

A Grand Result in Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. A. N. FRASER, Provincial Manager, The Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

Dear Sir:—I acknowledge with thanks the receipt of your Company's cheque for $200.00 on Bank of Montreal, also Annuity Policy No. 11725 which provides that on May 1, 1905 and each year for life, I will receive three hundred dollars ($300), in settlement of my Matured $5000. 15-year endowment, 15-year Distribution Policy No. 401,652 with Deferred Annuity, in THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO. OF NEW YORK.

This I consider a splendid result, as to buy an Annuity of $300 at my age would cost $5,408, so that drawing $700.30 and getting an Annuity of $300, I am getting practically a cash value of $10,430.30.

I also carry another policy in your company, in which I have all confidence, yours very truly, SIMON W. CRABBE.

Fill in attached coupon and return same at once, A. N. FRASER, Provincial Manager, Dear Sir,—I would like to receive [free] information regarding the cost of investment policies for CHAPTER IX—Continued. "Doughnuts an' pie," said Uncle Eb, who sat in a far corner. "There's some hev a talent fer sawin' wood, but we don't count that. It's war an' speakin'—they are the two great talents of the Yankee. But his greatest talent is the gift o' gab. Give him a chance t' talk it over with his enemy, an' he'll lick 'im without a fight—why, they both git licked, jest as it was in the case of the man that sold me lightnin' rods. He was sorry he done it before I got through with him. If we did not encourage this talent in our sons they would be talked to death by our daughters. Ladies and gentlemen, it gives me pleasure t' say that the best speaker in Faraway township have come here t' discuss the important question: "Resolved, That intemperance has caused more misery than war." "I call upon Moses Tupper to open for the affirmative." Moses, who rose to respond, had a most unlovely face, with a thin and grating voice. He was a native of the county, and his learning had been acquired in the narrow boundaries of the township in which he lived. It was the biggest thing in the county. Many a poor sinner who had gone out of Faraway in the obituary poem by Jed Feary. These tributes were generally published in the county paper and paid for by the relatives of the deceased at the rate of a dollar a day for the line spent on them or by a few days of board and lodging—glory and consolation that was, alas, too cheap, as one might see by a glance at his forlorn figure.
