

OIL FOR THE BODY

You can't lose an atom without feeling it. The body is like an engine, a watch, a machine; must be kept in good order to run right. That's the reason Scott's Emulsion is so successful in all wasting diseases. It feeds, nourishes and strengthens when ordinary food won't. Doctors say Scott's Emulsion is the best nourishment for those who are not as well as they should be—young or old.

We'll send you a sample free upon request. SCOTT & BOWNE, Toronto, Ont.

SLIM, TAPERING FINGERS.

Fine Rings for slim, tapering fingers or for round, chubby ones—this store has both. A handsome Diamond or Opal or Ruby or Sapphire is becoming on almost any sort of finger—and doubly so when its setting is dainty and novel. We doubt if anywhere in town you will find a larger assortment of Rings than here. And we feel sure that nowhere will you find a choicer one. Ladies' Rings are, of course the specialty. Hosts of kinds are shown at all the way from $2.00 to $50.00 each. And plenty of Rings beside for Men and for Misses and for Children. You need go no further than here to find the kind of Ring you want, at the price you want to pay.

THE ENEMY.

Unskilled in Letters, and in Arts unversed; Ignorant of empire; bounded in their view. By the lone billowing veils, where they up-grew. Amid great allences; as people nursed Apart—the far-sown seed of them that erst. Not Alva's sword could tame; now blindly Against the march of the majestic world. They fight and die, with dauntless bosoms curst. Crazed if you will; demented, not to yield Ere all be lost! And yet it seems to me They fought as noblest Englishmen did use To fight, for freedom; and no Briton he. Who to such valor in a desperate field A knightly satisfaction may refuse. —William Watson, "In Time of Estrangement."

BELL AS A LONDON SIGN.

The English are a music-loving nation, and they love to hear music even when going about their daily occupations, and so it is that the spires and towers of her mighty cathedrals are hung full of glorious bells. So fond of bell ringing is "Merrie England" that Handel once said the bell is her national instrument. It is not strange, therefore, that we find this instrument frequently adopted as a public sign. From early in the seventeenth century Bell Inns were numerous in London. In Knightbridge street there was an old inn, the walls of which were prefaced with a giant bell carved in bold relief, the keystone had the initials "M. T. A." and the date 1668. This fine specimen is now in Guildhall. But a little step away, in Carter Lane, there was another Bell Inn, which has the proud distinction of being the hostelry from which Richard Quinsey wrote, in 1598, to his "loving good friend and countryman, Mr. William Shakespeare," the only letter addressed the Bard of Avon now known to exist. The letter is preserved in Stratford, the home of the world's greatest poet. Not far away, again, there is a modern Bell tavern, a place where it is said that Dickens loved to go when making notes for "David Copperfield."

One of the most ancient and reputable wholesale druggists in the city, while rebuilding on his old site, dug out of the foundation of the ancient house an old sign of "The Bell and Dragon." It had lain there for more than two hundred years, having been used on a prior building before the disasters of the Great Fire, and had fallen through into the general ruins. The peculiarity of the situation is that the firm had adopted "The Bell and Dragon" as their trade-mark before the discovery of this fire touched relic. This splendid old stone bas-relief is jealously preserved, and occupies a prominent place in the entrance of the Holborn branch of the firm.

Mr. J. Beechinor Happiness and Health After Years of Torturing Rheumatism.

Mr. J. Beechinor, of Shiloh, Ont., after years of tortures from sciatica and rheumatism, writes thus:—"For five years I suffered from sciatica and rheumatism, at times being so bad that I could not walk or put my hand to my mouth. If I attempted to do any work I would be crippled for weeks. I took medical treatment, patent medicines, Turkish and mineral baths, but all failed to meet my case. Some time ago I tried Paine's Celery Compound, and after using six bottles I feel like a new man, and can do a hard day's work and feel none the worse for it. I have also gained in weight, and can say I am permanently cured."

PAINE'S Celery Compound Cured Him.
