BEAVER

"BEAVER FLOUR" is the unfailing friend of the housewife. It saves her the trouble of keeping two kinds of flour—one for bread and another for pastry. Being a perfect blend of Manitoba Spring wheat and Ontario Fall wheat, it gives to bread the rich, nutritious properties of the former and the lighter qualities of the latter, making a large white loaf of delicate texture and exquisite flavor. Pastry, biscuits and cakes, made with BEAVER FLOUR cannot be excelled. Ask your Grocer for it today.

SUMMERSIDE, ALBERTON AND PRINCE COUNTY

—It pays to buy in this Province.
 —H. C. Mills, Summerside, returned yesterday from an extended trip through the Western States.—S.
 —Wm. Crockett, North Carleton, offers his farm of 208 acres for sale as will be seen by ad which appears in this issue.
 —The many friends of Ex-councillor, P. Ryan will regret to learn of his serious illness at his home in Summerside.—S.
 —Annie Gallant of Bloomfield was in Alberton delivering fishing bounties on Saturday. He was at the Eureka Hotel.—A.
 —The friends of Albert Weeks, will regret to learn of his continued serious illness and will hope for an early improvement.—A.
 —George Deegan, late in the employ of R. T. Holman, Ltd., left yesterday for Calgary where he has secured a good position.—S.
 —George C. Gordon Huntly is confined to his home with pleurisy. That he may soon be about again is the earnest wish of his friends.—A.
 —George Sutherland, late in the employ of Wm. Calbeck of Bedeque, and Henry Calbeck were among those leaving yesterday morning for Western Canada.—S.
 —The following are eligible for the roll of with ten pins for the weekly prize which takes place on the Summerside alleys this evening: Walter Green, 211; Antoine Arseneault, 203; Fred Tanton, 201; E. Callaghan, 198; Bernard DesRoches, 197; Emanuel Boutte, 194; M. Richards, 194.—S.
 —The following were registered at the Queen Hotel, Summerside, yesterday:—C. R. King, St. Kitts; R. L. Cardiff, J. Drisman, Toronto; H. Parkman, Montreal; A. B. Haines, Halifax; P. L. Rafter, Montreal; and D. B. McDonald, North Bedeque.—S.
 —The following registered at the Clifton House, Summerside, yesterday:—E. C. Messervey, A. Anderson, Montreal; A. Allan, Charlottetown; J. A. Smith, J. E. McCorkell, W. R. Pringle, Toronto; Chester McLaure, Charlottetown; H. M. Corfield, W. H. Fay, Montreal.—S.
 —A horse owned by Cap Daniel Fraser, Alberton South, broke through the ice on Friday last in a about ten feet of water, while a load was being taken to Mr Fraser's factory. The animal was rescued after considerable difficulty. A man near hurried to the spot and rendered timely assistance.—A.
 —On Saturday last of Bell's Head, Cape Traverse, Willard Leard and Russell Howatt shot nine wild geese from a flock of fourteen. The geese were on the wing when first attacked at a distance of some twenty-five years. This appears to be good work for small boys, but nevertheless is quite true. Others of the Cape Traverse gunners are doing well along these lines.
 —Thomas Barbour of Alma will have the sympathy of many in the death of his youngest son Fred which took place in the Canadian West on Saturday. Deceased was a little over a year ago in company with his sisters and brother for the benefit of his health which showed some improvement for a short time but later his disease developed into a rapid case of consumption, which was the cause of his death.—A.
 —The death at Alberton South of Peter McNeill took place on Saturday afternoon after a lingering illness at the age of seventy-six years. Deceased was among the oldest residents in that locality and was much respected. He was a carpenter by trade and early in life followed the sea to a large degree. He is survived by three sons, two at home and one abroad and also by one daughter at home and three in foreign parts.—A.
 —Happyland, Summerside, last night had what was pronounced by those present the finest set of pictures perhaps ever shown here. The pictures were "The Romance of the Rockies," "For a Woman's Honour," "Free Heart," and "The Romance of the Mill," all dramas, and it will be hard to say which one was the best of the set. The illustrated song, "By the Light of the Silver Moon," by F. Louise Tufts and the accompaniments by Miss McLellan were as usual—exceptionally good.—S.
 —Rev. H. J. Fraser the newly inducted pastor of the Summerside Presbyterian Church made a firm impression on Sunday last when he preached to very large congregations at morning and evening services. In the morning his text was "For other foundations can no man lay than that is laid which is Jesus Christ," 1 Cor. III, 11 verse and on these words he laid a broad and select foundation for his pastorate. In the evening the church was crowded and all who heard him were delighted with his preaching.—S.
 —An adjourned meeting of the Summerside Presbyterian congregation was held in the church last evening, at which there was a large attendance. D. K. Currie occupied the chair. The committee appointed at a previous meeting to look into the matter of securing a new manse presented their report and recommended that the congregation purchase the lot from A. C. Rogers the lot of land on Central Street which could be purchased for $750 and that the congregation proceeded at once as soon as plans could be secured to erect a new manse on this site. After some little discussion the committee's report was adopted after which the meeting adjourned.—S.

MAY TRY SHELDON IN PITTSBURG
 PITTSBURG, Pa., March 31—Charles D. Sheldon, alias Washburn, alias Ross, whose real name is Charles D. Robinson, arrested here last Monday as a fugitive from Montreal, where financial operations are alleged to have involved upwards of $2,000,000, will give a preliminary hearing tomorrow on a charge of embezzling $1,100 from the Pittsburgh woman with whom he boarded.
 When Sheldon learned that he was to be taken back to Canada immediately, he engaged a local attorney to represent him. Detective McKaskill, of Montreal, visited Sheldon at the county jail today, where he ascertained that the prisoner had no objections to returning to Montreal. The Canadian officer will make an effort to have Sheldon turned over to him at the hearing.
 Clarence A. Schaefer, an employee in a local broker's office, whose alertness caused Sheldon's arrest today, made an affidavit in a claim of a $10,000 reward, alleged to have been offered by a Montreal newspaper.
