THE TRIALS OF A NEWSPAPER MAN.

Nobody but a newspaper man who has actively played the game can realize how many times the reporter hears the request, "Please keep this out of the paper," says the Galveston News.

It may come from a young fellow who has been out for a time and wound up with his name upon the blotter at the police station; it may come from a mother whose daughter has committed suicide, it may come from a wife whose husband has defaulted; it may come from the lady who captured the booby prize at a card party; or it may come from a young father whose first born swallowed a button and for a time alarmed the neighborgood.

Any one of the thousand unceasing comedies or tragedies of life may serve as a cause for the request, but be it grave or gay, the reporter must listen to it many times each week.

And generally the reporter must decline, and almost as certainly as he does he is misunderstood. He is considered a heartless brute, a most callous and indifferent young man, hardened to the world and devoid of the principles of common humanity.

And he knows too, that a paper never goes to press that many fluttering hearts do not dread the crying of the sheets upon the streets, that many trembling hands will not grasp the paper, fearing and dreading to read that which they know must be there. One man's head may be bowed upon the story of his financial shame and of the imprisonment and disgrace which confronts him. Another may scan with ashen drawn face the headlines which proclaim his political graft to the world. A mother's tears may fall upon the pitiless lines which depict her daughter's degradation. Another daughter may steal from a scene of music and glitter and press her painted cheek upon the simple obituary notice of her aged mother.

The man who hung from the gallows until he was dead, paying a just penalty for a bloody crime, you reader, who scanned the story at the table, did you pause to reflect that the murderer probably had a father and a mother somewhere or brothers and sisters and may be a wife and children? Don't you suppose their hearts turned sick as they cowered beneath the bold lash of the head lines? Was the story kept out of the papers because of this?

The expose you saw in the paper of the statesman high in national affairs who was found to be wallowing in corruption. Don't you suppose his wife and daughter, who had adorned the society circles in the capital would have given their life to have suppressed the news?

Pick up the paper some day and as you read the various lines try to consider yourself the principal character in each. Decide how many of them you would have preferred the reporter to "Please keep out of the paper." Then perhaps you may reach the understanding of the gatherer of news. You may comprehend that he is a human being capable of pity and with a distinct realization that the old world is chock full of both tears and smiles and puppets who laugh or cry as the strings are pulled and he himself as powerless a puppet as the any of them.

AFTER SUFFERING TEN YEARS

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

MARLTON, N.J.—I feel that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has given me new life. I suffered for ten years with serious female troubles, inflammation, ulceration, indigestion, nervousness, and could not sleep. Doctors gave me up, as they said my troubles were chronic. I was in despair, and did not care whether I lived or died, when I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; so I began to take it, and am well again and relieved of all my suffering."—MRS. GEORGE JORDY, Box 40, Marlton, N.J.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaints, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

THE HOME PHYSICIAN

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills Cure Most of the Family's Ills.

This Little Box is Mother's Stand-by.

Perhaps if the children, and the "grown-ups" too, always ate exactly the right quantities of exactly the right things, at just the proper times, and in every other way obeyed the rules of health, there would be no sickness in the family, and no need of medicine.

But they never have and probably never will, so in every family there are sure to be more or less frequent attacks of sick headache, biliousness, indigestion, constipation, and kidney and liver troubles, and occasionally some one is "sick in bed".

It is worth a good deal to the mother, then, to have on hand that perfectly safe and reliable remedy for these ills —

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills.

They invigorate those organs which cleanse the body of waste and impurities, regulating the bowels, stimulating the kidneys and opening the pores of the skin.

Thus Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills cure the common ailments and keep the family healthy. This they have been doing for over half a century in every part of the world.

HIS MAJESTY INSTITUTES "KING'S POLICE MEDAL."

An important and interesting despatch from Downing Street appears in the current issue of the British Columbia Gazette, the subject treated being the institution by His Majesty of "the King's Police Medal," a decoration to be awarded to members of the constabulary forces and fire brigades throughout His Majesty's dominions, colonies and protected territories, and for which all members of recognized British police forces and fire brigades are eligable, provided that the services for which they are recommended satisfy the conditions of the regulations, which are, briefly, as follows:

(a) Conspicuous gallantry in saving life and property, or in preventing crime or arresting criminals: the risks incurred to be estimated with due regard to the obligations and duties of the officer concerned:

(b) A specially distinguished record in administrative or detective service:

(c) Success in organizing police forces or fire brigades or departments, or in maintaining their organization under special difficulties:

(d) Special services in dealing with serious or widespread outbreaks of crime or public disorder, or of fire:

(e) Valuable political and secret services:

(f) Special services to royalty and heads of states:

(g) Prolonged service; but only when distinguished by very exceptional ability and merit.

The number of medals to be awarded for service in His Majesty's Dominions Beyond the Seas is not to exceed thirty in any one year. There will be an annual award of this medal, and any recommendations which Colonial Ministers may wish to make should reach Downing Street by the 30th September in each year. It is essential that every such recommendation should specify the particular act of gallantry or special service, in respect of which the candidate is recommended.

The medal is to be designated and styled "The King's Police Medal," and is "to consist of a circular Medal of silver with Our Effigy on the obverse, and on the reverse a design emblematic of Protection from dangers and shall bear on the rim the name of the person to whom it may be awarded suspended on the left breast, the riband—an inch and three quarters in width—being of dark blue, with a narrow silver stripe on either side. Additional acts of gallantry performed by those who may have previously won the King's Police Medal will be rewarded with additional bars.

J. H. BELL,

"Caught Cold."

Had a Distressing, Tickling Sensation In The Throat.

Mr Albert MacPhee, Chignecto Mines, N.S., writes: "In Oct., 1908, I caught cold by working in water, and had a very bad cough and that distressing, tickling sensation in my throat so that I could not sleep at night, and my lungs were so very sore I had to give up work. Our doctor gave me medicine but it did me no good so I got a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and by the time I had used two bottles I was entirely cured. I am always recommending it to my friends."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup combines the potent healing virtues of the Norway pine tree with other absorbent, expectorant and soothing medicines of recognized worth and is absolutely harmless, prompt and safe for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Croup, Sore Throat, Pain or Tightness in the Chest and all Throat and Lung Troubles.

There are many imitations of "Dr Wood's" so be sure and get the genuine when you ask for it.

Put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25 cents. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co, Limited, Toronto. Ont.

AUCTION SALE —OF— Business Stand

I am instructed by Patrick Duff, to sell by auction his property situated on the corner of Cumberland and Sydney Streets on at 12 o'clock noon. It comprises a dwelling house and store combined. There is also warehouse and stable. This is a new dwelling house which has only been built a short time. It has a stone wall with frost-proof cellar and is heated all through with furnace. The store is also fitted out with all conveniences found in an up-to-date grocery and provision store. As Mr. Duffy had this building built for his own use he spared no expense in having everything first-class, and, as he has decided to change his occupation of business, he has decided to have this property sold, with or without stock of groceries. It is close to the new Railway Station and Hillsboro Bridge, making it in all an ideal place for any person wishing to start in the grocery and provision trade.
