows:

"2. For the purpose of securing the payment of the principal money raised by the said debentures and the interest thereon, the same are hereby declared to be a charge upon the revenues and assets of this Province."

"3. So far as the security of the holder of any debenture purporting to be issued under the authority of this Act is concerned, no person shall be bound to enquire whether the debenture has actually been issued for the purposes mentioned in this Act, but every such debenture issued and properly signed and executed shall be deemed to be duly issued under this Act."

"4. For the purpose of redeeming said debentures it shall be the duty of the Government of Prince Edward Island in every year to set apart a sum not more than three per cent of the amount of the debentures actually issued, which sum shall be invested as a sinking fund to be used for the redemption of said debentures and for no other purpose, and such sinking fund is hereby declared to be a charge upon the revenues and assets of this Province."

"5. The moneys so set apart and all interest derived therefrom shall be invested either in the redemption by purchase of debentures issued under this Act, or upon such other securities as may from time to time be agreed on by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council."

"6. Debentures issued under this Act shall be under the great seal of the Province and signed by the Lieutenant-Governor, or in the absence of the Lieutenant-Governor by the Administrator, and countersigned by the Provincial Treasurer or the Deputy Provincial Treasurer. The said debentures shall be issued in such amounts as shall be determined by an Order of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council."

"7. The lithographed or engraved facsimile signature of the Provincial Treasurer or the Deputy

HEPBURN'S WESTERN TOUR RECORD FLOP

(Bruce Hutchison in Vancouver Province)

Ontario's luminous comet, Mitch Hepburn, streaked across the dark sky of British Columbia this week, but instead of scattering the political stardust that the Liberal party had expected, he left only a cinder in the Pattullo Government's eye.

His long-heralded western tour, which was to stiffen up Liberal candidates in this province and show the public that the Pattullo Government had a powerful friend speaking confidently, a record-breaking flop. Some of the ablest politicians in the party will tell you that Mr. Hepburn didn't make a vote for a Liberal candidate.

How many he lost the party is the unsettled question. He made the public laugh, but the belief in the highest quarters is that he didn't make a vote.

On the whole, the most-informed opinion seems to be that it would have been more valuable in practical politics if Mr. Hepburn had sent his engaging ballad singer, Mr. Wishart Campbell, out west and stayed home himself. Mr. Campbell's touching little songs seem to have been the only thing in the Hepburn entourage that touched the hard heart of British Columbia's electorate.

It wasn't only that Mr. Hepburn's tour was not a success in terms of votes. It revealed that Mr. Hepburn, long heralded as a disciple of McGeer and a spiritual brother of Pattullo, simply wasn't in the same boat with them at all, really had no business in the same party. If anything were needed to show the total confusion of party politics in this western country, Mr. Hepburn supplied the need with an unstinted generosity.

One does not recall anything more cruel and ruthless than the spectacle of Mr. Hepburn standing beside Premier Pattullo on the stage of the Royal Victoria Theatre here and imploring the Pattullo program, point by point; and all with quips and minstrel stories to which the ministers of the Pattullo Government had to listen and smile, just as if their brain children were not being butchered at their feet.

Quite evidently Mr. Hepburn didn't know what he was doing. Quite evidently he had never heard of the attullo Government's program. Quite evidently he was under the pathetic illusion that he and British Columbia Liberalism belonged to the same political faith.

Quite evidently Mr. Hepburn didn't know what he was doing. Quite evidently he had never heard of the attullo Government's program. Quite evidently he was under the pathetic illusion that he and British Columbia Liberalism belonged to the same political faith.

Quite evidently Mr. Hepburn didn't know what he was doing. Quite evidently he had never heard of the attullo Government's program. Quite evidently he was under the pathetic illusion that he and British Columbia Liberalism belonged to the same political faith.

Quite evidently Mr. Hepburn didn't know what he was doing. Quite evidently he had never heard of the attullo Government's program. Quite evidently he was under the pathetic illusion that he and British Columbia Liberalism belonged to the same political faith.

Quite evidently Mr. Hepburn didn't know what he was doing. Quite evidently he had never heard of the attullo Government's program. Quite evidently he was under the pathetic illusion that he and British Columbia Liberalism belonged to the same political faith.

Quite evidently Mr. Hepburn didn't know what he was doing. Quite evidently he had never heard of the attullo Government's program. Quite evidently he was under the pathetic illusion that he and British Columbia Liberalism belonged to the same political faith.

Quite evidently Mr. Hepburn didn't know what he was doing. Quite evidently he had never heard of the attullo Government's program. Quite evidently he was under the pathetic illusion that he and British Columbia Liberalism belonged to the same political faith.

Quite evidently Mr. Hepburn didn't know what he was doing. Quite evidently he had never heard of the attullo Government's program. Quite evidently he was under the pathetic illusion that he and British Columbia Liberalism belonged to the same political faith.

Quite evidently Mr. Hepburn didn't know what he was doing. Quite evidently he had never heard of the attullo Government's program. Quite evidently he was under the pathetic illusion that he and British Columbia Liberalism belonged to the same political faith.

Quite evidently Mr. Hepburn didn't know what he was doing. Quite evidently he had never heard of the attullo Government's program. Quite evidently he was under the pathetic illusion that he and British Columbia Liberalism belonged to the same political faith.

Quite evidently Mr. Hepburn didn't know what he was doing. Quite evidently he had never heard of the attullo Government's program. Quite evidently he was under the pathetic illusion that he and British Columbia Liberalism belonged to the same political faith.

Quite evidently Mr. Hepburn didn't know what he was doing. Quite evidently he had never heard of the attullo Government's program. Quite evidently he was under the pathetic illusion that he and British Columbia Liberalism belonged to the same political faith.

Quite evidently Mr. Hepburn didn't know what he was doing. Quite evidently he had never heard of the attullo Government's program. Quite evidently he was under the pathetic illusion that he and British Columbia Liberalism belonged to the same political faith.

Quite evidently Mr. Hepburn didn't know what he was doing. Quite evidently he had never heard of the attullo Government's program. Quite evidently he was under the pathetic illusion that he and British Columbia Liberalism belonged to the same political faith.

Quite evidently Mr. Hepburn didn't know what he was doing. Quite evidently he had never heard of the attullo Government's program. Quite evidently he was under the pathetic illusion that he and British Columbia Liberalism belonged to the same political faith.

Quite evidently Mr. Hepburn didn't know what he was doing. Quite evidently he had never heard of the attullo Government's program. Quite evidently he was under the pathetic illusion that he and British Columbia Liberalism belonged to the same political faith.

Quite evidently Mr. Hepburn didn't know what he was doing. Quite evidently he had never heard of the attullo Government's program. Quite evidently he was under the pathetic illusion that he and British Columbia Liberalism belonged to the same political faith.

Quite evidently Mr. Hepburn didn't know what he was doing. Quite evidently he had never heard of the attullo Government's program. Quite evidently he was under the pathetic illusion that he and British Columbia Liberalism belonged to the same political faith.

Quite evidently Mr. Hepburn didn't know what he was doing. Quite evidently he had never heard of the attullo Government's program. Quite evidently he was under the pathetic illusion that he and British Columbia Liberalism belonged to the same political faith.

Quite evidently Mr. Hepburn didn't know what he was doing. Quite evidently he had never heard of the attullo Government's program. Quite evidently he was under the pathetic illusion that he and British Columbia Liberalism belonged to the same political faith.

Welcome Is Extended To Popular Couple

The choir and members of the congregation of the Presbyterian Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Huestis on Tuesday evening to tender a welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Hancock, who recently returned from their honeymoon.

Rev. W. MacCleary was appointed chairman and in a short speech of welcome referred to the high esteem and affection which the members of the church undoubtedly held for Mr. Hancock and his bride, and which were so tangibly expressed in the beautiful gifts which he had been asked to present on their behalf.

Mr. MacCleary then presented a lovely silver tea service, the gift of the Men's choir and a walnut table, the gift of the Mixed Choir. A beautiful linen table cloth and napkins was the gift of the young girls of the church to the bride. There were several individual gifts from friends of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Hancock replied in feeling terms thanking one and all for their tangible expressions of good will.

Mr. Heath Strong, K. C. and Mr. Wm. Forbes gave short addresses of congratulation. After a dainty lunch had been served by the ladies the remainder of the evening was taken up with music and singing. L-9800-9-25-31

Pretty Autumn Wedding

A pretty autumn wedding took place on Wednesday morning at 6.30 o'clock in St. Paul's Church, Summerville, when Miss Marion Coeella MacLellan, R. N., daughter of the late Dr. A. A. MacLellan and Mrs. MacLellan of Summerville, was united in marriage to Mr. James P. Callaghan, son of Mr. Peter L. Callaghan, of Emvale, P. E. Island. The church was tastefully decorated with autumn flowers.

Rev. Dr. P. L. Callaghan, parish priest at St. Charles, P. E. Island, celebrated the Nuptial Mass. The Girls' Choir of which the bride was a member, sang during the Mass. Mrs. Roy Sullivan played the wedding march as the bridal party entered the church.