The Late James C. MacKendrick

There was laid to rest on Sunday afternoon in the Peoples Cemetery a man of whose passing it may be said with truth that he had not an enemy in the world. The late James C. MacKendrick was born in Campbellton, P. E. I. on October 2nd, 1854. Here he spent the early years of his life, where he engaged in farming and stock raising for various firms, among them being Davis and Fraser of this city. In 1913, he removed to Charlottetown where he engaged in the book business until failing health made it necessary to retire. He was ever a faithful member of Zion Presbyterian Church, in which he was always a staunch supporter of any movement which would lead to the benefit of the community or advance the welfare of his fellow men. Mr. MacKendrick had been in failing health for some time past, but his condition did not become critical until after a serious operation in the Prince Edward Island Hospital, which he had undergone three weeks ago. From this, owing to weakness and advanced years, he failed to recover. During his short illness he was faithfully attended by his pastor Rev. Scott Fulton, who, on the occasion of his funeral held the private service for his family at the home of his son-in-law Mr. John Gordon. Mr. Fulton also conducted the services at Zion Church, and the pastor spoke very feelingly of a faith of the deceased, and of his trust in the Saviour who died for all. There are left to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and kind and loving father, his widow, (nee Clara Madocks), four daughters and three sons, viz: William on the old homestead in Campbellton; Everett in Alberton; Hammond in Norway; Mrs. Everett Wedlock, of Hunter River; Mrs. John Gordon, Mrs. Wilfred MacLeod and Mrs. Ivan Mitchell, all in city. Three sisters also survive, viz: Mrs. John McDonald, Sydney; Mrs. Lawrence Doyle, Pittsburg, Penn.; and Mrs. Ewen Campbell, Alberton. The following floral tributes were received by the family: Pillow—Family. Wreaths—Davis & Fraser and Island Cold Storage, Mr. and Mrs. Allyn Forsythe, Mrs. Boyver and family. Crescents—Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Duvar, Isabelle Gordon. Sprays—Mr. and Mrs. Russel Bell, Mr. and Mrs. John H. McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. John Agnew, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Schurman, Mr. Wallace Scanlon, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Forsythe, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. MacLeod, Mr. and Mrs. William Rix, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burke, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Finney, Mr. and Mrs. Blais Andrew. Cuba is to have a child-welfare service. Jerusalem now has a population of 70,000. Helsingfors, Finland, is to have a new motion picture theatre seating 2,500. Haifa, Palestine, will construct a $1,000,000 harbor.

POLICE COURT—A prohibition case which has been pending the past two weeks is still before the Court and was further adjourned yesterday to come before His Honor next Saturday morning.

POPULAR SERIAL.—In love with a girl who wouldn't marry him, adored by a girl whom he didn't want to marry, Tony Deering proposed out of pique. Mildred Barbour's stirring serial "Jealous Hearts," answers the question. Can a second-choice marriage be a happy one? Read the answer in the new Guardian story starting this week.

PRESBYTERY MEETING AT BELFAST.—The Presbytery of Prince Edward Island will meet in the Presbyterian Church at Belfast on Friday, April 6th at 7 p. m. for the induction of Rev. Thos. A. Rodger and for any other business which may be legally brought before the court. The induction service will begin at 7.30 p. m.

ISLANDER RECEIVES CALL.—Rev. George Morris, B. D., of Debec, N. B., has received an urgent call to one of the strong churches in the Vermont Conference. Mr. Morris is not a stranger to the work of the people of that State, having spent several years of his ministry there. For some time he was pastor of the M. E. Church in Bradford, Vt. He was, at the same time, pursuing a special course, leading to the Bachelor of Divinity degree, with Manitoba Presbyterian College, now in the United Church. Mr. Morris returned to the Maritime Conference two years ago. He is at present pastor of the United congregation of former Methodist and Presbyterian people of Debec, and is chairman of the Woodstock Presbytery. The work being done on his charge and the spirit of the congregation, are such that his many friends hope he will see his way clear to remain in New Brunswick. Mr. Morris formerly held pastorates on the Island, viz: Kensington, Tryon and Summerside.

RETURNS FROM TORONTO.—Rev. R. Hensley Stavert returned on Friday evening from Toronto where he has been attending the meetings of the Board of Sunday School and Young Peoples Work by the Presbyterian Church in Canada. He also was able to attend some of the meetings of the General Board of Missions. Quite a large number of students from the Presbyterian College, Montreal, Knox College, Toronto, Princeton University, New Jersey, and Queens University, Kingston, have applied for work in the mission fields of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. Those coming to P. E. Island are from the Presbyterian College, Montreal and Princeton University. The outlook for the Presbyterian Church in Canada is indeed bright. Already a considerable number of the clergy-men and of the congregations who once decided to enter in Union have come back to the Church of their fathers. At the meeting of the General Assembly to be held in Regina for June next the applications for admission into the ministry of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, received from quite a large number of clergymen and from other Protestant Churches will be considered. On his return Mr. Stavert paid short visits to Ottawa and to Montreal.

Film Scoffers Should See "Quality Street"

MARION DAVIES PROVES CONCLUSIVELY IN THIS DELIGHTFUL PICTURE THAT PLAYS NEED LOSE NONE OF THEIR CHARM IN BEING FILMED.

Those who scoff at motion pictures as an art should see Marion Davies in "Quality Street" at the Prince Edward and then well weigh their words. Miss Davies proves conclusively that none of the quaintness of Sir James Barrie's heroine is being lost in its transition to the screen. It might well be said that Barrie wrote in this opus for Marion Davies, were we not reminded of the exceptional work done in the same role upon the stage by Maude Adams. Thus we will have to conclude that "Quality Street" must have been written, subconsciously, for both Miss Davies and Miss Adams. Seldom has a wonderful stage vehicle like this been treated with such kindness by those who adapt stage plays to the screen. It did not occur to the scenarists that more spectacular results could be obtained by remoulding the characters and adding scenes of which Barrie had never heard.

Well Scenarized Hans Kraly and Albert Lewin, who were responsible for the screen version of the whimsical stage play, have retained all the flavor of the original and kept all the new action in accord with the atmosphere of the author's. "Quality Street" is a period play dealing with provincial England at the time of the Napoleonic wars. The heroine falls in love with a young doctor whom she believes is about to propose. If he had such an idea in mind he promptly lost it by listening to a recruiting sergeant in search of men to fight Napoleon. Years later when he returns he is grieved and shocked at the changed appearance of the heroine. The latter, however, is able to make herself up as the beauty of years before, and after soundly teaching the doctor a lesson succumbs to his love declaration and accepts his abject apologies. Conrad Nagel plays the hero and the picture was directed by Sidney Franklin at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios. The production is lavish as well as exquisite and will long be remembered by picture goers.

"The Clown" Gripping Tale Of Life Under The Big Tops

A poignant cross-section of circus life has made its way to the screen in the Columbia production, "The Clown," which opened at the Capitol Theatre yesterday. A story of tense dramatic action, it shows a deftness and fine restraint in direction that gives it appeal as well as strength. The action centers about a circus owner who is unjustly sent to prison through the treachery of his partner. After 18 years he sees his daughter now a young woman, performing in a show given by the circus at the penitentiary. He also sees the man who has ruined his life—and determines upon revenge. He escapes from the prison and makes his way back to the circus in clown guise. He overhears his former partner's plan to wreck the girl's happiness and that only strengthens his desire—for he must save her. It is a horrible revenge that he takes—but he accomplishes—in a highly dramatic climax that is but the forerunner of an equally tense situation.

The circus background of the story is a vivid one—with all the glamor and color of the sawdust arena. It gives a glimpse behind the scenes as well as provides a regular circus performance with its glitter and gaiety. The big entrance parade is there, the bands, the air performers, the galaxy of clowns and the crowds—all do their part in presenting an authentic circus atmosphere. William V. Mong portrays the little role of "The Clown"—and he does with an understanding and a grasp that makes it an outstanding bit of screen acting. Dorothy Reiver gives a commendable performance in the dual role of wife and daughter, while Johnnie Walker, who plays a wealthy young man in love with the girl, is convincing. John Miljan again earns admiration for the manner in which he makes the "heavy" role thoroughly despicable. Credit for the sympathetic direction of this vivid slice of the big tent goes to Wm. James Craft.

THE MARKETS MONTREAL, Que., April 2.—The only export business of any importance done on the Montreal grain market today was the sale of two loads of Manitoba No. 4 wheat at 4 3-4 c. per bushel under the Winnipeg May option, c. i. f. Montreal for shipment in May. The trade in coarse grains on spot was quiet but the tone of the market was steady and prices were unchanged. There was some demand from foreign buyers for spring wheat flour and a moderate amount of business was done. Prices were firm. The demand for winter wheat flour was inactive, but the undertone was steady. A fair amount of business was done in all lines of millfeed and prices were unchanged. The trade in standard grades of rolled oats was quiet and values ruled firm. An active trade was transacted in all grades of fresh eggs and the undertone to the market was strong. The receipts were 2,758 cases. Owing to the somewhat disappointing demand for potatoes and the rather liberal supplies available on track here, the undertone to the market was strong. PEDDLERS LICENSE Sir,—From time to time we read in the press keep our boys and girls at home by trading at home. This is fine, but look at the protection that is offered our coming generation at present on P. E. I. Take the tailoring business, for instance, in this province. That provides employment to keep the wolf away from a poor family's door in winter. In Charlottetown it is almost ruined by our present government issuing $20.00 license to non citizens of this province to peddle for orders. There are many tailors in this province who pay from three to six hundred dollars annually. Provincial and city taxes, rent, light, fuel and water, who are compelled to compete against an army of cloth peddlers, some of whom claim they smuggled the cloth to this country. Others display jackets which they wear with the initials "C. P. R." This matter was brought to the attention of the Stewart Government. Premier Stewart immediately had the license act amended which states that non residents of this province shall pay a fee of $200.00 before getting a license, for some time this province was rid of the cloth peddler. But like the rum smuggler, a new method was used by securing $20.00 license, which should only be issued to residents of this province. Should not the city of Charlottetown also have a city law that non residents shall deposit $300.00 that they will do business one year in the city? Take the hide business of this province; our neighbours can come across here, use our highways, pay no taxes while our local dealers have to pay their share of all local and city taxes. Let some of our local dealers go to Sydney and start to do business without a license, and see how they will fare. I am informed this matter has been brought to the attention of the Hon. Mr. LePage, while acting Premier, and the results are that nothing has been done yet. What would Mr. LePage say if a number of shoe dealers came to P. E. I. from Russia, selling smuggled footwear. It is then you would hear loud talking. This is a serious matter and one that all business men should protest against as a unit. I am, Sir, etc. MERCHANT L. O. C. The game was witnessed by a large number of excited fans who cheered their favorite team all the way through. The Stars showed up very good and rolled one of their best games in the tournament, while the Victorias rolled a splendid game all through, which awarded them the game by a very close margin of 31 pins. Kings County Exhibition Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Eastern Kings Exhibition Association was held in McQuaid Building, Souris, on March 17th and was largely attended. The Financial Statement showed the Exhibition Association to be in an excellent condition with a balance of well over $200.00 in the bank. The following officers were appointed for 1928: President, P. A. McIsaac; Vice-Pres., A. F. Peters; Secretary, D. F. Macaulay. It was brought to the attention of the Directors that the Department of Agriculture contemplated cutting out all exhibitions with the exception of Charlottetown, and buying pure bred bulls instead. After some discussion the following resolution was unanimously adopted. It has been brought to our attention that the Government proposes withdrawing the grants from the local exhibition and expending the money so obtained in organizing Bull Clubs, in an endeavour to improve the cattle of the community. While well aware of the advantage to be derived from the use of improved bulls, it is our belief that the change above mentioned would not have the desired effect. We suffer, not from a lack of suitable bulls, but from a lack of appreciation of the benefits to be derived from their use. We believe that our local exhibitions are the best means of acquainting the farming community with the benefits to be derived from the use of pure bred bulls. We recommend that the grants to the local exhibition be continued, and moreover, that every means be taken to eliminate the scrub bull from our midst, and that advantage be taken of the next T. B. inspection for this purpose, and all inferior bulls be condemned. Eastern Kings Exhibition Ass'n. P. A. McISAAC President. D. F. Macaulay Secretary Souris, P. E. I. March 17th, 1928.
