

THE SUMMERSIDE GUARDIAN

and PRINCE COUNTY CHRONICLE

Hepburn Pessimistic Over Liberal Prospects In Western Canada

Tells Hostile Vancouver Audience He Feels "Like A Lamb Going To The Slaughter."

VANCOUVER, Sept. 20.—Premier Mitchell Hepburn of Ontario is on his way back to Eastern Canada with anything but pleasant memories of the reception he received in the West while campaigning for federal leader Mackenzie King; nor is he at all optimistic as to Liberal chances on the Prairies. The breezy orator of Central Canada found that Prime Minister Bennett's price-fixing wheat policy, placing in the pockets of farmers millions of extra dollars, was something that could not be decryed where the chief benefit accrues.

Mr. Hepburn spoke to an audience of about 4,000 in this city, most of whom appeared hostile. The Vancouverites manifested an exceptionally firm spot in their hearts for Premier Bennett, whilst the mere mention of either Mackenzie King or H. H. Stevens met with "cat-calls" and boos.

Ontario's premier stayed grimly with his task in spite of the frequency of interruptions until he finished his address. Many hundreds participated in the heckling. From the left gallery one woman's voice screamed: "Take the police off the waterfront," making reference to the longshoremen's strike which is still in progress here. From another gallery a strident voiced man kept shouting at minute intervals: "What about the hunger marchers?"

"I feel just like a lamb going to the slaughter," Mr. Hepburn made himself heard through the bedlam for a beginning. "If you will try to conduct yourselves like gentlemen, I will do the same and we'll get on better," he said. But there was no appealing to the better nature of this crowd. The interruptions became louder and more frequent and completely drowned his voice in spite of the loud speaker. By way of a fresh beginning Mr. Hepburn assured his listeners that like themselves, his only object was to make Canada a better place in which to live. It was only the signal for a fresh outburst of jeers.

Determined to continue in spite of the interruptions, Mr. Hepburn raised his voice and proceeded to tell something of the history of his administration in Ontario. He told of improving the financial position of the province by $30,000,000 in 15 months. "I have props here to hold on to and I'll stay until I finish what I have to say," he flung out at his annoyances. "I know there are some who came

Manion Scores "Whispering Campaign"

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) MIMICO, Ont., Sept. 20.—Railways Minister R. J. Manion told a meeting in this suburban Toronto town today the Canadian National Railways would be an asset to the people of Canada when business revival comes to the world generally, and not a liability as at present.

He referred to an alleged "whispering campaign" conducted by "certain railway people" anxious to create the impression Premier Bennett had "betrayed the C. N. R. into the hands of the other competing railway."

He declared the C. N. R. was being efficiently and economically managed today. Dr. Manion outlined the legislative acts the Bennett Government had enacted in an endeavor to bring about a return of prosperity and charged the Liberal policy was nothing more than King's 1919 platform "re-written in more flowery language."

711 Candidates In The Federal Election Field

(By The Canadian Press) (By Guardian's Special Wire) Nominations in the Dominion general election campaign have hurred the 700 mark with 711 candidates already named. The total, largest in Canadian political history, far eclipsed the 644 nominations in 1921.

Liberals led with 222, followed by Conservatives with 198, Reconstruction Party 124 and Co-operative Commonwealth Federation 118. Candidates with various other affiliations totalled 49, including 33 members of the Alberta Social Credit League and four Social Credit candidates in Saskatchewan. Advance nominations will be held in 76 constituencies Sept. 30 and nominations for the remainder of the 245 seats Oct. 7, one week before the election.

Would Regulate Activities Of Trawlers

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—An international treaty to regulate trawlers in their activities in the North Atlantic has been recommended by the North American Council of Fishery Investigation. Elmer Higgins of the Commerce Department, a delegate to the council whose session concluded last night, reported today that the members had voted to recommend a treaty by the governments of France, Newfoundland, Canada and the United States requiring the use of mesh in all nets of not less than 4-3-4 inches.

Higgins explained that the use of nets of mesh of 2-1-2 to 3 inches under present practices is resulting in the elimination of haddock fisheries off Cape Cod and threatens to cause the disappearance of haddock off the Nova Scotia banks.

He said further that during the council meeting, the United States and Canada agreed to extend the study of mackerel fisheries on a co-operative basis in Canadian waters. The United States has been studying mackerel for a decade in American waters.

The council meeting was attended by delegates from the United States and Canada. Reports were received from Newfoundland fishery scientists and France sent word it would send delegates to the next meeting at a point not yet selected.

SEEK MASKED MANIAC

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—(A.P.)—A masked maniac, who forced a young bride to undress, lashed her with a lead-studded whip and assaulted her, was hunted by heavy police details on the far west side tonight.

Captain William Malone of the Austin station ordered every available patrolman into the search with these instructions: "Shoot to kill."

FRANCE MAKES STRONG PLEA FOR PEACE

Italy Would Hold Britain Responsible For Outbreak of European War.

(Copyright, 1935, By The Havas News Agency (By Guardian's Special Wire) ROME, Sept. 20.—France tonight made a strong plea to Premier Mussolini to accept League of Nations peace proposals in the Italo-Ethiopian crisis.

In an interview with Mussolini, Count Charles de Chambrun, French Ambassador, emphasized that by accepting the proposals of the League five-power committee Italy would be preparing the way for future expansion.

Sir Eric Drummond, British Ambassador, also had a long conversation with Fulvio Sivich, Under-secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

It was generally believed the only question remaining for the cabinet to decide is whether the door will be left open for future negotiations. Most observers believe this is improbable.

Great Britain will be held responsible for any European war developing from the Italo-Ethiopian conflict, the Italian cabinet will declare in its answer to League of Nations peace proposals, it was learned here tonight.

France is not expected to mention Great Britain by name, but will, say specifically that Italy accepts full responsibility for the Ethiopian policy, but no responsibility for European complications.

Italians are convinced that the British naval steps in the Mediterranean constitute direct provocation of Italy.

It declared, however, that the famous phrase "sanctions mean war" does not imply that steps taken by a third power will automatically result in reprisal and an Italian declaration of war. In other words, Italy will to the end force other powers to take the responsibility for first action.

By George Hambleton, Canadian Press Staff Writer GENEVA, Sept. 20.—With only a glimmer of hope, members of the League of Nations are anxiously discussing the next move in the tortuous struggle for peace in East Africa.

Daily the shadow of war deepens. If Premier Mussolini says anything but "no" to the proposed peace terms, nobody will be more pleasantly surprised than the five-power committee which planned them.

So far the committee has been careful not to term its plans a formal report. It is really drafted as a suggested basis for peace negotiations under no particular article of the covenant. But if the two parties reject the plan, it will be submitted to the Council and the Council will proceed to make a formal report under article 15 of the League Covenant.

ures of the League the execution of blockade operations; 3. The council shall urge all members of the League that their governments should take the necessary preparatory measures, above all of a legislative character, to enable them to enforce at short notice the necessary measures of economic pressure.

(By James A. Mills) (Copyright 1935 By The Associated Press) ADDIS ABABA, Sept. 20.—Ethiopia's plus little Emperor told the Associated Press in an interview today his people will defend their liberty to the last drop of blood.

"We cannot make any political, economic or territorial concessions to Italy without compensation," he said firmly, "nor can we give Italy bribes in any other form to purchase immunity from attack."

Halle Selassie spoke from the balcony of his palace as he reviewed thousands of warriors riding past on Arabian horses and on mules.

Confident in League He said he still held confidence the League of Nations would settle the dispute.

"I would like to see the League secure the protection of great powers in the event we were threatened with invasion, as we are now."

"If we did make compromises, we would invite other attacks in the future," said the Emperor. "As an independent, sovereign empire, we insist on the preservation of our liberty, the maintenance of our economic integrity, and the inviolability of our frontiers."

"We have committed no act which in law or in morals justifies Italy in menacing us with war. We have come before the bar of international justice with clean consciences."

"Let mankind judge us on our record. Let no pretended leader of christendom attempt to crucify an innocent people crying out for justice and mercy."

The correspondent pointed out Mussolini says he "wishes to civilize Ethiopia; what does Your Majesty say to that?"

When the brass band leading his troops had ceased playing the national anthem, the Emperor replied: "God forbid that Italy should give us such a civilization through the instrumentality of war. One is the negation of the other."

"Our own civilization is one in which Christ himself lived. If it was suited for the greatest man of all time, it is good for us."

"By this, I do not wish to say we oppose social and economic progress. Such progress has continued and will continue with all the rapidly compatible with the political and intellectual advancement of our people within our limited financial resources."

Asked if he would accept an American mandate over Ethiopia if the instrumentality of war. One is the negation of the other.

"No, the acceptance of any mandate, whether American, Italian, British or French would undermine the keystone of our independence."

Express Surprise LONDON, Sept. 20.—Officials today expressed surprise at a report Italy would protest to the League of Nations over the British naval movements in the Mediterranean.

War talk in other capitals was labeled preposterous. Official declarations of "we have no quarrel with Italy" were again heard in Whitehall, which has been at some pains in the last few days to curb sensational reports growing out of Italian irritation over the Mediterranean movements.

New Nanking Cafe

WATER STREET, SUMMERSIDE
Opposite Holman's
UPSTAIRS PRIVATE DINING ROOM
FOR SPECIAL PARTIES
Cafe Open Day and Night
QUICK SERVICE—EXCELLENT CUISINE
DINNER AND SUPPER—25c to 35c.
YEP S. HONG, Manager
Phone 8102
L-8606-8-31-s-w-y

PAIR CLEARED FROM CHARGE OF MANSLAUGHTER

Magistrate Acquits Mulqueneey and Davis of Responsibility of Koenecke's Death.

(C.P. by Guardian's Special Wire) TORONTO, Sept. 20.—Through with the long court hearings that cleared them from a charge of manslaughter, Pilot William J. Mulqueneey and his parachute-jumping pal, Irwin Davis, tonight adopted the role of professional narrators.

Only a couple of hours after Magistrate Douglas Keith acquitted them from criminal responsibility for the death of Len Koenecke in a mid-air fight in the little cabin of an aeroplane, the Detroit fliers contracted to tell to a syndicate details of the fatal flight and their plans for the future.

Mulqueneey and Davis were rushed to a hotel and kept behind locked doors after the Magistrate decided they had beaten the former Brooklyn ball player over the head with a fire extinguisher only to defend themselves from Koenecke's assaults and to halt his mad attempts to grab the controls.

The fliers signed a contract to obtain money to cover expenses of their trial, it was announced by Mulqueneey's employer, E.G. Steepe of Detroit. Their future plans were indefinite, he said, but Mulqueneey already had decided to fly the death plane back to Detroit where it was chartered by Koenecke last Monday night for a flight to Buffalo.

Newspapermen were not permitted to interview Mulqueneey or Davis after they left the court but Steepe, who came here in an effort to have the men released on bail while awaiting a hearing, disclosed Mulqueneey had spurned the offer of an associate pilot to fly back the plane.

"I'm the only one that's going to fly that plane," Steepe quipped his pilot as saying, adding that Mulqueneey had decided to again fly the blood-spattered machine in an effort to strengthen his courage, shaken by the long ordeal of attempting to guide his plane through the darkness while Davis and Koenecke fought a death-struggle in the seat behind him.

Gen. Johnson Criticizes New Deal

(Copyright 1935 By The Associated Press) (By Guardian's Special Wire) WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—Sharply attacking many phases of the new deal, General Hugh S. Johnson today revealed plans for taking the stump as a friendly but vigorous critic of the Roosevelt administration.

Soon to retire from his second new deal post, the General in an interview outlined an extended speaking-lecture tour for the frank purpose of discussing publicly "loopy aspects of this administration in the hope that some good will come of it."

He will begin his tour with an address at the San Diego Exposition Oct. 2. The tour will be completed about Jan. 1.

In typically picturesque language, General Johnson asserted he was actuated only by "unswerving loyalty to the President and his ideals." He believed, he said, that he could be of service by calling public attention to what he considered the administration's mistakes.

SUNGLO FOX BREEDER'S CLUB

Meetings resumed Monday night, 7.30 p.m., Sept. 23rd, at office of International Fox & Animal Foods, Ltd., Summerside. Every fox rancher welcome. Important fall discussions.
L-9064

C. C. F. Leader Advocates Inflation

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) STURGIS, Sask., Sept. 20.—Controlled inflation was advocated to effect reduction of debts by J. S. Woodsworth, leader of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation, in an address here today.

He dealt with the debt question when he spoke in support of Rev. A. G. Nicholson, C. C. F. candidate in Mackenzie constituency in the Oct. 14 Federal election. He left after the meeting for Swan River, Man.

When the value of the dollar operated to the benefit of the bondholders then in the eyes of Prime Minister Bennett it was sound money, said Mr. Woodsworth, but when it operated to the advantage of the producer, Mr. Bennett looked upon it as unsound money.

The C. C. F. urged a measure of inflation to effect debt reduction, and it offered assurance of a decent standard of living, which Mr. Woodsworth said, was more than $25 in credit notes monthly offered by the new Social Credit Government in Alberta.

United Church Clergyman Is Candidate

SYDNEY MINES, N. S., Sept. 20.—The United Church of Canada has nominated a clergyman to accept a nomination from the Reconstruction Party in Nova Scotia. Rev. Nelson McDonald of Baddeck was named at a convention here today to contest the constituency of Cape Breton North-Victoria in the coming Dominion election.

"I have been told that the political field is no place for a clergyman," the United Church preacher declared in his address of acceptance, "but who knows better than a clergyman what is going on in the homes today?"

Argentine Wheat Crop Severely Cut

(C.P. by Guardian's Special Wire) MONTREAL, Sept. 20.—The Argentine wheat crop has been cut so severely by drought this year that there will be practically no surplus for export to Europe, according to a survey made by the Royal Bank of Canada. The survey was made by the bank's correspondents in South America and is to appear in the forthcoming issue of the bank's monthly news letter.

"If current estimates are correct," the report states, "the exportable surplus of this year's crop will be sufficient only for the requirements of other South American countries and there will be practically none available for European exports. The latest estimates suggest a crop of 130,000,000 bushels, of which 96,000,000 bushels is required for domestic consumption and seed. It is said there is only a carryover of 18,500,000 bushels from the last crop. It is now too late for any further sowing."

Plans Old Age Pensions For New Brunswick

FREDERICTON, N. B., Sept. 20.—New Brunswick will have old age pensions as soon as the necessary machinery for their dispensation can be established, Premier Dymally announced here today.

W. P. Jones, K.C., Woodstock, has been appointed director in charge of the administration of old age pensions in this province, he said, adding it was anticipated that Mr. Jones would visit several provinces to acquaint himself with various systems of administration.

The Premier's announcement contained no details of the proposed scheme and gave no indication when it would come into effect, except that it would "become a reality as soon as the necessary machinery can be established."

Legion Meeting At Tignish Well Attended

There was a large attendance of returned men at the Legion meeting held at Tignish on Wednesday evening.

The President, Mr. Ganazales Ready, presided and in a brief speech welcomed the members and visitors.

Mr. Cioshessy, Vice President also spoke and extended a welcome to those present.

Mr. Ready called on different members present who discussed the various objects of the Legion and the many problems that confront the returned men today. Matters under discussion were pensions, Veterans' Alliance, Soldiers Settlement Board and Canteen Funds.

Mr. E. W. Robinson, Vice President of the Provincial Branch of the Legion, addressed the meeting and stressed the value of membership in the Legion to returned men and mentioned the many benefits that the Legion affords. He also gave an account of the Provincial meeting held recently in Charlottetown and of the reunion of returned men in Cape Breton recently.

Mr. Anceas Gallant, M. L. A., also returned man, gave a splendid address dealing with matters of importance to the Legion.

PHASES OF DAIRY WORK REVIEWED

Some phases of the work in the dairy industry were reviewed at a meeting of directors of the Dairy-keepers' Association held on a recent evening at the home of Mr. W. N. Jenkins, Bedouque, President, who was in the chair. Reports were received from Mr. Stewart Wright, who is in charge of the dairy herd of improvement, and Mr. L. Brenton, Dairy Superintendent.

The opinion was expressed that the work done by Mr. Wright was very commendable and of a practical nature. His efforts were highly commended.

The Western Guardian

—This column is reserved for news of local interest but advertising of every nature may be inserted at a word strictly payable in advance.

—BISMA-REX for stomach troubles, 75c, at Taylor Drug Co., Kensington. L-9093

—GASPIA CALLED—The S.S. Gaspsia called at Summerside late Thursday afternoon, bringing thirty-eight passengers and freight. She left Friday morning about three o'clock.—S.

—LEFT FOR MONTREAL—Mrs. S. Henton and her sister Miss George Campbell left on Friday morning for a visit to Montreal.—S.

—RETURNED HOME—Mrs. Major Small who has been visiting in Summerside, left on Friday morning for the Gaspsia for her home in Antikosti Island.—S.

—NEW DOMINION MAXIMUM—Long range steel reinforced super-duper shot shells, sold by the case or box, wholesale and retail at Brace's. L-9827-9-21-21.

—TOUCH UP YOUR AUTO with steel-cote rubber enamel and protect it from rust. New colors in stock at Brace's. L-8827-9-21-21.

—DOC MacPHERSON SAYS—has received a beautiful lot of porcoats cut by my made-to-measure firm, cut and style the way you want them and the way you want them. Call and see them. L-9952-9-21-31.

—ATTENDED HOLMAN-HOWARD WEDDING—Senator Creelan MacArthur who had been in London, N. B. attending a meeting of the Central Trust Co., of which he is a director, returned home on Wednesday to attend the Holman-Howard wedding, which took place in Trinity United Church, Charlottetown. Senator MacArthur had the pleasure of meeting his old friend, Mr. Leonard Donnell of Sherbrooke.—S.

—RECEIVED SAD NEWS—Mrs. J. MacNeill of New Annapolis received word yesterday that Mrs. Angus A. MacNeill had passed away at her home in Lynn, Mass., Wednesday. Mrs. MacNeill was formerly Jennie Smallwood of Charlottetown. Her husband was left to mourn by a brother of Mr. MacNeill of New Annapolis. Their only child passed away many years ago. The funeral took place on Friday morning at Lynn.—S.

—Miss Josie Gallant accompanied by Mr. W. J. Marrinan of Greenwich, Conn., motored to the province on September 19th on a special visit to the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gallant, Leary, P.E.I.

—PHASES OF DAIRY WORK REVIEWED—Some phases of the work in the dairy industry were reviewed at a meeting of directors of the Dairy-keepers' Association held on a recent evening at the home of Mr. W. N. Jenkins, Bedouque, President, who was in the chair. Reports were received from Mr. Stewart Wright, who is in charge of the dairy herd of improvement, and Mr. L. Brenton, Dairy Superintendent.

The opinion was expressed that the work done by Mr. Wright was very commendable and of a practical nature. His efforts were highly commended.

Mr. Brenton reported that the testing of pound samples from factories has continued as heretofore, seventeen out of twenty-one factories are sending in samples. It was found that this testing system resulted in greater uniformity in the quality of the product.

The superintendent reported that this year there was up to Aug. 31 more than 200,000 lbs. less butter produced than for the same period last year. He looked for an increase for the remainder of the year, however, as the September production would be higher than last year. In addition to the twenty-one butter factories in operation, there were also seven cheese factories, three of which were now closed.

Present at the meeting in addition to the President were Robert Doucette, O'Leary; W. J. Gibson, Marshfield; John Clark, Rustico; Ernest Holm, Hampton; J. A. Spear, New Perth; J. A. MacLeod, Summerside, and J. W. Boulter, Seabrook.

—P. L. BOWNESS FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER—Prince County Hospital Ambulance in Charge Summerside and Bedouque Phone 33-1.

—SUNGLO FOX BREEDER'S CLUB—Meetings resumed Monday night, 7.30 p.m., Sept. 23rd, at office of International Fox & Animal Foods, Ltd., Summerside. Every fox rancher welcome. Important fall discussions. L-9064 —LEGION MEETING AT TIGNISH WELL ATTENDED—There was a large attendance of returned men at the Legion meeting held at Tignish on Wednesday evening.

—MAGISTRATE ACQUITS MULQUENEY AND DAVIS OF RESPONSIBILITY OF KOENECKE'S DEATH—(C.P. by Guardian's Special Wire) TORONTO, Sept. 20.—Through with the long court hearings that cleared them from a charge of manslaughter, Pilot William J. Mulqueneey and his parachute-jumping pal, Irwin Davis, tonight adopted the role of professional narrators.

Only a couple of hours after Magistrate Douglas Keith acquitted them from criminal responsibility for the death of Len Koenecke in a mid-air fight in the little cabin of an aeroplane, the Detroit fliers contracted to tell to a syndicate details of the fatal flight and their plans for the future.

Mulqueneey and Davis were rushed to a hotel and kept behind locked doors after the Magistrate decided they had beaten the former Brooklyn ball player over the head with a fire extinguisher only to defend themselves from Koenecke's assaults and to halt his mad attempts to grab the controls.

The fliers signed a contract to obtain money to cover expenses of their trial, it was announced by Mulqueneey's employer, E.G. Steepe of Detroit. Their future plans were indefinite, he said, but Mulqueneey already had decided to fly the death plane back to Detroit where it was chartered by Koenecke last Monday night for a flight to Buffalo.

Newspapermen were not permitted to interview Mulqueneey or Davis after they left the court but Steepe, who came here in an effort to have the men released on bail while awaiting a hearing, disclosed Mulqueneey had spurned the offer of an associate pilot to fly back the plane.

"I'm the only one that's going to fly that plane," Steepe quipped his pilot as saying, adding that Mulqueneey had decided to again fly the blood-spattered machine in an effort to strengthen his courage, shaken by the long ordeal of attempting to guide his plane through the darkness while Davis and Koenecke fought a death-struggle in the seat behind him.

General Johnson criticized many phases of the new deal, he said, that he could be of service by calling public attention to what he considered the administration's mistakes.

He will begin his tour with an address at the San Diego Exposition Oct. 2. The tour will be completed about Jan. 1.

In typically picturesque language, General Johnson asserted he was actuated only by "unswerving loyalty to the President and his ideals." He believed, he said, that he could be of service by calling public attention to what he considered the administration's mistakes.

Soon to retire from his second new deal post, the General in an interview outlined an extended speaking-lecture tour for the frank purpose of discussing publicly "loopy aspects of this administration in the hope that some good will come of it."

He will begin his tour with an address at the San Diego Exposition Oct. 2. The tour will be completed about Jan. 1.

In typically picturesque language, General Johnson asserted he was actuated only by "unswerving loyalty to the President and his ideals." He believed, he said, that he could be of service by calling public attention to what he considered the administration's mistakes.

Soon to retire from his second new deal post, the General in an interview outlined an extended speaking-lecture tour for the frank purpose of discussing publicly "loopy aspects of this administration in the hope that some good will come of it."

He will begin his tour with an address at the San Diego Exposition Oct. 2. The tour will be completed about Jan. 1.