Address And Presentation

On Thursday evening, August 5th, friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Murphy, Vernon, to bid farewell to Harold Fraser, one of the many young men of this district to answer the call of his country. Mr. James Murphy in genial manner called the house to order an appropriate address wis read by Mrs. Frank Boudreau, president of the Victory Club. Miss Sarah Mill presented Harold with a beautiful rosary from the Victory Club and a purse of money from his friends. Harold in a few well chosen words thanked the people for their kindness. After a good bounce and the singing "For he is a jolly Good Fellow," lunch was served and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Following is the address:

Dear Harold:

It is with mingled feelings of pleasure and of pain that we gather here tonight pleasure at having you in our midst again, pain, on learning of your possible departure in the near future for some foreign shore.

During the many years of your association with us as student, as teacher, and as friend, you have by your sterling qualities so endeared yourself to us that it is not easy to see you go. But we take consolation in the knowledge that wherever you may go or whatever tasks you may have to perform, you will always do your duty bearing in mind the old motto:

"Honor and shame from no conditions rise,
Act well your part, there all the honor lies."

We ask you now to accept this small gift in the spirit in which it is offered, not for its intrinsic value nor for its monetery worth but as a token of our esteem, and in bidding you God-speed we assure you that we shall not forget you when praying for the day to come soon, when this cruel war will be over and soldiers all, can once more return to their loved ones and their homes.—Farewell.

Canada To Play Part In Restocking Farms Of Europe

By ALAN RANDAL
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

LONDON, Aug. 21—(CP)—Canada, in common with the rest of the Dominions and the United States, is to have a hand in restocking Europe's farms when the time of reconstruction and rehabilitation comes.

The demand will be for "utility" cattle, that is cattle capable of yielding milk while performing farm haulage tasks. Nearly 1,000,000 of them will be needed by Europe in the first two years after the war, according to a report of the inter-Allied post-war requirements committee.

Transportation of these cattle from the United States, the Dominions and Argentina, will necessitate the conversion of from 200 to 400 vessels into cattle boats.

As yet the British Government has not disclosed any detailed post-war policy for British agriculture and one of the main reasons for this is said to be the uncertainty as to the real food and farming position in occupied Europe and the enemy countries.

That is a situation that is ever changing.

The rehabilitation scheme for Europe falls into two sections. The first would aim at restoring the agriculture of the occupied countries to its pre-war level and would begin at the moment a country is freed from the enemy. The full task, say the planners, will need at least six years.

Reliable estimates and figures submitted by German occupied or dominated countries show that since the start of the war they have lost, through German requisitions and plague, 11,000,000 cattle, 3,000,000 horses, 12,000,000 pigs, 11,000,000 sheep and that three-quarters of the poultry stocks have gone.

The first task will be to restore the lost animal population and British farmers, it is anticipated, will be asked to provide 500 pedigree bulls to help the breeding stock.

The sympathy of this vicinity is extended to Mr. and Mrs. John Laybolt, in the death of their granddaughter last week at the age of three years. The little tot had eaten a number of green apples while the older members were absent. Medical aid was called from Mount Stewart, and the child rushed to the hospital but to no avail and she passed away. B.

FARSIGHTED householders are seeing the urgent need of preparing their homes now against next winter's coal shortage.

They are not waiting until the fall to do this important job—they are acting now!

HEATING SYSTEMS MUST BE EFFICIENT: HOMES SHOULD BE ADEQUATELY INSULATED.

Here are some jobs you should start doing NOW!

1 Have your entire heating system inspected. Order necessary repairs.

2 Have your furnace thoroughly cleaned by a competent man. Insulate furnace and pipes where necessary.

3 Be sure that you have sufficient storm windows and that all windows and doors fit tightly. Have cracks in walls repaired. Weatherstrip wherever it is necessary. Consider seriously the insulation of ceiling and walls.

Many homes waste as much as 60% of their fuel through inefficient heating equipment, inadequate insulation and other heat losses.

Winter is just around the corner. Start preparing your home NOW!

THE DEPARTMENT OF MUNITIONS AND SUPPLY
HON. C. D. HOWE, Minister

Specially Trained Troops At Kiska

QUEBEC, Aug. 22—(CP)—Specially trained forces representing all parts of the Dominion and led by a war-seasoned group of officers headed by Brig. Harry Wickwire Foster, 41, of Halifax and Picton, Ont., provided Canada's participation with Americans in the occupation of Kiska.

This was revealed by Prime Minister Mackenzie King in an address broadcast last night over the National network of the Canadian broadcasting corporation.

He said participation by Canada in the Kiska operation was a further expression "of Canada's determination to do her full part until the military power of Japan, as well as of Germany, is finally destroyed."

Earlier in the day Mr. King, in a joint statement with President Roosevelt from the citadel headquarters of the Churchill-Roosevelt war conference, announced that an American task force partly made up of Canadians had made a bloodless conquest of Kiska, last Japanese held outpost on American soil.

The units, along with their commanding officers whose names were not given by Mr. King in his talk but announced in a separate statement, were as follows:—

Canadian Fusiliers of London, Ont., Lt.-Col. Russell Hilton Beattie, M.C., 48, London, veteran of The First Great War where he was wounded and gassed.

Winnipeg Grenadiers, Lt.-Col. J. A. Wilson, Winnipeg, who recently returned from service overseas to command the newly-formed Grenadiers after the original battalion was taken by the Japanese with the British force at Hong Kong.

Rocky Mountain Rangers, an interior British Columbia Regiment, Lt.-Col. D.B. Holman, M.C., 48, native of Saint John, N.B., whose wife lives at Salmon Arm, B.C.

Le Regiment De Hull (Que.), Lt.-Col. Dollard Menard, D.S.O., 30, Quebec, a permanent force officer since 1935, veteran of Northwest India Frontier actions and of the action at Dieppe a year ago when he won the Distinguished service order.

A company of the Saint John (N.B.) Fusiliers, Maj. G.P. Murphy, 27, of Saint John where his wife now lives, a veteran of overseas service in this war with a machine-gun unit.

The 24th Field Regiment of the Royal Canadian Artillery, Lt.-Col. R.P. Drummond, 50, native of Spencerville, Ont., whose wife lives at (6874 Sherbrooke W.) Montreal.

The 46th Light Anti-Aircraft battery, Maj. J.A. Macdonald, 51, of Burlington, Ont.

The 24th Field Company of the Royal Canadian Engineers, Maj. D. H. Rochester, 27, a Toronto Engineer in civil life.

The 25th Field Ambulance of the Royal Canadian Medical Corps, Lt.-Col. T.M. Brown, 40, of Calgary and Ottawa who served with the 8th Field Ambulance overseas in this war.

In addition, the Canadian Kiska force included detachments from the ordnance, army service, Provost, pay and postal Corps.

Brig. Foster is a son of Major.-Gen. G.L. Foster, who was overseas director of Medical forces in the Canadian army during The First Great War.

WOOLEN DRESSES ARE VERSATILE

NEW YORK, Aug. —Woolen dresses are versatile, some of the wool and rayon jersey mixtures adaptable to dressing up for date, or down for class. Velveteen still is the requested "tea dress." Chesterfield coats are "best sellers." Wool is combined with velvet and sequins for important hour dresses —a team of fabrics rivaled only by satin and crepe.

BRITISH OFFICER AGAIN DECORATED

NEW DELHI, Aug. 23 — (CP)— Brigadier Charles Wingate, leader of the expedition which penetrated many miles behind the Japanese lines into Burma early this year, has been awarded a second bar to the Distinguished Service Order.

Brigadier Wingate, 40, formed a "ghost "army which he led for 1,000 miles around the Japanese positions. His men destroyed bridges, railways and ammunition dumps and collected valuable information.
