At Travellers Rest on the 30th of October, there passed on her eternal rest Laura Kelly aged 18 years. She was the daughter of Michael and Jane Kelly of that place, and was a girl unusually beloved by all who knew her. Of a bright, happy disposition while in health, she ever looked forward during her illness of six months, to what God knew was best, content that should health be given it would be for His own good purpose, if not, then His will be done. She died peacefully and happily in the sure and certain hope of a happy life beyond. In addition to her parents, she leaves two brothers and sisters to mourn their loss, and many many friends who will find her place in their hearts vacant long. "Grant her O Lord eternal rest and let light perpetual shine upon her..."

Rev. Adams G. Archibald, Field Secretary of the P. E. Island Sunday School Association, will return during the latter part of this week, accompanied by his bride and will take up their residence in Summerside. The happy event took place in Chester, Pa., on Wednesday, the 18th inst. The following is taken from an elaborate account of the ceremony published in The Republican of that city:—"A student in the Co-Ed Normal College, at Hartford, Conn., Adam Archibald met pretty Edna Minita Howell, of Chester, who was also a student there. That was three years ago. Yesterday at high noon the culmination of that meeting and the subsequent pretty romance enacted in many States was reached in the marriage of Rev. Adams Archibald and the girl of his choice. A prettier matrimonial event has not been solemnized in this city in a long time. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's brother, Edwin A. Howell, Esq., Rev. Wm. Charles Hogg, A. M., officiated, the relatives only being present. The bridal couple were attended by the pretty little flower three-year-old Miss Caroline Howell, a niece of the bride. The bride looked charming in a gown of silk cullane over tulle, trimmed with rare old lace. She also wore a large Brussels point lace collar. The veil was held in place by a handsome pin of pearls and emeralds, the gift of the groom, and she wore a necklace of pearls over one hundred years old, presented by E. P. Pellet, late United States Consul at Columbia, South America. The bride has been a great traveler. It was while making her biblical studies in the college at Hartford that she met Mr. Archibald, also a student there, and who later graduated as a minister of the gospel. He is from Halifax, Nova Scotia, and is at present stationed in Prince Edward Island. Mr and Mrs. Archibald will make their home at Summerside, Prince Edward Island, to which place they will go before winter sets in. Mrs. Archibald, until recently, was an active member of the New Century Club, and a worker in the Third Presbyterian Church, of which she is still a member, and where she organized the Junior Christian Endeavor Society. The beautiful tokens of remembrance from their friends nearly filled a room at the Howell home and were the admiration of all who saw them. There was everything to furnish a home, many of the gifts being very costly. The Guardian joins with many friends in extending Mr. and Mrs. Archibald best wishes.

Miss Emma Alward, of Butternut Bridge, N. B., died Wednesday, Nov. 9, and was buried the following Friday. Rev. Mr. Howard conducted the service. Miss Alward was about 40 years old and held in very high esteem by all who knew her. She lived with her brother Freeman and was a sister of Dr. Silas Alward, of St. John, and Nelson Alward, of Summerside, P. E. Island.

CROUP ABSOLUTELY CURED.

"There is no remedy in my opinion that can act more promptly than Dr. Chase's Syrup of Limes and Turpentine. It cured my son of croup, absolutely, in one night. We gave him a dose when he was sick in the face with choking. It gave him instant relief and cured him."—Mr. Wm. McGee, 49 Wright Ave., Toronto Ont.

THE ALBERTON GUARDIAN

On Friday night the audience was large that assembled at the town hall to hear the Boston Comedy Co. in one of their new dramas, The Ocean Waife. The stage scenery was especially attractive, and was in splendid harmony with the varied costumes of the actors.

At seven o'clock on Sunday evening the marriage of R. H. Mal ey, son of Charles Malley to Lucy Cahill, daughter of Walter Cahill of this town, took place at the Sacred Heart Church. The assistants were Thomas A. Murphy and Nellie Murphy. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. E. Burke. On Thursday, 17th inst. a grand social and entertainment was held in the Parochial House, Lot 11, in aid of St. Bridget's Church. Although the weather proved disagreeable the spacious house was filled to its utmost and the social, as all Fr. Connolly's former ones have been, was most successful. Dancing, consisting of the old time "quadrille" and "brake-down," in which the sprightly youth of Foxley River on such occasions delight to participate, formed the leading amusement. At eleven o'clock the tastefully decorated baskets were auctioned by W. Dennis, O'Leary. After all had partaken of the varied delicacies, dancing was resumed. The excellent renditions of violin music by Nell McKinnon and Geo. Skerry, the star violinists of Coleman and Alberton, were much appreciated. A night of genuine mirth was spent, and it was not until the wee sma' hours of the morning that the assemblage dispersed. The sum realized was $80.
