CARVELLS WHARF
deboner Florence arrived in port Friday with ballast. She has now taken in a cargo of salt for the Mag-Islands and is awaiting favorable weather to sail. She is commanded by Captain White.

PICKARDS WHARF
S. S. Harland, Capt. MacLaine left for Orwell yesterday. She will make Pickards Wharf her new docking pier for the summer months, instead of Bruce Stewart and Co.'s wharf as in former years.

Large Four Master in Port
Schooner Avon Queen, Capt. MacLaine, arrived in port yesterday from New York with a cargo of 1900 tons of hard coal for A. Pickard and Co. This is the first vessel of any size to reach this port this season. She took in the vicinity of two weeks reaching here, and encountered much ice in the straits, being compelled to anchor off Picou Island for two days. This vessel sails from Windsor, N. S.

MARINE WHARF
C. G. S. Cartier, Capt. Roach, is undergoing repairs in readiness for the coming seasons operations. It is expected she will first leave for the Labrador on survey work.

S. S. Brant, Capt. Walker has undergone repairs and overhauling, is now about completed. Her first work will be the placing of the different buoys around the Island.

BRUCE STEWART'S WHARF
C. G. S. Bayfield, Capt. Shelgrove, has undergone extensive repairs, in readiness for the present seasons operations. When she has finished here she will proceed to Picou where she will be put on the Marine slip there for the finishing touches. This steamer is under the surveying department.

Tug Alma, Capt. Broom. This steamer is at present being put into operation. Last season she tended Dredge No. 9, which was dredging out the different docks.

Tug Fredericton, Capt. Belyes in port undergoing repairs. This tug also tended Dredge No. 9 last season. D. P. W. Dredge No. 9, Capt. Osprey being put into commission for the coming season. P. W. D. Pownall No. 2, Capt. Murehison is also being put into commission for the seasons work.

During the past two weeks on both of these dredges No. 9 and No. 2 the work has been closed down and the crews discharged until further notice. It is not definitely known just how long this will continue but it is hoped that it won't be for long as it has put a number of men out of employment.

Tug Bally, Capt. Genge, in port. This tug tended Dredge Pownall No. 1 at Georgetown and other points last season. FERRY WHARF S. S. Hillsborough, Capt. MacDougal, having undergone a general overhauling, she is now plying on her old route between here and Rocky Point, making her trips in her usual good time. Yesterday the harbour had a huge quantity of drift ice which came in from the strait, with the heavy easterly winds.

SOFTBALL
The West End Ramblers are making preparations for the present season and first practice is called for May 4th. This snappy team was organized last year and went undefeated through the whole season. All of last year's players are available with one exception. This star player has since been transferred to Halifax, but his place is being filled with another Nova Scotian, who comes from a town, where baseball history has been written. Nuf Sed. Two others players of no mean ability have been added to the roster, so altogether, the Ramblers present a formidable line up for 1931. It is hoped other teams will come to the front and that a league can be formed, as the Ramblers are out to meet all comers and hope to get a little real competition this season.

THE MARITIMES ARE BEING HEARD FROM

An Ottawa Exchange says:—The eight provinces which lie west of Nova Scotia will not begrudge the Maritimes the Canadian Intermediate championship in basketball, won by the Halifax Wanderers. Canadian titles are not uncommon to the more western cities. Ottawa, Toronto, Hamilton, Winnipeg and the rest have all achieved their share. Only the cities that lie by the sea have largely missed in the distribution. Another phase of maritime rights which had been neglected. Now the honors captured by the Wanderers, added to the splendid showing made by the Truro Bear Cats, point to a renaissance in athletics in the eastern provinces. Truro reached no mean heights of distinction when they defeated McGill and went so far as to be eliminated only by the eventual Allan Cup challengers. The eastern teams are assuming the proportion of a very real threat in all lines of sporting endeavor. The competition that they are creating is highly welcomed and their recent successes are heartily applauded.

EX-CHAMPION SELECTED FOR RING

Gene Tunney is one of the many who calls Stribling to beat Schmeling in their heavyweight battle at Cleveland in July. The German has only fought four rounds in actual competition during the past two years. So Tunney probably figures that he has not learned a great deal of fighting in that time, and his form shown here before did not impress. When he was training for the Sharkey bout he exhibited nothing that warranted him as a successor to the throne of Gene and Dempsey. Stribling has been fighting regularly and will at least have ring experience in his favor. The promoters are claiming a million dollar bout. This was a lot of money in the heyday of Tex Rickard when he was putting men inside the ropes who could be counted on to give the public a run for their patronage and when the stream of spectators flowed more widely and freely than it does today.

BERG WANTS RETURN BOUT

Jack Berg in defeat is far from disgraced. The shocking upset which saw him felled down by the fists of Casimir does not necessarily mean fiasco to a career that promised brilliance and which already had many notable exploits to its credit. McLarnin tasted the ashes of defeat but emerged greater than ever to again go under a cloud. Berg is already clamoring for a return match confident of the outcome. One whipping does not of necessity retire the stand-out fighter from the lists. Most champions were stopped at some time in their career, but in most cases it was simply a case of arrested development. Berg is by no means out of the picture though his reputation is a bit tarnished.

Y. BASKETBALL

At a meeting held in the Y last night to settle the dispute over Monday night's basketball match between the Abbie Sisters and P. W. C. It was decided that P. W. C. had no grounds for protest since they had a representative scorer. It is to be regretted that this difficulty arose but, however everything has been amicably settled and the best of feelings now prevail. The game gives the Abbie Sisters the Championship of the girls' section for this year, as winners of this title they are heartily congratulated.

HORNSEY PERFORMS RARE FEAT

What a smashing Rogers Hornsby gave the ball recently at Pittsburgh. The big Chicago manager certainly taught his team an object lesson in batting when he collected three home runs in three trips to bat, and incidentally opened the door to the plate for five players who were camping on the bases ahead of him. This effort of Hornsby's while it sets a new record, ties the one for consecutive circuit drives. Pittsburgh had a lead of five runs at the time that he started swinging his club, a margin wide enough to win any ordinary game. The Pirates pulled down the black and ran up the white flag after "The Rajah" finished his bombardment.

THE MENACE OF THE WELL-DRESSED CADDY

Always we have had a certain admiration and considerable sympathy for caddies. These tow-headed kids in their faded khaki pants and canvas shoes, torn caps and faded sweaters, seemed more like companions than small servants as they trudged manfully around 18 holes carrying on their frail backs a bag of clubs almost as big as themselves. Speaking as a rule, only when spoken to, yet offering sympathy when the occasion demands, these young fellows are great to have around.

Team Shaping Up

Fredericton's hockey line up for next winter is taking form and Chairman Hal Limerick, of the players committee is confident Fredericton will have a strong team. Another new player he has en route is Aubrey Webster, who played in Kenora when Johnny Gallagher, of Montreal Maroons was there, and who last season was at Weyburn, Sask. Webster had a trial with Philadelphia Quakers of the National Hockey League last fall, but has since been restored to good amateur standing, and comes here highly recommended by Cooper Smeaton, the Quakers manager. Fredericton will thus have Mosher, Webster and another new comer for one forward line with Hymie McArthur, Joe Beaton and Clint Gammon, of last season's team as the other combination of sharp shooters. Subar will be in nets, and it is definitely stated that Harry Bartlett, who was captain of last season's team, will be back in his old place on the defence. Two new defence players will complete the squad, it is said, and it is expected a coach will be imported from Ontario as well. It was stated this evening that Mosher arrived here last night but his presence was kept a secret until he was signed up today.

TUNG TREES FURNISH OIL

JACKSON, Miss., April 29.—(U.P.)—An experiment is being conducted by the Illinois Railroad in Forrest County by raising tung trees, which produce oil for the manufacture of waterproof varnishes. According to E. E. Holcomb, general superintendent of the railroad here, practically all of the oil is imported from China. Already 350,000 trees have been successfully raised, which is enough for 3,600 acres. Transplanting is now underway.

JACKSON, Tenn., April 29.—(U.P.)—Rev. Simpson Daniel was proud. He had just finished marrying his first couple. When he pronounced them "man and wife", the bridegroom turned and said, "How much do we owe you?" Rev. Simpson replied, "Preachers don't charge for wedding." MUCH IN ACCORD

(By George Hambleton, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent) LONDON, April 29.—The House of Commons this afternoon witnessed a curious scene: Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, who with many touches of irony, blandly approved the Snowden Budget and caustically declared the Chancellor of the Exchequer has used devious expedients which he himself practised as Chancellor, but which Mr. Snowden in opposition had derided with contempt. "I could hardly believe my ears as I listened to the Budget speech," Mr. Churchill added. "I wondered for a time if I had not left behind some notes of an old Budget speech and an expert Secretary hadn't slipped them by mistake into the Chancellor's famous red despatch box."

THE KING BUYS FIVE NEW CARS

LONDON, April 29.—King George has given Queen Mary and himself a right royal present. It is only five automobiles! Five of the latest models of a well-known British firm will be delivered to the King at Windsor Castle soon. Each car is fitted with an automatic gear-changing device. Four will be painted in the royal colors of maroon and red; and the fifth, which is designed for the Queen's personal use, will be dark green. Two of them are 12-cylinder 40-50 horse-power cars, one is a 30-40 horse-power brougham for the King, and there is one of each model for the Queen. All the most modern devices have been incorporated in the cars. One device consists of a foot switch which turns off the headlights and switches on a spotlight. The bodies have much the same appearance as the cars in use at present. The two limousines now used by the King and Queen will, it is understood, be sent out to India for use by Lord Willingdon, the new viceroy.

Mr. H. T. Ramsay and Mr. Les Ramsay, who brought 190 western horses from Saskatchewan recently report that they have sold every one with the exception of two saddle horses. They had many good saddle horses in the lot. They were mostly disposed of in Charlottetown, Albany and Tignish. The Ramsay brothers expect to remain a few more days on the Island. They are natives of Alberta. P.E.I.—S

ISLAND MINISTER WINS PRIZE

In the January-February issue of "The Open Book Shelf", an advertising circular published by the Musson Book Company, of Toronto, was announced an open competition for a review of any book or books mentioned in that issue. The competition was open to all Canada, but not to professional book reviewers. There was a large response, a great many persons from all over Canada sent in reviews. In the competition, the review of "Flint and Feather", the collected poems of Pauline Johnson, by Rev. W. E. Aitken, of Central, Lot 16 United Church won second place. The first and third prizes went to Ontario and in addition to the prize winners a long list were commended for their reviews. The following is the review: "Few are sufficiently conversant with the rhythmic beauty, the rippling laughter, the lonely longing, and the stately spiritual strain of the poetry of Pauline Johnson, Born in Canada, on the estate bequeathed by the Canadian Government to her ancestors, the dual agility of English and Indian blood gave early promise of a life of letters and a love of literary lore. Canada was her home. It was the home of her paternal people; the land of adoption of her mother. Of Canada she sang. Her collected poems, "Flint and Feather," are of the process and the glory of

DRIFT ICE IN HARBOUR

A strong south westerly wind drove a field of drift ice into the harbour yesterday afternoon, bringing water transportation to a halt. There are still large fields of drift ice in the Straits, a part of which was driven through the harbour entrance.

The Lally, loaded with fertilizer, is held up near the Souris breakwater. The C. G. S. Montcalm will liberate the imprisoned steamers.

IN MEMORIAM

MAURICE MURPHY
Death at any time is sad, but when it comes into a happy home and takes away the only child of devoted parents, it seems doubly sad. Such was the case when on Sunday, April 26th, little Maurice Murphy, aged five and a half years, nearly beloved child of Mr. and Mrs. E. Murphy Emerald, was called Home to God, to be among his angels forever.

Maurice was playing around with his little playmates the day before he died as well as ever he was. He was taken ill on April 26th about 9.30 a. m. The doctors prescribed for him and he seemed to be getting better when he suddenly took a turn for the worse in the late afternoon and gradually sank, despite all that medical aid and tender nursing could do. He passed away about 10.30 p. m. on the same night that he was taken ill.

Maurice was a general favorite with everybody, old and young alike, as was evidenced by the numbers of kind friends who came from fair and near to get a last glimpse of the little darling and to console his grief stricken parents in their sorrow. The floral offerings were beautiful among them being a lovely wreath from Maurice's little schoolmates. The funeral was held on Tuesday morning at 9 a. m. to Summerfield cemetery where all that remains of little Maurice was laid to rest. The pallbearers were eight of his little playmates, viz: Aeneas McEntee, John T. Murphy, Spencer Hughes, Gregory McMahon, Pope McMahon, Emerson Matheson, Fenton Mayne and Emmet Allen. We extend sincere sympathy to the grief stricken parents and trust that God will give them strength to bear their great sorrow. (Patriot Please Copy)

EASTERN GUARDIAN

"UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA—Georgetown and Sturgeon services Sunday, May 3rd: Sturgeon, 11 a. m.; Milltown Cross, 2.30 p. m.; Georgetown, 7 p. m. Rev. C. U. MacNevin, Pastor.

the men and women of the Five Nations, but at the same time of "Canada, the land beloved of God." "Flint and Feather" is not the racy rhymes of idle ease. Its purpose is not just to entertain and please. It is the out-pouring of a noble soul that has seen, and, having seen, is charged with the high task of telling to others. To her, moral and spiritual worth was not associated with color of skin, but was the regal fibre of which kings are made. Yet, delicately aware, as she must have been, of the race bitterness and superiority complex of the Pale-face, she adroitly veils this god of dissonance, and labors for a fellow-feeling between conqueror and conquered, in, "The Cattle Thief," "Wolverine," "My English Letter," "Canadian Born," and "The Pilot of the Plains." "Flint and Feather" courts immortality through its real love in lovely lyricity.

NEW RELIGION FORECAST

CHICAGO, April 29.—(U.P.)—Establishment of a vital, living religion to satisfy present day people was predicted in an address here by Dr. Louis L. Mann, professor of Oriental languages at the University of Chicago.
