LATE GNR. FERGUSON

Mrs. Henry Ferguson, City, has received the following letter from Gunner Chester Garrett of No. 3 Siege Battery giving particulars of the death of her son the late Gunner Gordon Ferguson, who recently died of wounds received in action:

France, Aug. 7, 1917.
Dear Mrs. Ferguson:—
It is with a feeling of the very deepest regret that I write these few lines in regard to the death of your son Gordon, but really madam there isn't very much that I can tell you just now. But I am in hopes of hearing more news later. The place where he died is a long way from here, but I am going to try and get down there in a few days to find out the particulars of his death and see about his grave. You can rest assured that I'll find out everything possible, and see that there is a nice cross placed on his grave. I didn't get a chance to see him the night he was wounded, but the boys that helped him to the dressing station told me that he was in good spirits, and the first thing he wanted to know was if I was safe. He sent word for me to take charge of all his personal belongings and if he didn't come back for me to see that they were sent home. As far as I can see by the report, he died on July 19th, and he was wounded on the 17th. I didn't know he was dead till Aug 2nd, when the report came in. I was expecting a letter from him every night since he left but it never came, and I was beginning to feel anxious about him and then came the news of his death. He entered the hospital on the 17th and was reported dead on the 19th. I don't know what could have caused his death, unless it was the wound in his head.

I never knew what it was to lose a real true friend till now. Gordon and I had been together since leaving home. We were always talking about the good times to come, and whenever he got a letter, he always came to me with the news. He was my best and truest friend, and I can't find words to express my feeling of sorrow over the loss of such a true and faithful pal. I can truthfully say that since leaving home I never knew him to do one bad or mean act. He was a good living boy, and always thinking of loved ones at home. He was loved and admired by all the boys in the battery, and as some of the fellows said a better boy never lived. He was so full of fun and always trying to cheer someone. I know how you must feel in your sor-

ONLY TWO OF GUN CREW SURVIV ATTACK

Mrs. Nicholas Jenkins, Peters Road Lot 63 received the following letter from her son shortly after she had received a telegram from Ottawa telling her that he had been gassed. Somewhere in France. July 20, 1917.

Dear Mother:—
I drop you a few lines to let you know that I am well and hope this finds you the same. But mother dear I am feeling blue just at present. We just came home from burying four of our comrades and there is one yet to bury so that is five killed from one shell, which also wounded four. There are just two of us left and I don't know what saved us. There were eleven of us on our gun crew, so you can picture us today. We feel lost and all of the boys upset. But it is worse for us two for we belonged to that crew and were with them when it happened. I am going to send you the group of my gun crew, but two that were killed are not in it and I will put a mark of a cross on those that were killed and the wounded a stroke so you will know them apart. Well mother it is a lesson for me to try and live as good as possible for I do feel that life is only a dream and we don't know what time our turn will come. I thought war was only a joke but this changed my mind. We had a few wounded before but not very badly. Some of the boys that were wounded last had from six to eight pieces of shell in them. How is papa and the boys? Tell Charlie I received his parcel last night and it came in a good time. Tell Lila I am sending her a present, namely, a handkerchief; it will act the part of a souvenir of France. Well Mother I will have to ring off for this time as I cannot think of anything else.

So good bye from your loving son

MR. GERARD'S TITLE

LONDON.—Answering the question which apparently has arisen in the United States as to whether James W. Gerard, the former American Ambassador to Germany, is entitled to the prefix "Sir" before his name by reason of King George's conferment of him of Knight Grand Cross of the Bath, officials of the College of Arms, the official authority on matters of heraldry today, said: "The former Ambassador at present is Mr. J. W. Gerard, G. C. B., he will not be a Sir unless he receives the accolade from the King."

row, and I don't think there is anything I can say to make your burden lighter, but may God in his goodness and mercy look down on you all and help you to bear up in this hour of grief over the loss of one of the best sons that ever breathed. He paid the price with his own precious blood, and you can feel sure that he will never be forgotten by the boys of the 8th Siege Battery.

I'll have to close now but if there is any further information you would like, don't be afraid to ask, for I'll be only too glad to do anything possible for you.

Again expressing my most sincere sympathy and wishing you all the very best of luck.
Believe me sincerely,
C. F. GARRETT,

THE ROCKY POINT FERRY.—In conversation with Captain Murphy of the ferryboat Hillsboro the Guardian was informed yesterday that the number of visitors crossing to Rocky Point this summer was considerably more than last year. Rocky Point is certainly a delightful spot to spend a day. It has the advantage of being convenient to the city yet affording all the delights of the sea shore, such as bathing, boating, fishing and the holding of clam bakes. The sail and from Rocky Point in the ferry-boat over the beautiful harbor these hot days is in itself no small pleasure. The season for these pleasant outings is rapidly drawing to a close and all who can do so should endeavor to enjoy as many of them as possible. Under the management of Capt. Murphy the ferry service has been splendidly maintained and passengers are at every assured of courteous treatment and ways consideration.

LAI D TO REST.—The funeral of the late Mrs. McLeod, widow of the late David McLeod, of this city took place Sunday afternoon to the People's Cemetery, service being conducted by Rev. J. D. McKenzie. The pall bearers were, Messrs. George Moore, Bruce Stewart, John McKenzie, Edward Davey, Councillor P. A. Smith and James Stewart. Mrs. McLeod, whose maiden name was Caroline Pippy, was born in Lot 48, but has been a resident of Charlottetown for the past thirty-five years. She passed away at the residence of her son Mr. Milton McLeod, last Saturday morning and was in the seventy-eighth year of her age. She leaves to mourn one son Milton and two daughters Miss Addie at home and Mrs. Angus McRae, Wheatley River. She had been ill for about a week. To the bereaved relatives the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

NOTABLE VISITORS.—Notable visitors to the Island at present are Sir John Craig Eaton and Lady Eaton of Toronto. Sir John Eaton is the President of the famous firm of T. Eaton & Co., Ltd. They are accompanied by Mr. T. G. Wolfe and Miss Annie Pringle of Toronto. They travelled by private car to Pictou and crossed to the Island by the S. S. Aranmore. Yesterday they motored to the North Shore to enjoy a short stay at the beach. After leaving the Island the party will proceed to Halifax and the Annapolis Valley. Their trip is purely for pleasure. Sir John Eaton, it will be remembered visited Charlottetown six years ago in his handsome yacht which since the war broke out has been placed at the disposal of the nation. Sir John Eaton is one of the most prominent business men of Canada, being Director of a number of important companies. He is a member of the Board of Regents of Victoria University and Governor of Toronto General Hospital. He donated $250,000 towards the erection of the entire surgical ward in that hospital in memory of his father, the late Mr. Timothy Eaton.

A Great Bargain.—The war map issued by The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal is now ready for distribution. It is certainly a great map and a great help in following war news. It is greatly praised by returned officers and men. The price of The Family Herald is now $1.25 a year, a smaller increase than was expected, and with the map given with each subscription it is cheaper than ever. The map alone would cost as much. The paper and map are given to both new and renewal subscriptions at $1.25 a year, but the map cannot be secured otherwise. The Family Herald is the greatest family and farm paper on the Continent and a great credit to Canada.

DEATH OF REV. J. GAETZ.—Rev. Joseph Gaetz, one of the best known ministers of the Methodist Church in the Maritime Provinces, died very suddenly, on Tuesday night, at Middleton, Annapolis, where he had lived since he retired from the active work of the ministry thirteen years ago. He was born at Mesogodobit Harbor in 1838, entered the ministry in 1861, and has filled as pastor a number of the most important pulpits of the Methodist Church in the Province of Nova Scotia, and has always been very popular and most successful in his work.

ISLAND SOLDIER IN ENGLISH HOSPITAL

Mr. Martin A. Doyle, Newport, Lot 1, has received the following letters regarding his son, Gunner W. Doyle who was wounded sometime ago and who is now getting along nicely in the London Hospital.

Dear Mr. Doyle:—
I saw your son last evening about twenty-four hours after he was wounded. Was then at the C. C. S., and will shortly be sent to the Base. He has one clean cut wound through the heel and several small wounds. When I saw him he was not in very much pain, but a little uncomfortable owing to the wound in the heel.

The hospital was a very nice one and he will receive the best of care. I remain,
Yours respectfully,
STANLEY BAGNALL,
A. O. C., 8th Can Siege Bat.

Canadian Red Cross Society,
14-16 Cockspar Street,
London, S. W. I., 1817.

Dear Madam:—
I beg to inform you that Gunner W. Doyle No. 1261457, 8th Can. Battery C. F. A., who is now at The Bath War Hospital, Court Park, Bath, England has been visited by our Red Cross Representative, who reports that he arrived from France about a week ago, suffering from wounds in his back and foot, caused by a high explosive shell. The wound in his foot is the more severe, although the one in the back gives him more pain. Of course he is confined to bed, but we are glad to say he is doing quite satisfactorily.

He will be visited regularly and reports on his condition will be sent to you from time to time. Should he be in need of any comforts other than those supplied by the Hospital, our Visitor will let us know and we will send the from our Parcels Office. Hoping he will make a good recovery.
Yours very truly,
E. BOVEY.

IN MEMORIAM

HATTIE McLEOD.
Much sympathy has gone out to Mrs. Annie McLeod and family on the death of her daughter Hattie which took place at her home in Hopedale on the 6th inst. Death came as a shock to her many friends who were beguiled by her sweet cheerfulness into thinking that she was going to recover, but the Allwise willed it otherwise and called her to Himself at the early age of nineteen. Leaving to mourn her mother and two sisters and a brother at home, and one sister in Winnipeg and a brother John A., with 5th Siege Battery in France also a host of friends with whom she was a general favourite.

MRS. ALEX. FALCONER

The death occurred in Quincy, Mass., August 11th, of Mrs. Falconer, daughter of the late James McKenzie of Uigg, P. E. Island. The death makes the first break in a family of eleven, the surviving brothers and sisters being as follows: Dan. G. McKenzie, Cardigan, N. McKenzie, Pingree, N.D., Alexander McKenzie, Long Creek, John A. McKenzie, Everett, Mass., Mrs. Ebenezer Campbell, Sumner, N.S., Mrs. Hecator Campbell, Summerside, Mrs. Thomas Brehaut, Montague, Mrs. Malcolm Nicholson, Victoria Cross, Mrs. Neil M. Campbell, Portland, Oregon, Mrs. D. T. Nicholson, Orwell Cove. The bereaved relatives will have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement. The following notice of her death and funeral appears in the Evening Telegram, of Quincy, Mass., of Aug. 13th and 15th respectively.

"Mrs. Margaret J. Falconer, wife of Councillor Alexander Falconer, died Sunday morning at 2.30 at her home, 46 Independence Avenue, age 54 years. Mrs. Falconer underwent a dangerous and delicate operation some twelve years ago and since had at times suffered much pain. She was nevertheless cheerful and resigned and the end came peacefully. The deceased was a native of P. E. Island and came to Quincy about thirty years ago, where she has since resided. Mrs. Falconer had a wide circle of friends and was fond of quiet company. She took a deep and for years an active interest in the work of the United Presbyterian church of which she was a member. She was also a member of the Ladies' Aid Society of that church, although of late years she was unable to do any of the work. She continued to the end a liberal contributor to its funds. She was also a member of the Loyal Ladies' of Clan McGregor, No. 1, and was in deep sympathy with the work of that order.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Margaret J. Falconer, wife of Councillor Alexander Falconer, was held from her late residence, 46 Independence Avenue, yesterday afternoon. Burial was at Mount Molliston. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends, and it was a long line of carriages which followed to the cemetery. Mayor Joseph L. Whitton and City Auditor H. O. Fairbanks represented the city.

The Rev. W. W. Dornan, pastor First Congregational church, Whitman, and a former pastor of the United Presbyterian church of Quincy, where the late Mrs. Falconer worshipped, officiated; and as Mr. Dornan had, in years gone by, been her pastor and intimate friend, he was able to testify to the many amiable and noble minded qualities of the deceased.

A female quartette from the church sang very beautifully some appropriate pieces.

There was a wealth of floral tributes, among which were a very handsome wreath from the city; Joseph L. Whitton, mayor; City Auditor H. O. Fairbanks, a spray; Mr. Falconer's wreath "wife" was very beautiful, as was also a wreath from the Loyal Ladies of Clan McGregor, of which Mrs. Falconer was a member; Rural lodge A.F. & A.M. of which order Mr. Falconer is an active member; spray; City Council, wreath; Mr. Falconer's employers, wreath; Ladies Aid Society of the United Presbyterian church of which the deceased was long a helpful member, wreath; and many other tributes from personal friends. The deceased was a daughter of the late James M. McKenzie, farmer at Uigg, P. E. Island; a man of prominence in his neighborhood, and a devoted member of the Presbyterian church at Orwell Cove. The late Mrs. Falconer was also, in her young days, much in evidence in the work of that church, a devotion she carried with her to Quincy, and for her labors in the Ladies' Aid Society and liberal contributions to the United Presbyterian church, of which she was a member, she will be lovingly remembered.

Mrs. Falconer is survived by her husband, Alexander Falconer, a prominent and successful man in the granite business, a member of Quincy City Council and a highly respected public spirited citizen, four brothers and six sisters. One, Elsie, now Mrs. Campbell, of Portland, Oregon, the proud mother of four sons now serving with the colors, one, James, ranks as first lieutenant and army dental surgeon. John is also on the commissioned list, Donald is in the Engineers corps, and Glenn has just joined the 18th Cavalry.

It was great news to Mrs. Falconer when she heard that her nephews were in line to do their bit in the struggle against the high handed autocracy and military despotism of Germany.

Mrs. Falconer was a subscriber to the Charlottetown Guardian, which she welcomed as a dear friend from home.

This is to certify that fourteen years ago I got the cord of my left wrist nearly severed, and was for about nine months that I had no use of my hand, and tried other Liniments, also doctors, and was receiving no benefit. By a persuasion from a friend I got MINARD'S LINIMENT and used one bottle which completely cured me, and have been using MINARD'S LINIMENT in my family ever since and find it the same as when I first used it, and would never be without it.
