In Memoriam

MR. ROBERT LARKIN

On Dec. 12, 1925, the hearts of many friends and relatives, were saddened, when it was learned that Mr. Robert Larkin had passed away. Mr. Larkin was born in Alberton, P. E. I., on Oct. 8, 1849. Coming to Nova Scotia in 1882, he filed on land, on which he remained till 1905, when he moved to this town through a trying sickness. He was never heard of again, but with perfect resignation awaited the final summons, when he calmly laid down the burden of life. His wife and four children are left to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and father. His children are, Mrs. F. O. Willand of Ray, N. D.; Mrs. Thos. Evans of Potomac, Mont.; Miss Jennie, a teacher in high school in Montreal and a son Robert of Portland, Ore. His pastor, Rev. Mr. Houldridge, held an impressive service at the home. The following hymns were beautifully rendered by the choir, Rock of Ages, Lead Kindly Light, and Mr. Larkin's favorite, hymn He Leadeth Me. Mr. Larkin was highly respected and admired for his integrity and manly qualities. A large concourse of sympathizing friends from town and country, followed in the funeral procession to the cemetery, where he was laid to rest beside his former wife, Miss Mary Keir of Ebbfleet, P. E. I.

Thousands Of Grateful Letters

Every year brings thousands of grateful letters for health restored from happy women in all parts of the country to the office of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, in Lynn, Mass. These are voluntary expressions of gratitude for relief from pain and suffering, and are convincing proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will do all that is claimed for it. It will pay any sick and ailing woman to give it a trial.

AUDITOR WONT RESIGN UNTIL CAUSE SHOWN

Halifax, N.S.—W. H. Studd, for fifteen years provincial auditor for Nova Scotia, was requested by Premier Rhodes to hand in his resignation yesterday. Mr. Studd, however, refused to comply with the request until the government submits its charge, if any, against him.

"I shall not resign until the government makes a charge against me, and shows cause for my removal," Studd declares.

Studd declares that under the provincial statute, he is entitled to hold office "during good behavior" and can only be dismissed by the lieutenant-governor on petition of the legislature.

The government's request yesterday followed submission of a report by P. S. Ross and Sons, of Montreal, who have been making an independent audit of government departments.

Bill and Joe had broken house, when Bill stumbled against something.

"Who's that?" said the man of the house. "Meaw," said Bill, thoughtfully.

"It's a cat," said the man to his wife. "But in coming away Bill stumbled again."

"Who's that?" the man of the house again said.

"It's another cat," shouted Joe.

ALBION CROSS EXAMINATION

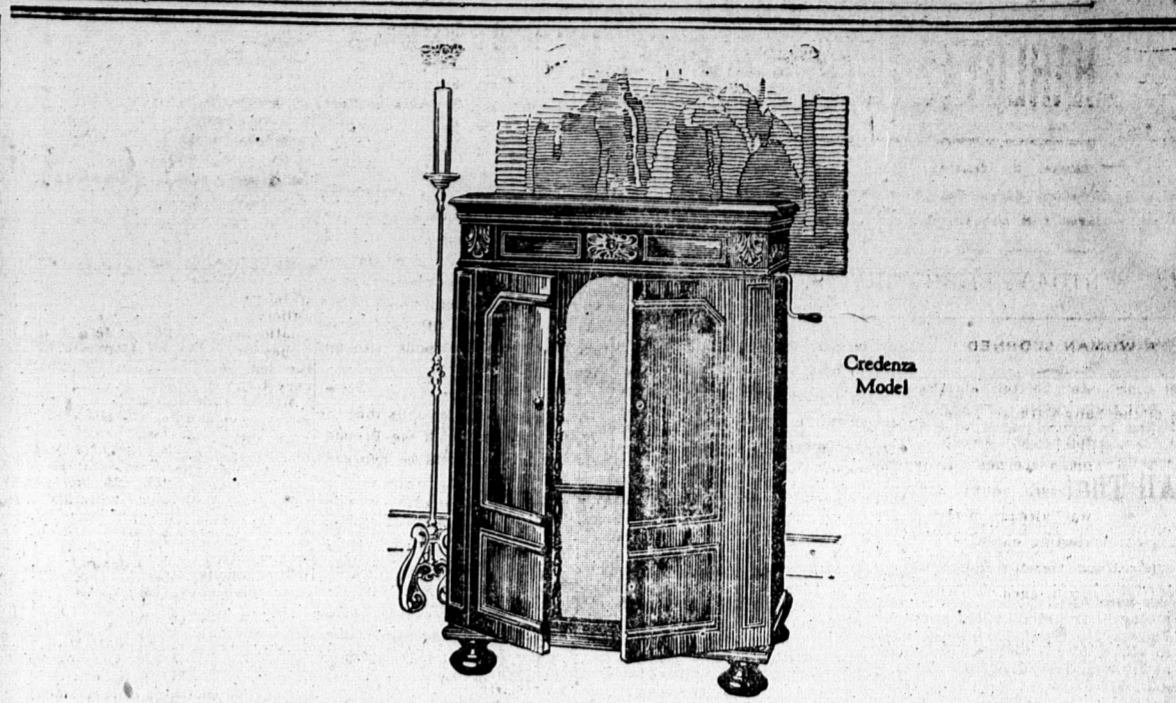

The semi-annual examination of the Albion Cross school was held on January 10th with a goodly number of visitors and parents present. The pupils were examined in the various subjects by their teacher, Miss Jessie I. Acorn and showed by ready and accurate answers that they had been carefully and painstakingly taught, much credit is reflected on both teacher and pupils. After the examination of the pupils complimentary remarks were made by the secretary, Mr. A. D. Matheson and others. Mr. Matheson spoke of the excellent discipline and manners of the pupils both inside and outside of the school, of the marked progress during the term and he also hoped that the teacher would be able to continue the good work.

The teacher had previously been presented with two beautiful gifts by her pupils at the Christmas tree held in the United Church in which the pupils had taken part. After

NORTH WILTSHIRE SCHOOL EXAMINATION

The semi-annual examination of North Wiltshire School was held on the afternoon of Jan. 28th and was well attended by the interested trustees and rate payers. The pupils were examined in the various branches of study by their teacher Miss Marjorie Darrach assisted by Mrs. Bruce Deacon, Mrs. Aquila Bowman, Rev. Mr. Pierce and Mr. Eddison Easter, and acquitted themselves very creditably to the satisfaction of all present. An interesting feature of the programme was the closely contested spelling match. The winners in their respective Grades being Besse MacLean, Emerson Deacon and Heutis Smith. Prizes were also won by Beatrice Hatherly and James Berrian for attendance. Speeches were then made by the chairman, Mr. J. L. Godfrey, Rev. Mr. Pierce Mr. Murdoch MacLean, Mr. William Coady, Mr. Eddison Easter and Mr. Arthur Smith, All of which spoke in glowing terms of their teacher and the splendid work she has done since taking charge of the school last August, and it was the sincere wish of all present that Miss Darrach would remain with them another year. On the evening of Dec. 24th, the pupils of this school presented their programme and Xmas tree in the hall near by and was highly enjoyed by all present. The hall was prettily decorated and in one corner of the platform stood a large Xmas tree laden with gifts for Teacher and pupils. The programme over which Mr.

Eddison Easter presided, consisted of recitations, Choruses, dialogues, songs and instrumental music. Special mention might be made of the flag drill which was carried out so prettily by 8 girls. It was moved by Mr. Edwin Ed-After the programme was completed Santa Claus in the person of Mr. Geo. MacLean appeared having come down the chimney with gifts for Teacher and pupils, and landed in the fireplace where singing the National Anthem.

INSIDIOUS EYE STRAIN

We use this adjective advisedly. Sufferers from Eye Strain may have perfect vision and therefore do not suspect the presence of any eye defect. The motive power of the entire human organism is Nerve Energy. Normal eyes, it is computed utilize about 20% of this Nerve Energy, but when Eye Strain is present, a much larger proportion is required. Hence defective eyes, through their consumption of an excessive amount of Nerve Energy, may seriously affect the functioning of other organs of the body, and produce ill health.
