MAKING GOOD RECOVERY

The many friends of little Anna Pierce, six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Pierce, Elmira, who was so severely injured in an auto accident on Sunday, July 5th, are very pleased to know that she has almost completely recovered from her near fatal injuries. Much credit is due the doctor from Souris, who attended the injured girl, and also to Miss MacQuillan, R.N., of New Haven, who so skillfully nursed her to a speedy recovery.

ATTENDING CONVENTION

Rev. R. Hensley Stavert, Past Most Worthy Patriarch of the Sons of Temperance of North America, returned on Saturday evening, after having attended the annual session of the said National Division, which was held in Moncton, July 15th to 17th. The session was largely attended and the meetings were very interesting and helpful. Besides quite large delegations from Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, there were representatives from Ontario and from most of the New England and the Middle States.

WESTERN VISITORS

Mr. F. J. Turner, Western Superintendent of the Canadian Press, with headquarters at Winnipeg, accompanied by Mrs. Turner, arrived in the City over the week end, registering at the Canadian National. Mr. and Mrs. Turner intend going to Cavendish Beach, where they will spend a few weeks. It is hoped their first visit to the Garden Province will prove both beneficial and pleasant.

SAD BEREAVEMENT

Mrs. (Capt.) Edward Dicks, of Dalvay, has received a wire that her cousin, Frank MacDonald, died on Sunday morning at Roaring Springs, Pennsylvania. Mr. MacDonald was a well known chemical engineer and had risen high in his profession. Captain Dicks and his wife visited their home last year. Mr. MacDonald, who was 58 years of age, was the son of the late Capt. John MacDonald, and Mary Ann McAvoy, of Georgetown Royalty. He leaves to mourn a widow, nee Miss Sarah Gill of Maine, two brothers, James and Thomas in Georgetown Royalty, and one sister, Mrs. James Wood, Lake Verde.

BOYS' CAMP

The Boys' Camp, for boys twelve to sixteen years of age is in full swing at Canoe Cove. It is under the direction of the M. R. E. C. with W. E. Aitken as Camp Director. The other leaders are J. J. Levy, Boys' Work Secretary; J. B. Wilson, G. Brooks, D. K. Ross, J. Chisholm and D. M. Sinclair. Some thirty boys are in attendance. They are kept very busy from seven in the morning till ten at night with Bible study, demonstration talks, badge work, group games, softball, volleyball and swimming. Every activity is under careful supervision. Although the weather has not been very favorable during the last few days the boys are cheerfully awaiting the sunshine, and by the twenty-fifth, when the Camp closes, they will be most reluctant to leave Canoe Cove.

SERIOUSLY ILL

Friends will regret to learn that Mr. David Arbing was taken suddenly ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. R. Crockett, Sr., of Summerside on Tuesday morning and was taken to the Prince County Hospital. His condition is considered serious. Mr. Arbing was prominent in railway circles years ago in Summerside.—S

GASOLINE FOUND IN WOODS

The Provincial Police found three drums of gasoline in the woods near the international Fox Ranch on Monday afternoon. Two drums were empty and one partly full. They were taken to the Customs House. It is thought that they may be the drums that were alleged to have been stolen from the store of Messrs. Arsenault and Gaudet at Wellington some time ago. It is reported that another drum was found between Wellington and M'scouche. No arrests have been made in connection with the seizure.—S

True bills were found against

John McDonald and Howard Llewellyn for burglary at the Supreme Court at Georgetown which opened yesterday with Chief Justice Mathieson on the bench.

In its report the Grand Jury relative to the enforcement of the Motor Vehicle Act suggested that any citizen finding a car being driven by an intoxicated person, and believing the public to be in danger, hold or arrest that person until police could be called. The condition of the jail was not entirely satisfactory, the Grand Jury reported. There were three prisoners in the jail, one of whom

An amazing remedy - acts in a few seconds and causes no pain. The corn shrivels up and loosens. Another application or two and the corn drops out. Wonderful - yes it is! Putnam's Corn Extractor works. You can buy Putnam's Corn Extractor from any drugist for 35c.

MRS. ANNIE V. LINKLETTER

PASSES.—The death occurred last Wednesday of an elderly resident of Summerside, Mrs. Annie V. Linkletter, widow of the late James Linkletter, at 76 years of age. The deceased had been in failing health for some time but had been tenderly nursed by her daughter, Mrs. Edward Kenny, who came home from New York to nurse her. There are left to mourn three sons, Joseph, James and Thomas of Summerside and two daughters, Mrs. Edward Kenny of New York and Mrs. Sonier of Summerside to whom the Guardian extends sympathy. The funeral took place on Sunday at 2 p. m. to St. Paul's Church and Cemetery, Rev. J. J. McDonald officiating at the Church and Rev. Bennett McDonald at the grave. The pall bearers were: Mayor W. T. Lidstone, J. F. Arnett, Thomas M. Linkletter, Thomas Johnson, L. M. McNeill and W. B. MacNeill.—S

THURSDAY

ON FISHING TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Parks, Prince Street, Truro have returned from two weeks holidaying at Cherry Hill, P. E. I. Mr. Parks reports splendid trouting, 22 dozen having been caught by himself and four dozen by Mrs. Parks. The latter had the misfortune shortly after her arrival there to sprain her ankle.

Positive identification that the unknown man who was killed at Six Mile Brook last week was Robert Finlayson, thirty-eight year old son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Finlayson of Cardigan, P. E. I., was made today at Pictou.

The deceased met a tragic death last week when working on the farm of Neil McLeod. He was struck by lightning and instantly killed. Strange circumstances surrounded the case and until this morning the identity of the unfortunate man was a complete mystery. The deceased was apparently well known in Prince Edward Island, being a nephew of Capt. Finlayson of the Marine Department, Charlottetown.

ADMIRALTY COURT

A session of the Admiralty Court for this Province was held on Tuesday before His Honor W. S. Stewart. The case of Bruce Stewart and Company vs. the Steamship Hansi was heard. This is an action for repairs made by the plaintiff for the S. S. Hansi in June, 1929. After the conclusion of the plaintiff case, on application of counsel the suit was adjourned for further hearing on August 4th. R. N. McNeill, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff and R. B. Bell represented the S. S. Hansi.

QUEENS COUNTY CRIMINAL COURT

The Court met on Monday with Judge Duffy presiding for the hearing of a speedy trial in the case sent up to the Supreme Court by Magistrate Martin. The defendant was charged with an intent assault and elected to be tried by the County Court Judge in preference to waiting for the Supreme Court in January next. After hearing evidence produced by the Crown the defendant was given two months in the County Jail. D. Edgar Shaw, K. C. represented the Attorney General and R. R. Bell appeared for the accused.

CHARMING YOUNG LADY

A recent New York exchange to hand contains an excellent picture of Miss Carol Hogan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Hogan, formerly of this city, who in a block party, under the auspices of the Ridgewood Plateau Taxpayers Association was chosen as "Miss Ridgewood Plateau" receiving a beautiful prize. Friends in the city will be delighted to hear of her success.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT

Norma McWilliams, the sixteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. McWilliams of Charlottetown Royalty, suffered severe injuries about ten days ago when a pony he was riding reared, after receiving medical attention at his home he was removed to the P. E. Island Hospital where he is now reported as doing nicely.

SUCCESSFUL ISLANDER

J. B. Crosby, a member of the well known Crosby family of Bonshaw, P. E. I. was a visitor to Oakland recently, coming from Portland, Oregon, his present home. The Crosbys were millers and farmers for many years and even to this day several members of the family are prospering around the old homestead—Abner and Everett on farms and Heath on the old mill property. Cyrus Crosby was at one time Commissioner of Public Works. J. B. Crosby left home in 1898 and went to Denver where he remained for over twenty years, removing to Portland seven years ago. He is now retired in the picture of health, and enjoyed his visit to California very much. He spent some time with his daughter, Mrs. Catherine Clark, in this city, and saw much of our great Eastbay by auto as the guest of his old friend of boyhood days, Alexander MacQuarrie, son of the late John MacQuarrie of Bonshaw.—Oakland Maple Leaf.

FURTHER PARTICULARS

Mr. Robert McLeod, 40, said to be a native of Georgetown, P. E. I., was killed by lightning on Wednesday afternoon while working in a turnip field at Six Mile Brook, Pictou Co. The previous evening the deceased applied for work at the home of Robert McLeod, well known Six Mile Brook farmer. In view of the having season, his application was accepted. Wednesday afternoon Mr. McLeod was engaged in shingling a roof of one of his buildings, when a severe electrical storm arose. He called to his helper to come for shelter until the storm had passed. When the stranger did not come Mr. McLeod went out to the field and was shocked to find him lying on the ground with his clothing torn to bits. A physician was summoned but life was found to be extinct. The remains were removed Wednesday night to an undertaking parlor at Pictou, pending arrangements for burial.—Truro News.

REV. J. A. PUE-GILCHRIST

AT GEORGETOWN.—It is understood the Rev. J. A. Pue-Gilchrist, of Halifax, will be the minister preaching in the Georgetown congregation of the United Church of Canada for the next five Sundays. During Mr. Pue-Gilchrist's college days he showed marked ability both as a student and an athlete. Since then he has always been one of the most popular Canadian preachers. A couple of years ago he came to Halifax to undertake a hard task in St. John's United Church there, and since his coming to the City, he has more than measured up to all expectations. Mr. Pue-Gilchrist will hold his first services on Sunday, July 26th, when he will be in Sturgeon at 11 a. m.; Milltown Cross at 2.30 p. m. and Georgetown at 7. His first sermon will be preached on "Jesus' Favorite Text," and as many as can should attempt to hear it.

On Friday evening, July 17th, the Ladies Aid of St. James United Church, Souris, held their annual ice cream and strawberry festival and entertainment in St. Patrick's Hall, Souris. The evening entertainment consisted of songs, readings and instrumental selections. The soloists of the evening were the Misses Dora and June Duchemin, Mr. William Neale, and Mr. Walter Burdette. The readers were Miss Edna Gordon, of Charlottetown, and Miss Burdette, of Dundas. Another feature of the entertainment was the songs, which were rendered by the Dundas Male Quartette, namely: Messrs. Walter Burdette, Charles Clay, Edwin Burdette and J. McLeod. The accompanists of the evening were: Miss Marie Paquet, Souris; Mrs. Robin Clay, of Bridgetown and Mrs. H. P. Duchemin. A large and appreciative audience enjoyed this fine entertainment. Rev. J. G. Hockin acted as chairman for the evening and Mr. C. C. Carleton in his own unique way acted as auctioneer for the cakes. We understand that a goodly sum was realized.

DUDLEY, Mass., July 22—Mrs.

Margaret McIntosh Gramlick, 36, wife of Fred Gramlick, died at her home on Dudley Hill late last night after a long illness. She was born in Prince Edward Island and had lived in Worcester, Dudley and Providence several years. Burial will be in Prince Edward Island.

GOOD SHOOTING AT SUMMERSIDE RANGE

A number of high scores have been made at the Summerside Rifle range lately by local shots, who are practicing for the Provincial Shoot to be held next week in Charlottetown. There are quite a number from Summerside and vicinity who will anticipate in the Provincial Shoot this year. Summerside will arrange for a shoot after the Provincial shoot has taken place.—S

CEMETERY MEETING

The annual meeting of the Three Rivers Cemetery Company, (Brudenell), was held in the cemetery on Tuesday, July 14th. After the usual business was transacted, the following board of directors and officers was elected: John Stewart, Montague; Honorary President, Fred Robertson; President, Chas. Robertson; Secretary-treasurer, George MacDonald; George Rourke, Thomas Cameron, Oliver McNeill, Henry MacLean, directors. Ways and means were discussed for putting up the new fence. Much favorable comment and praise was given the directors for the good work done to the cemetery during the past year. But there yet remained much to be done—mowing, etc. Any subscriptions from friends interested in this cemetery will be thankfully received and acknowledged.

The death occurred on Saturday

July 11th, at the home of Mr. John T. Inman, Hampton of Mrs. Mary Patrick a respected resident of this place. Although having attained the great age of 88 years she had enjoyed her usual health up to within three weeks of her death when she was taken suddenly ill. All that loving friends and medical aid could do was done but to no avail, and she passed peacefully away on the above mentioned date. She was a woman of many splendid qualities and will be greatly missed by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. Her funeral which was held on Tuesday July 14 from the Hampton United Church was conducted by her pastor Rev. George Ayers and was largely attended. Her remains were laid to rest in the Crapaud Cemetery beside those of her husband who had preceded her by a number of years.

STRUCK BY TRUCK

Yesterday morning a small calf on the Weymouth Street side of King Square was struck by a Ford truck, and was stunned for some time. The animal was not seriously injured.

LOSS OF A LITTLE GIRL

The sympathy of the whole community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Allison MacMillan, Fairview, in the loss they have sustained in the death of their beloved eldest daughter, Jessie, who passed away on Thursday after a lingering illness from heart trouble. Jessie was a particularly bright and winsome child, loved by every one, and devoted to her parents and two sisters. Two years ago she developed heart trouble and was taken to Montreal for treatment by a specialist, and since then has been fondly cared for in her home. She leaves to mourn their loss her parents and two sisters, Margaret and Audrey. The funeral takes place from her home to the United Church burying ground at New Dominion today.
