ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL DAY'S RACING AT EXHIBITION TRACK

The Winners Yesterday Were Major Aubrey, Mac Aubrey and Igo—Drivers of Winning Horses Presented With Gold Pieces. Caretakers Also Remembered. This Feature of the Exhibition Favorably Commented on.

The weather was excellent for racing on the third and final day of the Exhibition races held yesterday. About 1500 spectators were in attendance and saw some very good racing, particularly in the 2:23 Class Trot and the 2:17 Mixed.

The first race called was the 2:27 Class Pace with six starters. It took eight scores to get them away due to a couple of bad actors in the bunch. When they finally got away Major Aubrey had the best of it, getting away right on high. His driver continued urging him with a view to making the fastest heat of the meeting and almost succeeded, being only one-half second behind the time made in the Free-For-All by Lambert Todd and Harry Putnam. Bingen Aubrey was the only horse that could give Major Aubrey any kind of an argument in the bunch. He got a rather bad start but paced a good mile. Queen Helen was the best of the rest of them, finishing about four lengths back of Bingen Aubrey. Gordon Harvester was distanced through a bad break which he did not recover from.

Second Heat. This was another rather uninteresting heat due to the superior speed of Major Aubrey, who tore away very fast and stepped the mile in exactly the same time as his first mile. Bingen was considerably closer to him at the finish but still quite a bit behind. Queen Helen who had finished third in the preceding heat was again third. Miss Alto was distanced, also Jimmy Direct.

Third Heat. This heat was similar to the first two, Major Aubrey rushing away from Bingen Aubrey and continuing to hold a big lead to the finish. Queen Helen again third. 2:23 Class Trot Stake. The field in this class was narrowed down to four starters. They got away on the second score down with The Pup at the pole and Igo in second position. Igo made a break just after the word was given and Worthy Louise dropped in behind The Pup, Captain Jackson third and Igo was still on the break when they rounded into the back stretch. Worthy Louise continued trailing The Pup until the three-quarter pole when she was pulled out and a desperate fight took place between the two starters until the distance stand was reached, eighty yards from the wire, when The Pup made a break and Worthy Louise went on to win the heat. Igo, whose break had put him out of it, went an easy mile. Captain Jackson finishing third.

Second Heat. They got away on the third score with Worthy Louise leading until the three-quarter pole when she was pulled out and got on even terms with Igo. Worthy Louise and she trotted in the wire until the home stretch was reached when The Pup forged ahead followed by Igo, Worthy Louise being third. An exciting race took place to the wire, Igo finally besting The Pup by a head. It was a great finish.

Third Heat. Igo got away nicely at the pole and was endeavoring to carry him fast around the turn in order to make a break. Falling in that The Pup dropped in behind Igo, Worthy Louise behind The Pup. They continued in this fashion until the three-quarter pole when The Pup pulled out and got on even terms with Igo. Worthy Louise and she trotted in the wire until the home stretch was reached when The Pup forged ahead followed by Igo, Worthy Louise being third. An exciting race took place to the wire, Igo finally besting The Pup by a head. It was a great finish.

2:17 Class Mixed. This race had to the first two, Major Aubrey rushing away from Bingen Aubrey and continuing to hold a big lead to the finish. Queen Helen again third. 2:23 Class Trot Stake. The field in this class was narrowed down to four starters. They got away on the second score down with The Pup at the pole and Igo in second position. Igo made a break just after the word was given and Worthy Louise dropped in behind The Pup, Captain Jackson third and Igo was still on the break when they rounded into the back stretch. Igo, whose break had put him out of it, went an easy mile. Captain Jackson finishing third.

The final heat of the 2:17 Mixed, the owners and drivers of the winning horses and caretakers of the horses making the fastest time during the meeting were called to the Judges' stand where the owners were presented with beautiful memento rosette ribbons. The owners of the winners were as follows: 2:27 Trot, C. W. McKenzie, Truro, N. S., with Johnny Miles. 2:15 Trot, Colonel D. A. MacKinnon, Charlottetown, P. E. I., with Fred Medium. 2:22 Pace, C. W. McKenzie, Truro, N. S., with Captain Mack. 2:20 Trot, C. W. McKenzie, Truro, N. S., with Katherine Claude. Free-For-All Trot and Pace, C. W. McKenzie, Truro, N. S., with Lambert Todd. 2:30 Trot and Pace, Willard Kelly, Southport, P. E. I., with Al Worthy. 2:27 Pace, McNeill & Bunlain, Charlottetown, P. E. I., with Major Aubrey. 2:23 Trot, Reed & Foss, Fort Fairfield, Maine, with Igo. 2:17 Mixed, Vic Douse, Woodstock, N. B., with Mac Aubrey. The twenty dollars in gold for the leading driver was presented to Johnny Conroy, a Prince Edward Island boy, who is greatly liked in the harness world. He had quite a strong lead in points. Johnny also collected ten dollar gold pieces for driving the winners Igo, Lambert Todd, Katherine Claude and Captain Mack. Driver George ten dollar gold piece for driving Johnny Miles. W. Kelly a ten dollar gold piece for driving Al Worthy. Well, McNeill a ten dollar gold piece for driving Major Aubrey, Colonel MacKinnon a ten dollar gold piece for driving Fred Medium, Vic Douse a ten dollar gold piece for driving Mac Aubrey, Johnny Conroy and Tom Raymond each received a ten dollar gold piece for driving the fastest heat during the meeting. Lambert Todd and Harry Putnam pacing a dead heat in 2:10 1-2. Colonel MacKinnon received the ten dollar gold piece for driving the fastest heat during the meeting in 2:11 1-2. Carl Miller and Sam McComb each received a five dollar gold piece as caretakers of Lambert Todd and Harry Putnam, and Walter Ferguson a five dollar gold piece as caretaker of Fred Medium.

All the owners speak very highly of this feature of the Provincial Exhibition races. It is something that is not done elsewhere but is highly appreciated and a great means of bringing horses here that would not otherwise come. They also expressed themselves as more than pleased with the way the meeting was conducted, the excellent track and all the kindness and courtesy shown them by the officials and the public. Their opinion of Charlottetown is a mighty good place to come to and race and that is the way we want to treat the horsemen from abroad, send them away feeling that they want to come back again.

To Starter Frank J. Power a great deal of credit must be given for the success of the harness races. In all his lifetime we do not think he made better starting. Scoring was at a minimum and only when bad actors had to be taken care of were there very many scores. The Judges, J. W. Grant of New Glasgow, Walter E. Brown of Charlottetown, and Fred E. J. Wright of Summerside, have handled the judging for several years. They are men of integrity and also know the racing game. The horsemen all have the greatest confidence in the stand and its decision. The management were certainly lucky in having these gentlemen. The timers, L. B. McMillan, Chief Ranaghan and E. F. Acorn were accurate and absolutely fair. Every winner received the exact time he made, no more, no less. The patrolling was in the hands of Hugh Walker and J. Brown, who had his hands full as the three heat plan calls for a lot of figuring. Mr. Brown had everything ready so that the pay checks were delivered to the horsemen immediately after the racing was over, another new feature.

Outside clerk of the course was handled by Mr. J. A. McDonald, whose clear, ringing voice brought the horses out at the proper moment. The Colin McKenzie stable of Truro, was the largest money winner of the meeting, no less than three races falling to their prowess. No other stable won more than one race so that the remaining money was pretty well divided. The advance in the date of the Exhibition was, we think, an excellent move and the three heat plan proved most popular and will no doubt be continued.

STATISTICS OF THE MEETING

The fastest heats trotted during the meeting was the first heat of the 2:15 Trot, when Fred Medium trotted in 2:11 1-2, one-quarter of a second slower than the track record of 2:11 1-4. The fastest heat paced during the meeting was equally merited by Harry Putnam and Lambert Todd in the Free-For-All Pace, each horse pacing in 2:10 1-2, in their dead heat. The track record pacing is 2:08 1-4, made by John R. Braden in 1923. The three heats paced in the Free-For-All Trot and Pace averaged 2:10 3-4 and the fastest three heats ever paced in a race in this province. The three heats trotted in the 2:15 Trot are also the fastest three heats ever trotted in this province. There were twelve heats trotted during the meeting, the fastest being 2:11 1-2 and the slowest being 2:17 1-4. The average of the twelve heats being 2:12 4-5, which is the fastest average ever trotted at a race meeting in this province. There were sixteen heats paced during the meeting, the fastest heat being 2:10 1-2, and the slowest heat being 2:16 1-2. The average of the sixteen heats was 2:14 1-3 which is the fastest average ever paced at a meeting in this province.

MARRIED IN BOSTON

Word has just been received of a quiet and pretty wedding which took place at Saint Cecilia's Church in the Back Bay, Boston, Mass., on May 19th, when Elizabeth Maye Chappelle (formerly of St. Avard's) was united in marriage to Frederick P. Sullivan of Beacon Street, Brookline, Mass., by Reverend Father Keegan. The bride looked very lovely in a gown of white georgette with large picture hat of lace, and carried a bouquet of white roses and maiden hair fern. The bridesmaid was Helen I. Reagan of Winthrop Highlands, Mass. She wore a gown of Rose Eliege Roman Crepe, with picture hat of beige lace, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and maiden hair fern. The groom was attended by his brother George L. Sullivan. After the ceremony a reception followed to immediate relatives, after which the couple left on a motor trip. Among the very beautiful gifts received were several substantial checks. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl and gold rosary; to the bridesmaid a diamond and sapphire stickpin. The bride's gift to her bridesmaid was a silver compact. Mr. Sullivan is a prominent Brookline resident and holds a

Syd Chaplin Film Riot Of Hilarity

"MISSING LINK" EARNS CHAPLIN NEW TITLE OF "SYDNEY-HA-HA!"

The attraction at the Strand which opened yesterday is the laughing-thriller, "The Missing Link" with Syd Chaplin as the star. Neither petticoats nor trench mud clothe Syd in his latest where he is first seen as a hungry poet-taster along the London docks. He takes a job as a luggage-carrier for Lord Dryden who is on his way to Africa to hunt for the gruesome "Missing Link". Scared by a mischievous monkey he hides on the ship and Dryden makes him act the part of the Link-hunter. What ludicrous and breath-taking adventures follow among the jungle creatures can well be guessed by those who know Syd. There are head-hunting savages, a fiendish chimpanzee, monkeys galore, lions, and in the midst is Syd, shaken by an unholy fear and the love of a young lady who believes him really to be, what he knows he can never be—a bold hunter of Big Game. How he does finally capture "The Missing Link" and with the beautiful lady, how his stock for bravery goes up, as his heart goes down, make a huge, monstrously amusing burlesque, which sets audiences in paroxysms of unrestrained laughter. The cast is good and the photography and direction leave nothing to be wished. But it is Syd, Syd the king of the mirth-makers that makes "The Missing Link" what it is. In the words of one of the Broadway critics, "For chronic blues, melancholia, halitosis, or what you have, take a trip to see "The Missing Link" and cure yourself with laughs."

STEWED LEG OF BEEF.

Cut up a pound of beef into small pieces. Mix some flour, pepper, and salt on a plate, and roll the pieces in it. Put two ounces of dripping in a stewpan, and make it smoking hot. Fry the pieces of beef in this till nicely browned. Tie up an onion and some herbs in a piece of muslin, put into the stewpan, and add a little cold water. Simmer gently for three hours. Cut up an onion, carrot and turnip, into small pieces, fry them in dripping, and an hour before taking up the meat put in the vegetables and cook slowly. Just before dishing up, stir in a good tablespoonful of ketchup or Worcester sauce. This is a very nutritious dish, and inexpensive.

It was one of the best-fights seen in a Charlottetown ring and upwards of a thousand fans were kept on their toes throughout the five rounds. McKenna was the aggressor over the whole route. In the early rounds he had some difficulty in solving the baffling defence of the Boston southpaw, but telling body punches by Jack in the fourth coupled with a terrific right cross to the jaw had Allen all but out, the bell saving him as Eddie Mead's beauty was about to deliver the sleeping potion. A two minute rest did Allen a world of good. He came out in the fifth looking fresh and just as frisky with McKenna still plodding after him, but a retreating defence and all the time right jabbing a la Tunney again saved the Boston boy. Allen is a clever boxer and wily as they make them. Not once did he even attempt to trade wallops with the Sydney dynamo, and no matter how hard Jack tried to crowd him the more he squirmed to worm his way out of more than a dozen tight corners. Allen is a sportsman and one of the cleanest fighters the writer ever saw perform in a ring. After the bout McKenna expressed himself in glowing terms with regard to the boxing ability of his opponent and said he was rather puzzled at the outset, due to the fact that he'd never fought a southpaw boxer before. McKenna was also more or less handicapped on the "clean break" as he has of fighting in the second round. Toward the end of the first round Connolly seldom used as a testimonial of nailed Higgins with an overhandability.

NURSES know, and doctors have declared there's nothing quite like Aspirin to relieve all sorts of aches and pains, but be sure it's Aspirin the name Bayer should be on the package, and on every tablet. Bayer is genuine, and the word genuine—in red—is on every box. You can't go wrong if you will just look at the box.

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacturing. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer means relief, it is equally well known that the letters 'B' on the wrapper will be stamped with the 'Bayer Cross' trade mark.

Three horses having a heat, namely, Mac Aubrey, Jack Volo and Marge Direct, necessitated a fourth heat to decide the winner of the race. This was easy for Mac Aubrey. Jack Volo or Marge Direct could not get to him, Jack Volo finishing a length back of Mac Aubrey and Marge Direct a couple of lengths back of Jack Volo. During the interval between the heats the Billy Rice Trio and Royal Pekin Troupe performed. There was also some excellent music by the Legion Band. Before the horses were called for
