

No Cough

Have not coughed once all day? Yet you may cough tomorrow! Better be prepared for it when it comes. Ask your doctor about keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house. Then when the hard cold or cough first appears you have a doctor's medicine right at hand.

Bread Bakers

We are not addressing the professional bakers outside of our own shop they don't interest us. We mean women who bake at home under the impression that they are saving money on getting better bread.

There are many reasons why we know that these women are laboring under a delusion. We use the greatest care in the making of our Cream Bread. We do all our mixing by machine made mixers. In a loaf 5c and 10c—makes you think you get your moneys worth every time you bite into it.

Thirty-eight persons were received into Wesley Memorial Church, Moncton, Sunday evening, Jan 9th, by Rev. J. J. Pinkerton, the pastor, who is well known here. Sixteen of the members were baptized just before the reception service. Eight of the thirty-eight were admitted by letter. The whole service was most inspiring, many in the congregation remarking afterward that it was a splendid sight to see so many young men among those coming into the fellowship of the church. At the communion service, the same evening, the largest number in the history of the church remained to partake of the Lord's Supper.

Tomorrow evening, January 26th, Major Bartlett will lecture in the basement of St Dunstan's Cathedral on "Sicily, a lovely but cruel land." The lecture will be illustrated by one hundred splendid stereoscopic views, giving a comprehensive idea of this beautiful island. The object for which the lecture is given is a noble one, and a full house should be the result.

Arrangements are being made by the Kentville, N. S., Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist pastors to hold union evangelistic services during the month of February, under the leadership of evangelist J. Ritchie Bell, of Montreal.

Our big "stock-taking" sale of second-hand pianos, organs and sewing machines has been the greatest success of any sale we've ever attempted. People purchased from Tignish and all the way down to Souris. Upon receipt of their purchases, one man wrote in: "The values are better than you said." Another wrote: "I would have had the instrument before now if I ever dreamt of such values." So, on it goes—enquiring and then buying. There's an end to everything, and this sale positively ends the last day of January. Now is your time—right now. Miller Bros., 123 Kent Street, Charlottetown. 1-25-dr-3-1.
