Buckwheat is an egg-producing food but a steady diet of it is apt to be over-fatting.
It has been ascertained that there are, on an average, $1,120 feathers in a hen's suit.
Do not feed putrid meat to the fowls. Spiced, tainted, cooking will render it more healthful.

The fowls are better off on a cold day confined to the house, if it is moderately comfortable, than ranging out in an exposed yard or field.
Clover hay, scalded and chopped, is an excellent food for laying hens. It should first be made fine through the feed cutter.

Miller Bros Pianos The Heintzman & Co. ---A Piano for the Fastidious

The makers of the Heintzman & Co., Piano are not in business to produce merely a good or a VERY GOOD instrument; they manufacture beyond question the BEST PIANO that has ever been offered the public, and the whole resources of their institution are bent toward maintaining their SPLENDID STANDARD and IMPROVING IT, be it ever so slightly, from time to time. The Heintzman & Co. Piano is not an instrument that is produced at a given price to place upon the market; the expense of its manufacture is a matter of but minor consideration, and the ruling idea has been to make the best piano that skill and genius can put together irrespective of cost. The Heintzman is beyond ordinary commercial usages, and is far beyond the ordinary best piano quality.

The exquisite quality of tone in the Heintzman Piano is a matter of marvel. Every other manufacturer acknowledges its unrivalled beauty and very many have spent time and money in the attempt to duplicate it.

Nevertheless, the Heintzman tone remains today a thing apart in Piano tone; there is no other piano like the Heintzman, and we think, no other can satisfy the fastidious purchaser—who can afford to have one.

We are sole handlers of Heintzman & Co., Pianos in Prince Edward Island. It will give us pleasure to have you examine our stock.

Each of the young men expressed his appreciation to his brethren for this act of kindness, and referring to the many pleasant hours spent in the society. His Lordship said:

MR. ARTHUR NEALE. In loving memory of Arthur Neale: Died November 14, 1915. Once again our hearts are saddened Once again we bow the head O'er the form of our departed. Numbered with the silent dead. In the mornings quiet stillness, Just beyond the purpled dawn He had calmly, joyfully awakened into the eternal morn.

Now amid the saints of Glory, Where his loved ones gone before, He is resting from his labors And shall rest forever more. No more sorrow, no more sighing, All his tears are wiped away. There, there is no morn or evening. But one long and blissful day. Grant, Oh Lord, that we may follow In the path of faith and prayer, Then when we shall hear the summons Joyfully go and meet him there.

EARL O. KENNEDY, Kingsborough.

MISS LAURA MATHESON. On Saturday evening, Nov. 13th, about 11 p. m., after long months of suffering bravely and nobly borne, in the P. I. Hospital, at the early age of 24, her spirit was released from the burden of the flesh to be forever at rest "in the Lord". She possessed such a combination of qualities that caused her to be greatly beloved and the family above all, the social circles of the church in which she was a willing worker, are sensible of an aching "void" and greetless but their earthly loss is her heavenly gain and they would not, if they could, wish her back on earth again. The funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon, November 16th, at her home in North Wiltshire and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. George Orman assisted by Rev. G. C. Taylor of Zion Church, Charlottetown, whose frequent visits and faithful ministrations had been much blessed to her. His address, most consoling and instructive, was heard with attentive passage in relations. What are these arrayed in white and witness unto they, "and not fall to be helpful to all who hear. The remains being taken to St. Michael's Church, Iona, where the Pastor, Rev. Father Smith performed the ceremony. May his soul rest in peace.

MR. STEWART MacLAREN. New Perth has lost one of its best citizens in the death of Mr. Stewart MacLaren who passed to eternal rest on the morning of Nov. 13. He was born at New Perth 60 years ago, and was a son of William and Elizabeth Stewart MacLaren. With the exception of a few years residence in St. Paul's, Minnesota, he has lived at New Perth where he achieved success as a farmer and dairyman. He had not been in robust health for some years, though able to attend to his various duties. On Sept. 20th he became ill with a malady that baffled the best medical skill and nursing. His physician gave him every attention and he many times thought himself recovering, but he was fated to be broken in illness, attended with much suffering. The funeral took place on Monday last to Brudenell Cemetery. The service were conducted by Rev. George Henry, Pastor of the Christian Church of Montague, of which the deceased was a member. Mr. MacLaren was twice married, first to Jennie, daughter of the late Mr. John Farquharson of Mount Stewart, who died in January 1901, by whom he had two children, James and Carrie. He next married Isabelle, daughter of the late Mr. Robert Dewar of New Perth who with two children, Douglas and Adeline survive. Those left to mourn are one sister, Mrs. Daniel MacQuarrie, Rosemeath and five brothers. To all of these The Guardian extends its sincere sympathy.

The darkest days of husband and wife are when they come to look forward to a childless and lonely old age. Many a wife has found herself incapable of motherhood owing to some derangement of the feminine system, often curable by the proper remedies.
