MRS. HENRY A. BURDETT

They are not dead who live
In hearts they leave behind,
In those whom they have blessed,
They live a life again.

In the passing of Mrs. Henry Burdett, Dundas United Church lost one of its faithful members, the Woman's Missionary Society an earnest supporter, the Strathcona Women's Institute a loyal worker, every good cause a friend, and the whole community of Dundas a tried and true neighbor. Death occurred very unexpectedly in a Montreal hospital, on May 28th, after an illness of only two days, and the funeral service was held in the Dundas Church, the church she loved and served so well, on Saturday afternoon, June 1st. Reverend M. D. MacLeod, pastor, spoke words of comfort to the large congregation, taking as his text: "As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness." The church was filled with friends who came to pay their last tribute of respect, and the casket was banked with flowers. Mr. Herb MacLeod sang the beautiful and consoling solo: "No Night There." The other hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd, and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." The bearers at both home and church were neighbors: Albert and Alec Acorn, John A. McLeod, Alec Buchanan, Will Hunter, and Sam Wood. John Hunter drove the hearse.

Mrs. Burdett, the former Janet Smith, daughter of the late Alexander and Janet (Patrick) Smith of New Perth, was born March 28, 1878, and had therefore recently passed her sixty-eighth birthday. After receiving her diploma from Prince of Wales College she taught for several years in Upton, Albion Cross and Cumberland Hill. On November 25, 1902, she was united in marriage with Henry Austin Burdett of Strathcona, who predeceased her in July, 1939.

To them were born the following children: (Their first baby died in early infancy); Esdale, who lives on the homestead; Muriel (Mrs. Lorne Wigginton,) Montague; Hazel, (Mrs. Richard Matheson,) Montreal; Miss Claire at home; and Audrey (Mrs. George Adams) who predeceased her mother in February, 1943. There are two sisters and one brother left to cherish her memory; Mrs. Stuart Morson, Charlottetown; Mrs. John Winsloe, Murray Harbor; and Fulton Smith, New Perth. There are also seven grandchildren, a number of nieces and nephews, cousins, and a host of friends. Mrs. Burdett was a teacher in the Strathcona Sunday School for a number of years while her own children were still small.

She was a true and sincere friend, kindand understanding in her judgment of others. A loving wife and mother, she was devoted to her home and family. Truly it could be said of her "she looked well to the ways of her household, and ate not the bread of idleness. Her children arise up, and call her blessed." She had a retentive mind and was an intelligent conversationalist. Janet Burdett still lives, the fruit of her labors is beyond the corrupting touch of time. She was in very truth a most exemplary Christian, which was evidenced in her life of happy devoted service to her God, her family and her neighbors. Her life was an unbroken testimony of Christian virtues, built upon a resolute and unshakable faith in God as revealed in Jesus Christ and in His written word. Although no longer with us in the flesh, she still speaks of the riches of Divine Grace in the saving power of Christ for all mankind. As the stone dropped in a pond of water sends ripples to the farther shore, so her deeds of love and kindness have set in motion influences for good, that will continue to reverberate through long future years. She goes to her reward in sure and certain hope of the resurrection. "For we know that if the earthly house of this tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

The following were the floral tributes:

Pillow—Esdale, Ruby and Claire.
Wreath—
Hazel, Dick and family.
Muriel, Lorne and family.
George, Irene and Beverley.
Spray—
Marv, Agnes and Fulton.
Walter, Ada and family.
Art and Lennie.
Roberta, Ruth and Norman.
Lesh and Calvin.
Strathcona Women's Institute.

Card of Thanks

The family of the late Mrs. Henry Burdett expresses sincere thanks to all friends who sent messages of sympathy and to all neighbors who helped in many ways during their recent sore bereavement. 6-13-1i.

"RENEGADES" FILM TECHNICOLOR HIT

Filmed in glorious Technicolor, Columbia Pictures' "Renegades," coming today to the Prince Edward Theatre, is the red-blooded story of a red-headed girl . . . riding with the Dembrows . . . the West's most notorious outlaw band! A dangerous woman . . . desperate men . . . defying bullet and noose for love and loot . . . breaking every law of the West . . . to break every record for excitement!

Evelyn Keyes, Willard Parker, Larry Parks and Edgar Buchanan have the key roles in the production which also features Jim Bannon, Forrest Tucker, Ludwig Donath, Frank Sully and Willard Robertson. George Sherman directed.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our Grandfather who died June 13th, 1945.

We are thinking of one who left us
Just one long year ago
And we long for that smile and hand clasp,
Of he who loved us so.
But we lift our hearts to the Saviour,
Who passed through this way before,
He conquered death and prepared us
A place forever more.

Loving Grand-daughters Joyce and Audrey Reeves.

In Memoriam

MRS. DAMIEN TRAINOR

A sad gloom was cast over the community of Tyrone when it was learned that Mrs. Damien Trainor had passed away at the Provincial Sanatorium.

On April 24th, when awakening nature sends forth her choicest gift of bud and flower, to the skies; the spirit of her as sweet and perfect as they passed to the hands of its God and Maker.

Death is always sad, but is especially so, when one full of bright hopes and prospects for the future is called away in the very bloom of youth. Gertie was but twenty-four but by her personal loveliness and cheerful disposition had made a host of friends, who will long cherish her memory.

The funeral service at St. Ann's Church, whose portals opened about two years previously to welcome her as a charming winsome bride, was conducted by the pastor, Rev. L. J. Ayers who also officiated at the grave.

The pall bearers were Maurice Costello, Joseph Costello, Linus Trainor, Emmett McCloskey, Robert Costello and Thomas McQuaid.

She leaves to mourn besides her heart-broken husband, a sorrowing mother, Mrs. Ephraim Costello, two brothers Maurice and Joseph, Charlottetown, and five sisters, Mrs. Maurice McDonald, Kelly's Cross; Mrs. Pierce Happeny, Roxbury, Mass.; Mrs. John McManus, Boyshaw; Mrs. Edward Roache, Chelsea, Mass., and Mrs. Duffy, Boston, Mass.

Many spiritual and floral offerings spoke their mute words of praise and sympathy as also the very large funeral cortege.

STUDY CLUB CLOSES — On Monday afternoon, May 20th, the teachers of Mt. Stewart and vicinity held their final Study Club meeting of the school year. There were eleven members in attendance. Mr. Henry Clark presided at the meeting. Speakers at the meeting included: Miss J. Estelle Haynes, who spoke on nutrition; Mr. L. W. Shaw, on school sanitation. Acting-supervisor Mr R. Hazen Wigmore reviewed the Grade VIII standardized tests of the previous year, and Mr. Edward McPhail spoke on school attendance. Many questions on the rural teachers' problems were discussed. The meeting closed with the National Anthem

WINSLOE SOUTH MISSION BAND—The monthly meeting for May of Winsloe South Mission Band was opened by singing the hymn, "When He Cometh". Miss Beatrice Jenkins read the Scripture lesson. An instructive story, "Dinner for Marie and Cecil" was read by Miss Roma Rodd. A poem "Happy Easter" was read by Marjorie Crawford. Bible stories were read by Louise Gillis. The devotional part of the meeting was closed by singing, "What A Friend We Have In Jesus". The roll call for the next meeting is to be answered by a verse of Scripture having the word "Christ" in it. The thank offering collection amounted to three dollars and thirty-one cents. Betty Horne and Wayne Gillespie were appointed on the program committee for the following month. After two very interesting contests, the meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

What Does "Largest" Mean?

WORLD'S largest-selling brand of evaporated milk! Canada's largest! There are many brands of evaporated milk — but of them all, more homemakers and mothers consistently buy Carnation than any other brand. That's a great tribute to a great product!

Of course it isn't an accident. It is the result of a long record of dependable quality, carefully maintained . . . of doctors finding Carnation a fine food for bottle-fed babies; of mothers seeing children thrive on Carnation as a drinking milk; of whole families enjoying milk-rich dishes made with Carnation. For drinking or eating or "creaming"—you'll find that Carnation will become your favorite milk.
