Island-Born
Doctor Had
Notable Career

Friends in this Province of the late Dr. H. C. Lefurgey, who passed away at Dolores, Colorado, several weeks ago, will be interested in the account of his passing and of his life there since he left his native province.

Dr. Lefurgey had lived in Dolores for forty years and saw many exciting events which took place in the transition of that section of raw frontier territory. His reputation as a medical and maternity doctor was unsurpassed by any in the state. He was capable of meeting any emergency and was called upon to do so many times in his long career of medical practice. He leaves countless friends and patients, whom he had taken care of from their earliest childhood, to mourn his passing.

Dr. Lefurgey was born in December, 1877, in Prince Edward Island and after graduating from the Detroit School of Medicine went to take up the medical practice at Dolores. His wife, the former Mable Williams, predeceased him in 1925.

The nearest of kin who survive the doctor are his nephew, Dr. Lefurgey and Miss Margery Lefurgey of Charlotteville, Miss Constance Lefurgey Blake, Montreal; Henry Havelock Lefurgey, Jasper, Alberta; William Donald Lefurgey, Summerside; William Chapman, Ottawa, Ont.

The remains were laid to rest in the Dolores Summit Ridge Cemetery.—S.

Mrs. C. A. Schurman
Passes At Chelton

The death of Mrs. Charles A.
Schurman at the age of 88 years occurred at her home in Chelton on July 23rd, 1949.

She was born at Shemogue, N.
B., and was formerly Maria Blacklock, youngest daughter of the late William A. Blacklock and Fannie Anderson Blacklock. She came to Prince Edward Island in 1882 and married Charles Alfred Schurman of Beauce, who predeceased her in 1937. She leaves to mourn one son, Herbert, his wife, and three grandchildren, Jean, Joyce, and Charles.

Funeral services were held from her late residence July 27. The large attendance testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held in the community. The pallbearers were Messrs Stanley Gaudet, John P. Gaudet, Stanley Arsenault, Jack Arsenault, Eddie Gallant, Fred Arsenault. Interment was in St. Paul's Cemetery and the final rites at the grave were performed by the Rev. C. J. MacLellan, V.G.—S.

Sport Echoes
From
Prince County

Two 1,000 felling averages were blotted off the sheet last Sunday Benny Grady had accepted 14 chances without a bobble but made errors on Sunday. Joey Le-Clair had done even better. He had accepted 35 chances without a miscue before Sunday's games, then went on a booting spree, making three errors in one game.

We still think the "suicide" or "running" squeeze play is being overdone in these particular parts.
For while it has worked a surprisingly high percentage of times, mainly, we believe, because the defence was falling down and playing dead, we can't imagine this state of affairs continuing, and indeed this play hasn't been clicking so well of late. We quote from a book called "Inside Baseball": "Use the 'safe' squeeze.
That is, the baserunner knows the bunt is coming on first good ball and takes lead accordingly. The running squeeze requires hitter to bunt ball no matter where pitched."

The very latest in arguments is just when it is permissible for batter to step out of the box. One side claims the batter can step out of the box at any time, even when the ball is hit way to the plate.
The other side avers that he cannot step out of the box once the pitcher goes into his wind-up. The baseball solons of America are being asked for their opinions, but we thought we'd let the fans hear over it before the expert opinions come in.

In the case which led to the argument it was claimed that the batter had got out of the box because the pitcher was delaying his delivery over long. We believe that if a batter got something in his eye and the condition was quite obvious to the umpire, the umpire might call it "no pitch."

We also realize, of course, that a batter can step out of the box if the pitcher is taking too long to deliver the pitch. But, in this case, we think the umpire should have decided the issue. In the meantime, the question may give the fans a chance to argue about it, and this is a very real part of the good old game.

Single games in the Prince Edward Island Physical Fitness League will start Saturday at 8:00 p.m. sharp, and double-headers at 1:30 p.m. sharp. In the case of double-headers on Sunday the second game must start at 4 p.m.

The league game between Charlottetown and Curran & Briggs to be played in Kensington on Friday evening at 8:00 p.m. is a crucial one, for the Abegweit must win it if they are to keep Curran & Briggs out of first place in the final standing of the league.

We have been put on the mat for not giving the line-ups of that historic battle game on Saturday. Here they are: Curran & Briggs, Green, c; Doucette, p; Gallant, b; Sonier, cf; Walker, 1b; Harris and DesRoches, ss; Gillis, 3b; Grady, rf; Whalen, lf.

U. S. Air Cadets
Attend Party

Fourteen American Civil Air Patrol Cadets mingled with about 150 Canadian cadets at a beach party at Harbord Park last Saturday evening and all appeared to be enjoying themselves immensely.
Today the Cadets, who are from thirteen different States, all east of the Mississippi, will leave Summerside after a four-day visit and will continue on their tour of Eastern Canada, going first to St.
John's, Newfoundland, via Sydney, N. S.

Yesterday morning they visited St. John's. It is a screen version of William Saroyan's double prize-winning play which captured both the Pulitzer and Drama Critics' Circle awards and it stars James Cagney who has one "Oscar" and two New York Film Critics' citations to his credit already.

This profoundly moving and warm story of Joe, the character played by Eddie Dowling on the stage and Cagney in the film, is cast with a fine group of the spirits as have graced the screen in many a month. William Bendix, who had a small part in the original, is costarred as Nick, the philosophical bartender; Wayne Morris is Tom, Joe's hulking devoted protege and Joanne Cagney is magnificent as Kitty Duval, a girl with a dream, the role portrayed by Julie Haydon on the stage.

Ably supported by leads are Broderick Crawford, Ward Bond, James Barton and Paul Draper as well as a score of other character actors and actresses. It is difficult to single out individuals, so perfect is the overall production.

"Where Old Friends Meet"

District W. I.
Convention At Kensington

The 22nd Annual District Convention of Emerald, Springfield, Norboro, French River, Graham's Road, New London, Spring Brook, Long River, Charlottetown, Margate, Clinton and Kelvin Grove was held in the hall at Kensington, on Thursday, July 14th. The afternoon session opened at 2:30 P.M. with the president, Mrs. Allan A.
Campbell in the chair. Meeting opened by the singing of the Ode to the Republic of the creed, in Kensington.

Mrs. Ernest Dunning, and a solo by Mrs. Wilbur McKay. It was moved and seconded that all reports be adopted. Mrs. Townsend, representative of the Singer Sewing Machine, gave a short address, and invited all who were interested, to come during the intermission, for a demonstration, an address which many took. The afternoon session then closed and refreshments were served by Kelvin Grove Institute, assisted by Long River, Norboro and Margate.

Evening Session
The evening session, with Mrs.
Campbell in the chair, opened by singing "O Canada" followed by a solo by Miss Muriel Ann Sinnott of Emerald, and a reading by Miss Edwina MacLeod of Spring Brook.

Mrs. Julian Herring, P. E. I.
Women's Institute Representative to the F. W. I. C., gave an interesting report on her trip to the Biennial Convention, She spoke of the Remembrance Book, of the 90,000 W. I. members gathered at the convention, of agriculture and soil conservation, cultural competitions, and the Tweedsmuir competitions. In the latter, she was disappointed in not finding any work done by P. E. I., as she thinks our hooked rugs are much superior to those winning the competition, and she hoped to see some of ours next year.

A solo was then rendered by Mrs. George Dunning of Springfield.

Mrs. Gordon MacMillan of Cornwall showed colored slides of her garden and described a number of them. This alone was well worth coming to the convention for and left many of the members feeling that with a little more work, many homes could be more attractive.

The next number was a reading by Mr. Crawford Pickett of Kelvin Grove, which was followed by instrumental music by Mrs. George
