THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON X, THIRD QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, SEPT. 3.

Text of the Lesson, II Chron. xxxv, 11-21—Memory Verses, 19-21—Golden Text, Num. xxxii, 23—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1904, by American Press Association.]
After the death of Josiah, the last good king of Judah, the twenty-two years that remained to them ere the long threatened judgment fell were filled by the following kings: Jehoahaz or Shallum, three months; Eliakim or Jehoiakim, eleven years; Jeconiah or Jehoiachin, three months, and Mattanabab or Zedekiah, eleven years (verses 1-11 and II Kings xxiii, xxiv), but all, without exception, did evil in the sight of the Lord and humbled not themselves when the Lord sent messengers to reprove them and win them back to Himself.

How pitiful are the words of the Lord by His servants to His erring and deceived people, "I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me." "My people have forsaken me." "Turn, O backsliding children, for I am married unto you." "O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself, but in me is thine help!" (Isa. i, 3; Jer. ii, 13; iii, 14; Hos. xiii, 9). Then listen to our Lord Jesus Christ, God manifest in the flesh, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, * * * how often would I have gathered thy children * * * and ye would not!" See him with tears, saying, "If thou hadst known * * * the things which belong unto thy peace." Hear Him say even to His apostles, "Will ye also go away?" and "Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me?" (Matt. xxiii, 37; Luke xix, 41, 42; John vi, 67; xiv, 9.) Ask your own heart, Am I rebellious and self-willed or am I willing and obedient before the word of the Lord? The expression "in the sight of the Lord" recalls the word to Abraham, "Walk before Me, and be thou perfect or sincere" (Gen. xvii, 1), and the promise in Ex. xv, 26, that if they thus walked in His sight He would put none of the diseases of the Egyptians upon them. What a record of the development of iniquity and of the wickedness of the human heart this lesson is, the consummation being described in verse 16, "They mocked the messengers of God and despised His words and misused His prophets until the wrath of the Lord arose against His people (till there was no remedy.)"

A fuller consummation yet to be made manifest is found in II Thess. ii, 3, 4, where we read of one who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God or that is worshipped so that he, as God, sitteth in the temple of God showing himself that he is God. Yet we rejoice that the Lamb shall overcome, for He is King of kings and Lord of lords (Rev. xvii, 14). It does not seem as if there could be any hope for a nation which would treat God as Israel did, and yet because of His unconditional covenant with Abraham and David He will for His own name's sake yet restore them to their own land and do all that He has said for them because "the gifts and calling of God are without repentance" (Rom. xi, 29; Lev. xxvi, 44, 45).

They had been duly warned that if they forsook the Lord severe chastening would be dealt out to them (Lev. xxvi; Deut. xxviii), and Jeremiah, who was still the Lord's messenger at the time of our lesson, had repeatedly told them that if they did not repent they would be given into the hands of the king of Babylon, who would carry them away into captivity for seventy years (Jer. xxv, 8-11). False prophets of their own hearts said that Jeremiah lied and ought to be put to death, so they had him imprisoned, and Jehoiakim cut and burned the words of the Lord, and they went from bad to worse until, as our lesson says, there was no remedy. They proved to be an illustration of Prov. xxix, 1, "He that, being often reproved, hardeneth his neck shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy."

As it was in the days of Noah and of Lot so shall it be in the end of this age (Luke xvii, 26-30), and as truly as the flood and the fire from heaven came upon the people in those days, so surely shall all that God has said come upon the earth at the end of this age (2 Pt. xiii, 1; Isa. xl, 4; II Thess. i, 7-10). The word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah was literally fulfilled, and so shall every word of the Lord be fulfilled in His time (verse 21; Isa. xiv, 24).

It was Jehovah Himself who gave Judah and her rulers into the hands of the king of Babylon and said concerning it, "I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hands of her enemies." "You only have I known of all the families of the earth; therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities" (Dan. i, 2; Jer. xii, 7; Amos iii, 2). The dearest thing to God on earth today is His church, and the last seven letters to the church are those in Rev. ii and iii, in which the ascended Christ sends His last messages to His beloved church, lovingly but very searchingly telling her what He approves and disapproves, that so she may be a company of overcomers and in due time sit with Him in His throne.

Happy are those who like the elect remnant in the days of Jeremiah (for God always has his elect remnant), are ready to overcome by the blood of the Lamb and the word of their testimony and by not loving their lives unto the death (Rev. xii, 11). Looking for that blessed hope, waiting for His Son from heaven, is the only safe attitude and the only one that will wean us from all present entanglements (Tit. ii, 13; I Thess. i, 10).

Lady's Tucked Waist, with chemise, in double-breasted effect. Sizes 32, 34, 36, 38, and 40 inches bust measure. Required for 3 1/2-inch size, 3 yards of 36-inch material, 1/2 yard of contrasting material and 1 yard of lining.

SIR JAMES WATSON'S OPINION.

He says that the commonest of all disorders, and one from which few escape is Catarrh. Sir James firmly believes in local treatment, which is best supplied by "Catarrhzone." No case of Catarrh can exist where Catarrhzone is used; it is a cure worker, relieves almost instantly and cures after other remedies fail. Other treatments can't reach the diseased parts like Catarrhzone because it goes to the source of the trouble, along with the air you breathe. Catarrhzone is free from cocaine, it leaves no bad after-effects. It is simply nature's own cure. Accept no substitute for Catarrhzone which alone can cure Catarrh.
