THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN Head Offices in New Prowse Block, Charlottetown.

YESTERDAY'S Guardian had 73 classified ads.

The tide will be high this morning at 8.30 and tonight at 10 o'clock.

MISS L. LAMONT, the very efficient teacher at Union, Lot 33, spent Sunday at Stanhope.

Mrs. JOHN WEST is spending the week at York, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wesley Vesey.

It is the busy bees that gather honey and The Guardian WANT ADS that get the MONEY.

The band stand in the public square has been nicely painted by D. Howlett, and the colors blend harmoniously with the landscape.

The Guardian regrets to learn of the serious illness of James Dover, Suffolk. Mr. Dover is in his 88th year and has been ill for some years.

Mrs. J. R. DARKE will be at home on the afternoons of Wednesday and Thursday of this week, at the residence of Mrs. F. O. Batt, Prince Street.

G. CHESTER LAWSON of St. Avaris, who lately arrived home from McGill, Montreal, left on Saturday to visit his uncle D. A. Lawson, Hunter River.

Owing to inadvertence yesterday's issue said that Le Barre Minstrels play at the Opera House on Tuesday and Friday nights of this week, whereas it should have said Thursday and Friday.

The marriage took place in Hartsfield Presbyterian Church, on June 14th, 1906, of Malcolm A. MacLeod, Victoria West, to Miss Mary MacKenzie, of Bradburne, Rev. A. S. Stewart, performed the ceremony. Miss Christina MacKenzie was bridesmaid, sister of the bride; and Nell Nicholson acted as groomsman, cousin of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. MacLeod left next morning for their future home, followed by the good wishes of their many friends.

Rev. GEORGE AYERS preached most acceptably at Union, Lot 33, Sunday afternoon. The choir was under the direction of Mrs. Ambrose Mellett, who presided at the organ. The text chosen was Romans 8, 37. These were the words of a hero, and heroism has always been admired. The greatest foe is sin, and the greatest man is he who overcomes it on the battlefield of the human heart. Men of principle, who will stand up for the right in spite of all opposition, are greatly needed at the present time. Mr. Ayers' sermon, which was ably delivered, created an excellent impression and reflected the highest ideals of common Christianity.

The La Barre Bros. Postmasters and Graduates of the College of Minstrelry will give a performance in the Opera House on Thursday and Friday of this week. The following notice which is taken from the Rochester News will be read with interest:—The entertainment presented at the opera house last evening proved to be one of the best of the season, and the large audience was loud in its praise of the program offered by the La Barre Bros. Minstrelsy. There are larger minstrelsy troupes that visit this city, and their $10,000 scenery and costumes are grand, but we feel justified in saying that the entertainment presented by the La Barre Bros. and their splendid company was better from an artistic point, for we never saw so many good artists with any other minstrel organization that ever played in our city. The jokes were really new, the dancing far above the average, and the comedy part of the show was clean and bright, and the comedians clever. The balancing act in the Olio is a very original novelty, and made a grand hit. The performer should be congratulated for his offering something new. His feat of balancing was heartily applauded. The hoop rolling specialty was exceptionally good. We have had hoop rollers, but this young man goes them one better. The quartette of the company is the vocal feature, and the audience did not let them go until they had exhausted their well stocked musical album. They combine singing and comedy and are efficient in both. A contortionist turned and twisted his body into every conceivable position and shape; a wonderful exhibition and executed with much style and grace. Eddie LaBarre and assistant created much laughter by the eccentric specialty. We have known Ed for many seasons, and this season he has strengthened his hold on the patrons of the opera house stronger than ever, and the LaBarre Bros. can ever feel assured of a good house in our city.
