ABOUT twenty boys started out in the Hare and Hound chase Saturday afternoon. The Hares after being out an hour and a quarter and taking the Hounds for an eight mile run, arrived home three minutes ahead of the leading Hounds. G. Stanaway. G. Toombs, H, Smith, J. Lowe were the first of the Hounds home. All the boys expressed themselves very much pleased with the run. Something similar will be held for the boys next Saturday.

THE funeral of Mrs. Florence A. wife of John R, Richards, was held Monday afternoon. The services were very largly attended, many of the employees of Mr Richards, as well as neighbors and friends and members of George L. Gill Rebekah lodge and King's Daughters being present to pay their last token of tribute to her who in life they knew and loved so well. During the services the Granite City quartette sang "Shall we meet beyond the river," "Nearer my God to thee," and "Christians good night." After the services at the home, the remains were taken to Mt. Wollaston cemetery where the burial service of George L. Gill, Rebekah lodge was rendered by officers of the lodge. The bearers were relatives of the deceased and Mr. Richards. There was a profusion of beautiful flowers. The deceased was a daughter of the late George B. Lowe and niece of Messrs Henry and Samuel Lowe. She had many friends in the city who loved her for her sterling qualities, and who greatly regret her early demise.

THE marriage took place at the bride's home in Canoe Cove, last Wednesday evening of Mass Annie Inman and Hugh McPhee of the same place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James McDougall in the presence of the many relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride was handsomely attired in cream silk luster, trimmed with brussels point lace. She wore a veil held in place by a coronet of white rose buds and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. She was attended by her sister Miss Janie Inman while Mr. James Darrach supported the groom. After the ceremony the guests all repaired to the dining-room, where a bountiful repast awaited them. During the evening excellent music was furnished which was heartily enjoyed by those present. The young couple received a number of elegant and costly presents, which showed the esteem in which they were held. All left, wishing the newly wedded couple a happy and prosperous future.—Com.

The "Moormac" Dollar Shirt

For many a moon we've been trying to find the ideal "dollar shirt. We figured what was required and placed our ideas before many makers—After examining and rejecting sample after sample the very thing came up at last. The body is of fine strong cotton, the bosom and bands are of very excellent Irish linen, the style is the popular short bosom. Cushion button hole—re-inforced seams—correct cut and thoroughly honest work in every stitch. Open front or open back—White only.

We want you to compare this shirt with the best $1.25 shirt you ever saw—and we're sure if the "Moormac" cost the same you'd choose it.

$1.00 dollar shirt "Moormac" dollar shirt $1.00
