The many friends of W. A. Brehaut of the Boston Post, who has been visiting his mother at White Sands, will regret to learn that he is in the P. E. I. Hospital undergoing treatment.

THE July number of the Maine Central, the official organ of Maine Central Railroad Company has been received. Among the excellent illustrations are some of Canadian scenes and including an excellent view of Halifax.

A. PICKARD & Co., have been appointed agents for the Manchester line boats. The Manchester Trader will make her first trip from this port in October. The exact date will be announced later and any information about rates etc., will be cheerfully given.

STOCK NOTES.—Jabez Lea, Victoria, has one of the heaviest (if not the very heaviest) colt on the Island. At 8 weeks old it weighs 375 lbs. It is out of Mr. Lea's old prize winning mare, and is sired by the famous stallion, McCracken. This colt is half brother to stallion Lucky Jack.

A TRURO Exchange has the following regarding a well known Ch'town man: Prof. Collier has been appointed by the government as Director of the Manual Training Schools of P. E. Island in connection with the Prince of Wales College. This is a popular appointment, as Prof. Collier has been largely instrumental in bringing our Manual Training system to the excellent position it now occupies in the Maritime Provinces.

THE Manchester Miller, built to the order of the Manchester Liners, Ltd., was launched from the yard of the Northumberland Shipbuilding Company, Ltd., Howdon-on-tyne, on Saturday, July 11. The vessel will carry a dead weight of 7,000 tons, and the machinery has been specially designed for heavy Atlantic trade, the Manchester Miller being intended for the New Orleans-Manchester service. On the same day the sister ship—the Manchester Spinner—left the Tyne on her trial trip which proved satisfactory.

THE rumor has been persistently circulated that a young man, who had his wrist badly cut at the Coleman tea, had died from the effects of his injury. On enquiry we find that the young man is still in the flesh. It appears that while emphasizing the praises of certain liquid refreshments in which he was indulging he planked his glass on the table with more force than the glass could stand. The result was that the broken pieces entered his wrist, causing a severe wound which bled very profusely. Prompt bandaging no doubt saved his life.—Exchange.

THE nuns, members of the Order of Jesus that have arrived from France at Quebec, some of whom are coming to this Province are described as all young in years, and though forced into a strange country they expressed themselves content to obey the will of God, and look forward to happiness in this country, to take the place of persecution in their own. One sister when told of the loyal affection expressed for France by the French-Canadians of Canada said she could understand people having affection for France, old France, but was at a loss to comprehend how any one with French blood in their veins could retain even respect for official France, as it is now designated.

INSTRUCTIONS have been received from Quebec regarding the artillery camp at Fort Duff-rin, but so incomplete is the order that officers here are still in the dark. They know, or at least believed, that camp would be held some time in August, but expected official notification a few weeks in advance. The only information received previous to to-day's orders was in the manual of instruction, which in itself dealt only with the actual shooting, and which was hard to understand. Orders have been received from the camp commandant at Quebec to the effect that two St. John companies will go into camp on August 3rd and march out on August 6th, while two other companies are to go in on August 5th and come out on August 8th. The officers here do not know whether this means morning, noon or night, they have no idea of how the men will be fed, whether it will be a regimental mess or otherwise; have not been told whether the word company as contained in the order means the full strength of each unit or only three officers and thirty men as was the order last year. IN MEMORIAM.—Again the storm cloud of life has come into our midst overshadowing the joys of an household and laid low in death a loved one and friend. This sad and melancholy event took place during the early hours of Friday morning 14th when Daniel MacKay of Park Corner passed away, the result of an attack of typhoid pneumonia of about a week's standing. This sad event moves from our midst a loving friend and from the Presbyterian Church an elder who will be greatly missed. As an office bearer his pure and upright character and kindly manner always commanded the confidence and respect of the people. Sunday at time of services always found him in his pew, and to every call for help to church and pastor he cheerfully responded. His death has made vacant a place which never can be filled, a blameless christian life was his, a kind and loving husband, a tender thoughtful and indulgent father. His funeral took place on Saturday the services being conducted by Rev. E. Smith assisted by the Rev. Mr. Rattee of Malpeque and part, which was a sermon fitting to the occasion Though now separated from their loved one, though they shall miss the fatherly affection and sympathy that was ever manifested toward them; yet in this hour of their deepest grief, the mourning family and friends can find comfort, consolidation and peace in the thought that just

A few short years of evil past,
We reach that happy shore,
Where death divided friends at last
Shall meet to part no more.

A procession fully a mile in length followed the remains to the Presbyterian Cemetery Malpeque, and here amid the tears of family and kindred his body was committed to the earth. Deceased was 72 years of age and leaves to mourn a sorrowing widow, three sons and one daughter, all of whom have the deepest sympathy of the entire community.

The main points of a Carriage can hardly be treated in an issue or two.

Our idea is to impress upon you the necessity of examining several parts which go toward the "Making" or "Unmaking of the work.

SPRINGS, for instance. Now many builders to reduce the cost of "too many styles," get their end or side springs, (as the case may be,) all in certain size, and style, notwithstanding the fact, that although the BODY, may admit of using the same spring on many styles, the buggies may be used for very different purposes. Every carriage we build has a spring to suit its use. Our "guarantee" is in effect to protect against inferior MATERIAL or WORKMANSHIP AT ANY time.
