NEW ZEALAND PLANS BIG HISTORY OF WAR
AUCKLAND, N. Z., Sept. 15—(CP)—New Zealand's histories of the Second Great War will require about 20 volumes, apart from unit histories, and will take seven to ten years to write, according to the editor-in-chief, Maj.-Gen. H. K. Kippenberger. The project has been divided into four sections. As early as possible there will be published a series of volumes containing the relevant documents and messages of some of the critical phases of the Dominion's part in the war. The second phase will be the publication of a popular history, simply written, covering the whole field and complete with photographs, maps, diagrams and drawings. The third section will be the official history proper, which will deal with the New Zealand armed services overseas and at home.

The following letter from a well-known Massachusetts housewife is typical of those received from Cystex users all over the world: "It was so laid up with pains in my back, legs and arms that I was miserable. Finally I decided to try your Cystex. In a couple of weeks I was like a new person, the pains had left and I could walk anywhere. My husband had pains in his arms, took Cystex and the pains left." To save what Cystex may do to bring you joyous help from the pains and distress of Kidney and Bladder troubles, get Cystex from your druggist and give it a fair trial with the positive understanding that if you are not satisfied for any reason, you get your money back on return of empty package.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

DEAR MISS DIX: I am the father of three children who are in my care, as I am divorced from their mother. I am in love with a girl who says she loves me, but she seems to be afraid of the children. I don't wonder at that. I know that a girl is taking a big chance who marries a man with children.
What should we do?
P. C.
ANSWER: It depends upon how old and mature the girl is and, most of all, upon how much sense she has. It takes a lot of intelligence and patience to deal with even one's own children where there is the bond of mother love to compensate for all the trouble youngsters give, and I am afraid that no young girl has that.
Also, I am afraid that if you married this young girl she would make you very unhappy if you saw her mistreating your helpless little ones. Certainly they have had bad luck in having a mother who deserted them. It would be too much for them had a cruel stepmother. Your position forces you to be more careful in selecting a wife than you would be if you did not have the children.
DEAR DOROTHY DIX: The boy I go with told me that I was not a girl to take seriously. What does that mean?
B. C.
ANSWER: Well, it might mean either one of two things. One is that he thinks you are one of the girls who is frivolous and just in for a good time and who has no real purpose in life, except to amuse herself.
The other meaning may be that he is just serving notice on you that he is having a good time dancing around with you, and that his attentions are without any intentions.

AUTUMN DAYS

Oh the deathly stillness,
Of an Autumn day,
All nature seems a-saying,
Life is fading fast away.
The hollyhock so stately stood,
Against the garden wall,
Now realize that time is short,
The she too soon must fall.
The golden glow is putting too,
Her head is bowing down,
What once was just like purest gold,
Is now just pistils brown,
And so it is with each of us,
For our Autumn days must come,
We'd how our heads to a higher will,
And say "Thy will be Done."

BOGNOR REGIS, England — A ball bowled by a slow bowler killed a swallow during a cricket match between Middleton Sports Club and South Hamstead.
RICHMOND, Surrey, England — When a bogus V. C. was sentenced to six months' imprisonment for claiming to be "Robert Ryder, V. C.," the real hero was in the courtroom.

HOME FRONT APPEAL

The severe shortage of newspaper paper that plagued the nation's newspapers during the war is still almost as bad as ever, but pulp mills are making frantic efforts to relieve the deficit. Typical of what's going on is the photo above, showing a huge stockpile of paper pulp logs at Hull in the Gatineau River district of Quebec, being wetted down to lessen fire hazard. Before the war, three out of every eight newspapers in the world were printed on Canadian paper.

Vancouver Artists Spur Modern Home Design

Photos by Jack Long
"Homes—not just houses!" is the cry of Vancouver's "Art In Living" group of artists, looking forward to the estimated 500,000 Canadian homes to be built in the next five years. The Group, made up of students, graduates and teachers from Vancouver School of Arts, believe this can be accomplished through six basic elements of design: light, view, space, shape, color and surface. Drawings for community centres have been studied by Group leader Fred Amess and secretary Jean Cooper (upper left) on vacant land in suburban Vancouver. Group is now busy with its Autumn architectural display, a work which won such popularity when first exhibited in the Vancouver Art Gallery that it is now an annual event. From miniatures built in basement workshop Jack Newman (centre) aided by Ron Hamilton and Joyce Butler designs additions to own home. Below, Bert Binning's bright, airy home, built at cost of only $5,000, combining all six architectural elements stressed by Group, is one of Canada's most discussed examples of modern housing.
