

Presentation of Car

The new Plymouth Sedan will be presented to the winner, Mrs. C. W. Mellett, Brackley, today, Monday, at 2 p.m. by Mr. Byron Brown, President of the Abegweit Amateur Athletic Association.

This popular, leading food store has the honour of giving the lucky coupon to the winner through goods being purchased in this store.

We have received a fresh lot of turkeys, also geese, ducks and chickens at special prices. All special Christmas goods will be reduced today.

CASH and CARRY STORES

187 Great George Street. Phones 747 and 748. W. R. Dennis, Prop.

Christmas And New Year Greetings

FROM P. M. DRAPER, Secretary-Treasurer, Trades and Labor Congress of Canada

Central Guardian

This column is reserved for news of local interest but advertising of any kind will not be inserted.

CONFEDERATION LIFE INSURANCE

BRIDE-TO-BE 'SHOWED' - On the evening of December thirteenth a large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Angus MacDonald, Thistle and Shamrock, to tender a shower to their daughter, Miss Flora, who is shortly to participate in an important event.

The first part of the evening was taken up with music and social discourse. At the hour of nine o'clock Miss Annie Newsome and Miss Rachel Martin, escorted the blindfolded bride-to-be to a prettily decorated chair while the orchestra played the pre wedding march.

Then a small girl and boy impersonating a bride and bridegroom, wheeled a large white cart loaded with various gifts. So numerous were the gifts that the little pair had to make four trips from the gift room.

The strings were cut by Mrs. Herbert Dixon and the fitting verses were humorously read by Mrs. J. W. MacKenzie. The gifts consisted of cooking utensils, linens, rugs, blankets, silver, cut glass, and money, etc.

In a neat little speech the bride-to-be thanked her many friends for their gifts and more especially for the kindly spirit displayed to her on this and other occasions.

At the close of a hearty welcome in her new home, then all joined in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow," and administered a royal bounce to the participant.

The remainder of the evening was pleasantly mixed with music and dancing. At the very small hours the party dispersed wishing Miss MacDonald bon voyage on the "Sea of Matrimony."

Canadian West Indies Trade Expands - HALIFAX, N.S., Dec. 22—The expansion which has taken place in the trade between Canada and the British West Indies, not only in import and export tonnage, but also in passenger travel both from Canada to these Empire vacation lands of the Caribbean and from these islands to Canada, has been most marked, stated Andrew H. Allan, General Manager of the Canadian National Steamships, here.

"Export cargo has increased approximately eighteen per cent while import traffic has shown a gain of thirty-three and a third per cent," continuing he said "There has been an increase in passenger travel of approximately twelve per cent."

Commenting upon the increase in cargo tonnage, he remarked that the new banana equipment to be installed in gross revenue of a quarter of a million dollars, 50,000 cubic feet of space being provided in each of the liners.

A feature of the passenger travel Mr. Allan declared, has been the increase in summer travel from Canada to the islands of the West Indies, as well as to Bermuda and British Guiana, cruises to these Empire colonies of southern waters having become quite popular with Canadians during the summer vacation period.

As regards winter bookings he stated that they have proven very satisfactory to date and a good winter business is looked for.

The "Lady" liners in the service between Canada and the eastern group of the British West Indies and British Guiana sail from Halifax by the year round, calling at Saint John, N. B., on the north-bound voyage, while the "Lady" liners in the service to the Bahama's and Jamaica make Halifax their Canadian terminal during the winter season and sail from and to Montreal during the summer.

The passenger carrying freighters "Colborne" and "Chomedy" which carry passengers on the "vagabond cruises" operated by the Company to the West Indies and British Guiana which are increasing in popularity or vacation travel, also make Halifax their Canadian terminal during the winter and Montreal during the summer season, calling at Halifax southbound.

Stars May Crown Lighting Array - There are dozens of ways of making supremely beautiful residential displays. Gables, verandas, arbors, arches, may be outlined with colored light. Stars may be placed in special spots, crowning the lighting display. Where cold weather can be relied upon, a mass of colored lamps can be set in a cluster on the ground, and blocks of ice placed on top (the lamps being protected of course). The colored illumination showing through the blocks of ice provides a real spectacle.

Floodlighting in red and green can be used, with marvellous effect on trees, verandas, etc., especially if there is snow. The use of tinsel on trees, along with colored lighting and floodlights, makes a beautiful show. Festoons or streamers of green material can be strung along house fronts with lamp strings twined around. Bare trees can be used to carry strings of colored lamps whose reflected glow outlining the branches is most alluring.

HEROINES OF MORRO CASTLE AWARDED MEDALS - WORCESTER, Mass., Dec. 22—The Massachusetts Humane Society today awarded medals to Gladys Knight and, posthumously, her sister, Mrs. Ethel I. (Kinsh) Cella, for saving the life of seven year old Benito Rueder, of Brooklyn, N. Y., a passenger.

An enlarged reproduction of the medal will be fitted to the tomb of Mrs. Ethel Cella today. She died Dec. 3, three weeks after marrying William Cella, of Northampton. The death certificate noted her 15 hours in the Atlantic as a contributing cause.

Stabilization Not Considered - By Burdette Johns, Associated Press Staff Writer (By Guardian's Special Wire) LONDON, Dec. 22—Until President Roosevelt felt it known whether he intends to knock any more coppers off the United States' 50-cent dollar, Great Britain will fight shy of any move toward stabilization.

That was the consensus in financial circles tonight after Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, told the House of Commons today that Britain under present circumstances can not "risk" stabilization of her currency.

The lack of balance between the dollar, the franc and the pound sterling, cited in Mr. Chamberlain's speech as "the real difficulty with the situation," make the perils of stabilization too great, it was felt.

A small boy entered a grocer's and said: "A pound of tea at 2s 6d, a pound of butter at 1s 10d, a pound of sugar at 5s 1-2d, and a tin of condensed milk at 6d. And how much change shall I get out of three half-crowns?"

"Two shillings and a halfpenny, my boy," replied the shopkeeper, after making a lightning mental calculation.

"Oh, thanks," said the little gratefully; "that's my homework for tonight."

LIFERS ARE RELEASED

Successfully Demonstrated Anti-tuberculosis Serum at the Peril of Their Lives.

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) Appointment of Dean R. W. Brocktoners, gray-haired yet ignorant of the ways of a new world, today stepped gingerly into freedom won by successfully demonstrating an anti-tuberculosis serum at the peril of their lives.

Mike Schmidt, 53, youngest of the two life-terms, came back to Denver by motor car from the Canon City prison, awed by the bustle of a city of 300,000 he had left 13 years before.

Carl Erickson, 66-year-old convicted wife slayer, preferred a trial to carry him to a mining claim he believes will yield pay dirt.

"It's too big, too busy," exclaimed Schmidt as he caught his first glimpse of the city he once called home. A ranch for me. I have a ranch friend. I want to go there.

In halting sentences, he told his story. "Well, they came to us—the doctors and the prison men—just eight months ago. They went over this and the same day they put the tuberculosis germs (bacilli) into us. Both arms were used.

"But I wasn't scared. They told us how we might help others. "I was a prisoner when so many were killed in the (1929) riot. Before I knew it I was caught in a burning building. It was hours that I kept alive by playing a fire hose in front of me. I took a chance then.

"When they took us to the hospital for this test business they treated us fine. Yes, I was a little sick, but not much. My arms were sore, yes. But that didn't last long."

Webster Aids In Windsor Victory - (C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) WINDSOR, Ont., Dec. 22—Aubrey Webster, former member of the Moncton Hawks, Allan Cup holders, scored his first goal in professional hockey here tonight as Windsor Bulldogs blanked London Tecumsehs 3-0 in a speedy International Hockey League tilt.

Webster combined with Eddie Convey and Sammy McManus, who jumped into professional ranks with Webster from the Moncton team this year, to notch his counter, stepping through the defence to bang home McManus' pass from behind the London nets.

The victory was the third straight for the Bulldogs over London.

CANADIAN SHEEP BREEDERS' ASSOCIATION DIRECTORS FOR 1935 - Mr. R.W. Wade, Secretary of the Canadian Sheep Breeders' Association, announces that the mail ballot closed December 15th, 1934, electing Directors for the Maritimes, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, and British Columbia, resulting as follows:

Maritime Provinces—F. George McLeod, Box 279, Moncton, N.B.; Manitoba—J. Basil Robinson, Belmont, Manitoba; Saskatchewan—W.C. Heron, Hutton, Alberta—Geo. R. Ball, No. 2, South Edmonton, Alberta; British Columbia—L. Higginson, Sardis, No. 2, B.C.

The Directors for Quebec will be elected at their own Provincial Sheep Breeders' annual meeting, and for Ontario at the annual meeting of the Canadian Sheep Breeders' Association, to be held in Toronto in February, 1935.

CANADIAN SWINE BREEDERS' ASSOCIATION DIRECTORS FOR 1935 - Mr. R.W. Wade, Secretary of the Canadian Swine Breeders' Association, announces that the mail ballot closed December 15th, 1934, electing Directors for the Maritimes, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, and British Columbia, resulting as follows:

Maritime Provinces—J.B. Roach, Sussex, N.B.; Manitoba—Alex. McPhail, Brandon, No. 5, Manitoba; Saskatchewan—R. Hopkinson, Semans, Sask. and E.F. Richardson, Semans, Sask.; Alberta—R.M. Ball, South Edmonton, No. 2, Alberta; British Columbia—J.W. Shannon, Owerdale, No. 2, B.C.

The directors for Quebec will be elected at their own Provincial Swine Breeders' annual meeting, and for Ontario at the Canadian Swine Breeders' Association, to be held in Toronto in February, 1935.

Use Mink's for More Feet

Businessmen Will Study Jap Problems

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

LONDON, Dec. 22—The Federation of British Industries tonight made public a report of its mission to Japan and said it was in a better position than ever before to introduce British businessmen to official and business circles in Japan.

The report urged that the United Kingdom send responsible representatives to the spot and that a permanent link be formed between British and Japanese businessmen in London and Tokyo.

The mission concluded definitely that openings existed for British industry in the land of the rising sun, chiefly in provision of capital and goods in connection with rapid development now taking place in that country.

There is every sign that the people of Canada and the United States are at last becoming Continent conscious! This is evidenced by both nations in their organized efforts toward promoting an interchange of visitors each year.

This North American continent was discovered and has since been peopled and developed by the best blood of the world. From Alaska to Mexico, from Labrador to the tip Florida, is spread a page of deed unmatched in all history.

Across this continent are nature's wonders, mysteries and scenic splendors unrivalled on the globe. You live here—spend here!

On the other hand, where in the world, in all the pages of history can a story be found of two great nations such as Canada and the United States, neighbors, living in peace side by side—with the longest boundary line between them of any other nation in the world—and yet without a fortification or a single armed soldier from either?

Those in Athens long ago said: "Know thyself." Through travel back and forth citizens of Canada and the United States may learn to know themselves as in no other way, as well as to love and appreciate each other.

Those in the United States who have never visited Alaska, Banff, Lake Louise and the wonderful Canadian Rockies, as well as the wild and rugged Jasper, in Western Canada; and in Eastern Canada quaint Quebec, Ottawa, the Gaspé peninsula, Prince Edward Island, New Brunswick, Cape Breton Island—that miniature Garden of Eden—and Nova Scotia, with its Peggy's Cove, its "Land of Evangeline," and its matchless summer climate, have a great treat in store for them. And Canadians visiting the United States will return to their homes bubbling with pride for this North American continent, after a visit through the great North-west, a trip through the Gaspé and the mountains of California, Yellowstone Park, the Royal Gorge, the Grand Canyon, the numberless underground caverns; the cotton fields of the South, in those States where "God is smiling down on the good farmer," the "where there is always June in Miami," and New York City, "the unbelievable," just to name a few of the attractions.

In an invisible manner, the tourist between Canada and the United States is a measureless asset for both countries—but, in a larger sense, it may become an influential factor for permanent peace and neighborhood, of good will and understanding, that shall eventually spread throughout the world!

What does it represent? "What does it represent?" "It represents a village street from the rear of a motorcycle."

ONE CONTINENT (By George Matthew Adams, author of "You Can," "Up," "Just Among Friends.")

There is every sign that the people of Canada and the United States are at last becoming Continent conscious! This is evidenced by both nations in their organized efforts toward promoting an interchange of visitors each year.

This North American continent was discovered and has since been peopled and developed by the best blood of the world. From Alaska to Mexico, from Labrador to the tip Florida, is spread a page of deed unmatched in all history.

Across this continent are nature's wonders, mysteries and scenic splendors unrivalled on the globe. You live here—spend here!

On the other hand, where in the world, in all the pages of history can a story be found of two great nations such as Canada and the United States, neighbors, living in peace side by side—with the longest boundary line between them of any other nation in the world—and yet without a fortification or a single armed soldier from either?

Those in Athens long ago said: "Know thyself." Through travel back and forth citizens of Canada and the United States may learn to know themselves as in no other way, as well as to love and appreciate each other.

Those in the United States who have never visited Alaska, Banff, Lake Louise and the wonderful Canadian Rockies, as well as the wild and rugged Jasper, in Western Canada; and in Eastern Canada quaint Quebec, Ottawa, the Gaspé peninsula, Prince Edward Island, New Brunswick, Cape Breton Island—that miniature Garden of Eden—and Nova Scotia, with its Peggy's Cove, its "Land of Evangeline," and its matchless summer climate, have a great treat in store for them. And Canadians visiting the United States will return to their homes bubbling with pride for this North American continent, after a visit through the great North-west, a trip through the Gaspé and the mountains of California, Yellowstone Park, the Royal Gorge, the Grand Canyon, the numberless underground caverns; the cotton fields of the South, in those States where "God is smiling down on the good farmer," the "where there is always June in Miami," and New York City, "the unbelievable," just to name a few of the attractions.

In an invisible manner, the tourist between Canada and the United States is a measureless asset for both countries—but, in a larger sense, it may become an influential factor for permanent peace and neighborhood, of good will and understanding, that shall eventually spread throughout the world!

What does it represent? "What does it represent?" "It represents a village street from the rear of a motorcycle."

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

Conveying the Compliments of the Season To All Citizens of Charlottetown and Wishing Them A Happy Christmas And a More Prosperous New Year.

SAMUEL KENNEDY, MAYOR.

Mayor's Office Charlottetown.

To All Our Customers and Friends We Extend Best Wishes for a VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS and a HAPPY NEW YEAR Prowse Bros Limited

PLAY IN AFTON HALL

On Tuesday, November 20, 1934, the three act comedy drama "Leave it to Charlie" was staged in Afton Hall under the auspices of New Dominion Women's Institute, and proved a decided success in every way.

Mr. H. T. Currie very capably acted as chairman, and perfect order prevailed throughout the entire presentation of the play. The hall was well filled, and the large audience showed their appreciation by the close attention and hearty applause given.

Mr. Harold Betts, with violin music by Mr. Everett Gorraet, vocal solos by Miss Jean Moore and Mr. W. D. Shaw. Home-made candy was quickly disposed of the demand far exceeding the supply.

The singing of the National Anthem brought to a close a most enjoyable evening's entertainment and immediately afterwards the members of the cast and their friends were treated to a delicious lunch by the Institute members, while those who cared to do so indulged in dancing for a time. Following is the cast of characters in order as they appeared:

Folly Biddle, caretaker of Ted Forrest's home—Miss H.T. Currie. Nancy Prescott, a pretty neighbor—Doris Currie.

Cal Picken, the village constable—Oswald Darrach. Bob Matthews, an unwilling visitor at Crossroads—Ray Wilson.

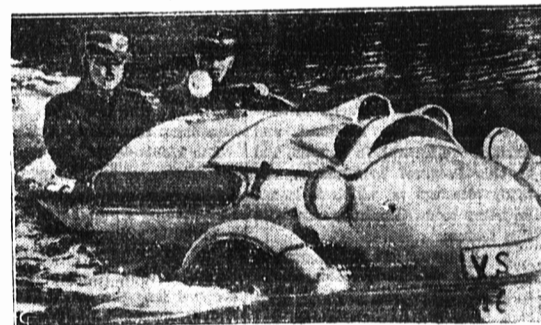

Charlie Lawrence, his go-getter friend—Brent Currie. Betty Ann Stewart, a human, little whirlwind—Selma Currie.

Melvina Kurtz, whose ambition is to have a beau—Mrs. Alex Strong. Loreta Harris, the prettiest girl in the village—Mrs. Dan Livingstone.

Spud McCloskey, direct from Sunshine Alley—Dan MacDougall. Mickey Maguire, also from Sunshine Alley—Dan Livingstone.

Mrs. Forest, haughty sister-in-law of Ted Forrest—Mrs. Hector MacLean. Annabel Spriggins, the village old maid—Mrs. George Wilson.

New German Water Vehicle

Gen. Lutze (LEFT), chief of the war vehicle for land or water use German storm troops, is shown its water speed is half its land speed, which can be easily converted into.

ONE WAY TO KEEP WARM THE CHALLENGE AND CHEER OF CHRISTMAS

The wonders of the Yuletide Are great beyond our thought. Our questionings are many. And with deep mystery fraught.

The Angel's cheering carol! What school taught him the words That fitted Shepherds' learning And charmed like song of birds?

Where did he learn the music? Who pitched for him the tune That thrills the hearts of listeners From Christmas until June?

The words for those who grasp them In all their wealth of thought, Tell of a free salvation For all the peoples brought.

That boon we may seize gladly, And heartily now sing, His praise who is our Saviour, Our rightful Lord and King.

The carol of the Angel Was broadcast to the skies, And hosts of shining spirits Gave Shepherds great surprise.

The chorus which they render Sets God in honoured place, And calls on men to tender Him glory from our race, Enthroned Him "in the highest."

WILMOT VALLEY SCHOOLS

Report of Wilmot Valley Schools for November and December. Grade IX—1 Gladys Clarke, Grade VI—1 Beth Waugh, Helen Huestis, 3 David Clarke, Grade V—1 Ewen Clarke, 2 Harry Waugh.

Grade IV—1 Lawrence Durant, 2 Kenneth Clarke, 3 Wendell Huestis, 1 Florence Durant. Grade I (a) 1 Eileen Waugh and Earle Clarke, 2 Christine Durant and George Huestis.

Grade I (b) 1 Gordon Huestis. Perfect attendance: Beth Waugh, Florence Durant, Earle Clarke, Christine Durant, Eileen Waugh. Percentage of attendance 92.1. Marion Prizel—Teacher.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

MONCTON, N.B., Dec. 22—The following telegram has been received at regional headquarters of the Canadian National Railways here from Mr. S. J. Hungerford, President of the system.

"The trustees and staff officers at headquarters join with me in extending to all officers and employees and their families Christmas greetings and sincere good wishes for the coming year."

THANKS FROM

Christmas Seal Sale Committees

The Christmas Seal Sale has met with such a generous response from the citizens of Prince Edward Island that we should like to acknowledge the contributions individually.

However, to write each purchaser would increase the amount to be deducted from our receipts. We think our friends will accept this public acknowledgement of their assistance, and thus allow the greatest amount of money possible to be spent in helping the tuberculosis.

We also extend our thanks to the daily press, the theatres, business houses and others who have so generously assisted in making our Campaign such a splendid success.

The Christmas Seal Sale Committee wish you all a Bright and Merry Christmas and Happy and Prosperous New Year.

The Presbyterian Church in Canada

ST. JAMES CHURCH

Minister: REV. R. MOORHEAD-LEGATE, D. D.

CHRISTMAS DAY PUBLIC WORSHIP AT 11.15 A.M.

"Unto you is born this day a saviour which is Christ the Lord"

Grand Opening Christmas Day

OF THE NEW BLUE ROOM AT MILTON'S OLD SPAIN

Why not reserve a table for your Christmas dinner in the Blue Room with its charming and restful atmosphere. Dinner will be served from 12 till 2, and 5 till 8 o'clock. We have spared no expense to make this the most attractive establishment of its kind possible. WE HOPE YOU LIKE IT.

Popular prices plus our motto: "Quality knows no substitute." is a combination hard to beat.