ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

A deputation waited on Mr. and Mrs. William Green of Hunter River and on behalf of the Methodist Sunday School at Wheatley River, of which Mr. Green is the able Superintendent and Mrs. Green a teacher, presented them with the following address together with a beautiful pair of gold cuff links and the pin to Mr. Green and a lovely sterling silver pie knife to Mrs. Green.

Following is the address: Wheatley River, Feb. 21st, 1920.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. William Green:—Please accept these small gifts on behalf of the Sunday School.

Not for their intrinsic worth or value, but trying in part to show our appreciation of our Sunday School and of Mrs. Green for her painstaking efforts as teacher and untiring endeavours to make our Christmas tree a success.

Hoping you shall both see many more years of Christian service in the earnest wish of the undersigned.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. MICHAEL J. CONNOLLY

It is with sincere regret that the death of Mr. Michael J. Connolly of Morell is recorded. The sad event occurred at the Charlottetown Hospital on Sunday, February 15th after a week's illness with pneumonia. His passing is particularly sad for it is the second bereavement within the week, his sister Melvina having died on February 9th previously. Mr. Connolly had secured a position in the land office, Charlottetown, and left home on February 2nd for that place immediately assuming his new duties. About a week prior to his demise he contracted a severe cold which developed into pneumonia necessitating his removal to the City Hospital where all was done that could be done but to no avail. He passed away at the early age of 34 years comforted by the rites of the Roman Catholic Church.

Though all miss him, his cheery companionship and warm friendship and feel their loss keenly, yet knowing that he is infinitely more happy than he could ever be on earth no one would wish him back again. Death is always most distressing but when it comes to loved ones away from home it seems terrible to those who remain.

His body was sent to Morell Station where a large number of friends and relatives were waiting to accompany it to his former home. The funeral took place on Tuesday, February 17th to St. Joseph's Church where the Rev. P. A. McDonald officiated at the church and grave. His body now rests in the last resting place beside the newly moulded grave of his sister to await the glorious resurrection. The pall bearers were Walker Byme, John Keefe, Joseph Duffy, Roy Trainor, John Walsh and William Walsh.

Besides the doubly bereaved mother two sisters, Mrs. J. O'Neil, New Castle, N. B.; and Stella at home and four brothers, Bernard, Walter, Louis and William all at home are left to mourn.

May his soul rest in peace.

MR. PROSPERE GAUDET

On Friday morning, February 27, the angel of death visited the home of Mr. Prosper Gaudet of Peterville and claimed for his victim his beloved daughter Maggie. Although the deceased had been an invalid almost since infancy yet she was enjoying fairly good health up to a few hours previous to her death and her sudden death came as a shock to all. She was of a kind and loving nature and her bright and sunny disposition won for her a host of friends. The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Immaculate Conception Church Palmer Road, Rev. P. C. Gauthier officiating. The pall bearers were: John Le Clair, Wilfrid Brennan, Willie Perry, Henri Arsenault, Alphonse Perry and Eddie Bernard. Besides his sorrowing parents he leaves to mourn three sisters and five brothers. To the bereaved family the community extends its deepest sympathy. Requiescat in Pace.

*EASTERN NOTES.—Mrs. J. W. Turner of Souris is in the city visiting friends. Miss Ruth Coffin of Souris was in the city visiting here friends. Capt. John McEachern of Shawwood was in the city from Murray Harbor where he has been on a business trip. Influenza has ceased in Souris and North Shore.

*NEWPORT NOTES.—Messrs Lawrence Butler and Mick Steele have returned from New Brunswick where they spent the past few months in the lumbering business. The new rural mail carrier, Mr. William Fitzpatrick, is winning the respect of all by the punctual and pleasing manner he exhibits during his daily delivery. We are again indebted to Mr. Hughie McEachern for the enjoyable pre-lunch dance given at his home. Music was furnished by our local violinists, Messrs Jerome McLean and Hugh McEachern, assisted by Jack McCormack, Boughton Island. A dainty lunch was served in Mrs. McEachern's well known style.

Hughie is ever-ready to entertain the "Juvies" and the farmers of the vicinity are busily engaged in procuring their supplies of firewood. They appear to follow the motto which says "Never put off until tomorrow what you can do today."—Misses Cecelia Wilson and Mary Bouchard were recent visitors to De Gros Marsh. They attended the pre-lunch dance given in the neighborhood. There has been a great deal of sickness throughout the surrounding country but at the time of writing all the patients are recovering. Miss Carrie McLean is spending the winter with Mrs. John Steele, during Mr. Steele's absence. Mr. Joseph McCormack has been fortunate enough to secure the contract of hauling wood for the factory at Launching. He is being ably assisted by Mr. Pat Connors.—Mr. Joseph Fay, student at St. Dunstan's University is spending a few weeks with his parents in Newport. Mr. Patrick McIntyre is engaged at present in getting out lumber for a fish drier.—His friends are enjoying the company of Capt. Frank Campbell for the past few weeks.—Mr. Larry Butler has purchased a new driving horse.—The different roads of the district are in excellent condition. The credit is due to our untiring road master Mr. John Fitzpatrick.—There has been no class in the De Gros Marsh School for the past week, owing to the illness of the teacher, Miss Geneva Lewis.—Miss Mary McLean, De Gros Marsh is spending a few weeks in Souris the guest of her uncle, Rev. J. C. McLean.—What might have proved a destructive fire occurred at the home of Mr. Angus McCormack, Newport, a few nights ago. Neighbors aid soon had the fire under control.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

A very enjoyable evening was spent on the 29th of February when a party of young folk met at the home of Mr. Ephraim Philps of Tyne Valley to bid good bye to Mr. Wilfred McNeill Royal Bank of Canada, Tyne Valley who is shortly to be transferred to Digby, N. S. The evening was spent in games, music while "Eph" as usual delighted the audience with his witty sayings and comical songs. Rev. Mr. Auld read the address and Miss Georgie Phillips presented Mr. McNeill with a beautiful travelling bag.

Mr. McNeill, although taken by surprise thanked them in a few well chosen words. The party after singing "We're all jolly good fellows" then left for their respective homes. The following is the address read to Mr. McNeill. Mr. Wilfred McNeill Tyne Valley, P. E. I.

Having heard that you are shortly to be transferred from this branch of the Royal Bank of Canada we your friends of Tyne Valley have gathered here tonight to say farewell to you and also to express our regret at your departure. We are sorry to see you go because in your stay here you have endeared yourself to us in many ways. In your position in the bank you have always been courteous, obliging and willing to serve us as far as you were able and in our service and community life we have always found you ready to assist in anything which furthered the better interests of the community. In short we can pay you no greater compliment than to say that you have been a friend to us. We wish that we could keep you.

It is unfortunate for us in your case that in the early days of a bankers life, advance comes by transfer. We congratulate you in your promotion we know that it is well merited and deserved. Kindly accept this gift as a token of our esteem and remember that we shall always be glad to see you in Tyne Valley.

Signed in behalf of your friends and associates.

Suits and Overcoats Tailored - To - Your - Measure

YOU don't have to spend a lot of money to get good clothes, though you can spend a lot of money if you are so minded—up to $100, for a suit of clothes and maybe more for an overcoat—but this is by no means necessary. Good woollens are scarce on today's market, and all other materials are more costly by 100% to 300%, but the one important and outstanding fact is that The English & Scotch Woollen Co. will make for you a thoroughly dependable Suit or Overcoat to your individual measure as low as $20. An English & Scotch Woollen Co. garment will give lasting and satisfying service. We are right on the edge of real spring weather. Let us have your order today.
