SOCIAL EVENING AT THE BAPTIST PARSONAGE - The members of the Baptist Church and congregation gathered at the Parsonage in Summerside on Tuesday evening, the occasion being the birthdays of Rev. and Mrs. Adams. These birthdays fall on consecutive days and are usually celebrated together. The many visitors from town and country who came to wish them many happy returns of the day did not forget to include with their hearty good wishes something tangible to back up their expressions of good will. The recipients, although completely taken by surprise, expressed their thanks in very sincere and fitting terms. A very pleasant social hour was spent in games and congenial conversation and a dainty lunch was served in buffet style.

CARD PARTY AND DANCE - A very successful card party and dance was held in the Oddfellows Hall, Summerside, on Tuesday night, under the auspices of the Summerside Rebeccas Lodge. The gentleman's first was won by Mr. William Forbes; consolation, Mr. Sinclair McKay. The prizes at auction forty five were, ladies' first, Mrs. George Small; consolation, Mrs. B. R. Sharp. I. O. O. E. DISCUSS WINTER LECTURE PROGRAMME - At the regular monthly meeting of the Summerside Chapter of the I. O. O. E., a book tea and also a programme of lectures for the winter months was discussed, an announcement of which will be made in the near future. The Regent, Miss Hunt submitted several fine reports and also read a letter from Jessie M. Stewart, National President of the Order, giving an insight into the workings of the Order for the maintenance of all that is best in the British tradition and its realization in the life of Canada. To the end that this purpose may be perceived and well defined the National Chapter has sought to centralize in the fields of education, immigration and child welfare; and the National President, in her communication, urges that these should be the chief objects of the Summerside and other Chapters in their work for the year. This will, no doubt, be considered in the proposed series of lectures here.

HALLOWEEN SUPPER - The ladies of the Presbyterian Church held their annual supper and banquet in the Presbyterian Hall, Summerside on Tuesday. This is one of the outstanding events of the year and does great credit to the untiring efforts of the ladies, who do their best to make this enjoyable affair a success. The hall and tables were trimmed with Halloween decorations and fancy caps were worn by those serving. The tables were laden with good things for the inner man and during the evening 21 a number of choice selections were played by the Crystal Sisters Orchestra. The handsome sum of over $350 dollars was realized, which was above the average of other years and was very gratifying to all concerned.

McIver, of Kinkora, Rev. William Monaghan officiating. The bride looked charming in a gown of navy georgette over white with silver beaded trimming, hat of black and silver, dark blue shoes and white stockings and was attended by Miss Marjorie Crossan, of Borden. The groom was supported by Mr. George Gallant, of Detroit, Michigan. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. John Murray of Borden. The happy couple afterwards left on a short motor trip to Charlottetown and other points east, the bride wearing a beautiful fur coat. A reception was held later at the home of the groom's parents at Kinkora, where a large number of guests sat down to a splendid banquet. Amongst the guests were friends from Summerside, French River and Borden. The Guardian joins a wide circle of friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. McIver every happiness and prosperity.

DUNPHY-CAHILL NUPTIALS - St. Mary's Church, Indian River was the scene of a pretty autumn wedding Monday morning Oct. 29th at eight o'clock when Mr. Lawrence Cahill of Southport and Miss Lottie Dunphy of Kensington were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Mgr. D. J. Gillis, pastor of St. Mary's, who also celebrated the Nuptial Mass. The bride was charmingly gowned in romany blue satin crepe with coral and sand trimmings, a beige velour coat with opposum collar and cuffs, and small hat of stitched velvet and felt in corresponding shades. She carried a beautiful bouquet of carnations and maiden hair fern. She was attended as bridesmaid by Miss Adeline Cahill, sister of the groom, who wore a becoming dress of jade green and gold shot taffeta. Mr. Robert Dunphy, brother of the bride, was groomsmen. After the ceremony, the wedding party motored to the home of the bride, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served to immediate relatives and friends. In the evening a grand reception was tendered them at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Cahill, Southport, when upwards of one hundred guests assembled to celebrate the happy event. For the reception the bride wore a handsome dress of jade green georgette and blonde shoes and stockings. The bride who is a daughter of the late Thomas and Mrs. Dunphy of Kensington has many friends who were her a pleasant surprise on Friday evening previous to her marriage. In the form of a miscellaneous shower, the groom is the happy and efficient caretaker of Dr. Len Frank's ranch, Southport. The beautiful array of wedding gifts, including a $100.00 cheque from Dr. Frank, testify to the popularity of this happy young couple. A wide circle of friends unite in wishing them "bon voyage" through life.
