It has the best finish, is strongly and handsomely made, has clearest and most natural reproduction, will play longest without winding, has entirely noiseless and powerful motor, plays the longest record of any machine (4 1-2 minutes) and is being constantly improved by the inventor, Thomas A. Edison.

Rev Mr Sinclair of Springville, and his brother, Rev Mr Sinclair of Prince Edward Island, were in town on Friday. The family resemblance between the two is striking. The latter is the father of Rev Dr Sinclair, now pastor of a church in Winnipeg who will be remembered as the Reverend gentleman to whom the late New St Andrew's congregation extended a call which he declined. He afterwards was sent to Dawson City for a year from which he was called back to Winnipeg.—New Glasgow Chronicle.

James Callaghan, Merchant Tailor, City, has purchased the Douse property, now occupied by himself, on Queen Street, from Archibald McLean, for $2,300.00. Mr. Callaghan is receiving many congratulation for his new venture, and it is estimated, the property will be worth in the vicinity of $5,000.00 within a few years. Mr. McLean owned the property only a few months and during that short period it advanced in price, it is said, over $350.00. Mr. Callaghan is quite jubilant over the transaction and within a few hours after the deed was made over, he was offered a handsome bonus on his speculation.

A correspondent writes The Guardian that he has been much interested in the reports re the tussock caterpillar and gives the following as his own experience with the pest which he came upon, while visiting in the country, some six years ago. After a very heavy rain he went out into his friend's orchard, about nine o'clock in the morning, and on a bend in one of the big apple trees found thousands of tussock caterpillars, huddled together, measuring about one foot wide and a half a yard long. Greatly exercised he wondered what he could do to destroy them and deciding promptly entered the house, secured a kettle of boiling water and destroyed every one of them by pouring the scalding water over the effected part. The correspondent goes on to say that if owners will watch their trees and do as above or burn every closed leaf they find the danger will be readily overcome.

Messrs. Prowse Bros. & Co. and James Paton & Co., of Charlottetown and R.T.Holman Ltd and Sinclair & Stewart of Summerside, having generously offered to contribute $10 each for special prizes to patrons of factories in connection with the P. E. Island Dairy Association under the following conditions: Season from June 1st to October 31st next inclusive. Prizes for each county—1st $6; 2nd $5; 3rd $4; 4th $3 and 5th, $2. Competition open to patrons of cheese factories and creameries in Queens and Prince Counties. Prizes to be awarded for the largest quantity of butter-fat per acre of land under cultivation. Competing patrons must have at least twenty acres of land under cultivation. Land under cultivation will include all the land actually under tillage from year to year and producing any kind of field crops, hay, pasturage, &c. Orchards or garden land not producing field crops are not to be included. Competitors for these special prizes must send in their names to the undersigned by 1st September next. Only two entries have yet been secured.

Miss Winnie McLeod, leaves on Monday on return to Chicago after a pleasant visit to her parents John and Mrs McLeod, Prince Street.

Miss Louise Cairns, who recently resigned her position as teacher in Prince Street School to take a similar position in Manitoba, left yesterday morning for Winnipeg.

Misses Florence Clarke and Gertude Hunter, St. John, who have been visiting Mrs. F. N. McKee, Dorchester St. were passengers by the Western train this morning to Freetown, where they will visit Miss Clarke's grandmother before returning home.

Everyone should try and attend the play in the Opera House on Monday night, September 5th. The best of local actors and actresses are going to excel themselves in the production of one of the best plays seen here for a long while—a play full of dramatic scenes and heart interest.

A quiet home wedding was celebrated yesterday morning when Miss Louise Mellish, daughter of J. T. and Mrs Mellish, City, became the bride of Calvin McCallum, of the law firm of Johnson & McCallum. Rev. T. F. Fullerton performed the ceremony after which the young couple left on a morning train. They will reside in the Canadian West. The Guardian extends congratulations.

Rev. Dr. Chapman of Amherst, N. S., occupied the pulpit of the First Methodist Church in this City at both morning and evening services last Sunday. His sermons on both occasions were listened to with close attention and with profit. His tall, stately, and dignified figure in the pulpit reminds one of the graceful form of the late Dr. Dobson who was so much beloved by the people of the First Church. Dr. Chapman will preach in the First Church at both morning and evening services next Sunday. While in the city he is the guest of the Misses Stamper, 252 Grafton St.
