—The residents of O'Leary and vicinity are regretting the departure from their midst for a season, of Edward and Mrs. Gorrill, who are well known there for their hospitable entertainment of the travelling public. Mr. and Mrs. Gorrill go for a time to take charge of their estate at Howlan, recently purchased from Dr. Kier, late of that place, but now removed to Alberton, to fill the vacancy made by the departure of Dr. Ross to Charlottetown—and while the people of Howlan are regretting very much the loss of Dr. Kier, yet they are greatly pleased to welcome to their midst such a genial couple as they know Mr. and Mrs. Gorrill to be. Their son Dot, and daughter Miss Lutie remain at O'Leary in charge of the Willow Hotel, where the same splendid accommodation will be given to the travelling public as has been done in the past, and in saying this—no stronger recommendation is needed for continued patronage.

CONVICTED MAN SUICIDES IN COURT.

HAMILTON, Ont., July 26.—Standing before Magistrate Jells at the King William Street Police Court this morning, Harry Gilmore, swallowed carbolic acid and died before he reached the city hospital.

Gilmore had been summoned to appear on a charge of assaulting his wife. Just as he had been found guilty, he lifted the vial to his lips. Officers hurried him to the ambulance, and with a couple of doctors working over him he was rushed to the hospital. The ambulance stopped at the hospital morgue, however, as Gilmore passed away.
