IMPORTANT TO FARMERS—It has been announced by the Dominion Live Stock branch in Charlottetown that the Maritime Lamb Buyers are reducing the price on "buck" lambs by 1 cent per lb. in the Maritime Provinces and Quebec. The reason for this is that the consumer after getting "buck" lamb that does not taste well does not want more lamb for some time. This discourages consumption and tends to lower the price. It is not yet too late for the farmer to castrate all his "buck" lambs before marketing and this should be done as quickly as possible as it will effect a saving of 1 cent per lb. or 50 cts on every "buck" lamb marketed, and the total saving to the province would amount from $25,000 to $30,000 each year.

VARIETY SHOWER. — On the evening of Tuesday, June 22nd, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Roach, Kelly's Cross, a variety shower was tendered Miss Georgie Trainor, one of the fair and popular young ladies of this vicinity. This occasion was attended by a large number of friends and acquaintances. The bride-to-be received many beautiful presents, composed of aluminum, glassware, linens, and sums of money. Mr. D. J. McLean, New Wiltshire, escorted the bride-to-be to the parlor, where Miss Sadie Gorman read the accompanying verses, and presented the gifts, after which Miss Trainor thanked those present for their many kind remembrances. All joined in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow." A dainty lunch was served. The evening was spent in singing and dancing, thus a very social and enjoyable event was brought to a close.

JARDINE-RATCHFORD. — A quiet but pretty wedding took place at Christ Church Wednesday morning, June 23rd, when one of Amherst's most charming young women, Miss Margaret J. Ratchford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ratchford, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert S. P. Jardine, manager of the Bank of Commerce branch at Stanley, N.B., and formerly of the staff in Amherst. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. E. Dibblee. The bride was charmingly gowned in a dress of old rose with accessories to match, and carried a bouquet of roses and lilies-of-the-valley. She was given away by her father, but was unattended. The happy couple stood under a beautiful bell, the church being beautifully decorated by the girl friends of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Jardine left on a motor trip through the province and on their return will make their home in Stanley, N.B., to which place this popular young bank manager had been transferred a short time ago. Although there were no invitations in connection with the wedding, the bride was the recipient of a large number of beautiful gifts and a number of parties were held in her honor. Mr. Jardine was located in Amherst for some time about three years ago and was very popular in athletic and social circles. Hosts of good wishes will follow the young couple for a long and happy wedded life.

MAILMAN REMEMBERED. — A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. Alex MacRae's mother French River when a number of Mr. MacRae's friends gathered to bear testimony to his faithful service on the Stanley Bradalbane Mail Route Mr. G. D. Nicholson took the chair and Mr. Fred D. Bennett read an excellent address and at the proper moment Mr. John McQuinn presented Mr. MacRae with a driving coat. Speeches were made by Mr. Bennett, Mr. Quinn and others. Mr. MacRae who was quite taken by surprise expressed his thanks to his friends in his happiest view. The later hours were whiled away with story and song and in the morning watches Mr. MacRae's friends departed for their homes wishing their host many years of life and success.

In Memoriam

MRS. JAMES H. MUTCH.

The death occurred on the 31st of May at Cymbria, of Mrs. James H. Mutch, after a lingering illness of many months. All that medical aid with tender nursing could do, failed to stay the hand of the grim reaper. The late Mrs. Match was a woman of quiet and unassuming disposition, yet possessed of a splendid judgment and more than an ordinary intelligence. In her home she will be greatly missed, and a vacant seat left that never can be filled. Her husband predeceased her three years ago, and there is left to mourn two sons and two daughters, namely, Eddison B., of North River; Wellington and Pearl, at home, and Millicent, nurse in training at the P. E. Island Hospital; also one brother, Bismark Craswell of Rustico. The funeral was held at her home on Tuesday afternoon, June 1st, where relatives, friends and neighbors gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to one who had fulfilled her work in this world, and had gone to receive the reward of a well spent life. The service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Densie, and her remains were laid to rest by the side of her husband at St. Mark's cemetery, Rustico. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Thomas Craswell, Albert Craswell, John H. Buntain, John L. Clark, Howard McKay and Adam Bulman.

Malpeque

A special meeing of Princetown congregation was called on Monday evening, June 21st, for the purpose of the consideration of the calling of a minister to succeed Rev. A. N. Gillis, who has resigned from his present pastorate. After reading of scripture and prayer by Mr. Gillis, Mr. Arch. Woodside, chairman of managers, acted as chairman, and Mr. Thomas McNutt as secretary. After the different methods of extending a call had been discussed, a committee was appointed to superintend the work connected therewith, and to report at an adjourned meeting of the congregation, who will decide the matter. The following comprise the membership of the committee, namely: Messrs. J. B. Lockerby, Thos. McNutt, H. L. Donald, John O. Ramsay, G. W. Ramsay, Howard Ramsay and Russell Woodside.

Miss Nancy Poulton, of Manchester, England, arrived in Malpeque on Tuesday, and is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Clark Woodside. Miss Poulton sailed for Canada on the steamship Newfoundland, via Newfoundland, remaining in St. John's for one day and a half. She reports a splendid voyage. It is hoped that Miss Poulton will be favorably impressed with the beauty of our island home and more particularly with the hospitality of our people.

Miss Maude Donald, Sea View, and Miss Clara Donald, Baltic, left on Thursday morning for Moncton, where they will spend a day or two en route to Brookline, Mass. Miss Clara will enter the Deaconess Hospital of that city for treatment, and it is earnestly hoped that her recovery will be complete.

Miss Mary E. McNutt, Charlottetown, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. McNutt.

Mrs. Bruce Howatt, Tryon, is spending a few days with Mrs. Robert McNutt, Darnley.

Misses Anne and Elizabeth Keir are in Charlottetown, attending the marriage of Miss Mathieson, the daughter of Chief Justice and Mrs. Mathieson.

Miss Bessie Johnson, Long River, is the guest of Miss Mary McNutt, Darnley.

For the production of electric power for Palestine the utilization of the falls of Lake Tiberias and the construction of two dams across the Jordan and Yarmuk rivers are planned.

PIANO RECITAL AT TIGNISH.

That there is an abundance of musical talent in Tignish was demonstrated very plainly last Friday in the fine recital given by the pupils of Notre Dame Academy. This recital consisted entirely of piano and vocal selections and was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone.

Following is the program:

"At the Club" (C. H. Kuebler) Misses Letitia Bernard, Annette Morrissey, Masters Chester Morrissey, Tim Bernard.
"Wreath of Roses" (Blake) Misses A. M. LeClair, F. MacLennan.
"Little Dance" (Rolfe) Misses Elsie Costain, L. O'Halloran.
"Stars-a-twinkle" (Bugbee) Misses Brenda Gallant, Eliz Gaudet.
"I know a Bank"
"Maytime Revels" (Bugbee) Misses Ada Shea, E. Chaisson.
"Ivy" (Renk) Misses Florence Howatt, M. Bernard.
"Hunting Song" (Gurlitt) Misses Irma Gaudet, Bell Corbett.
Piano Trio "Southern Beauty" Misses E. Bernard, F. Howatt, F. Murphy, I. Gaudet, M. Bernard, F. Morrissey.
"Birds in Dreamland" (Morrisson) Miss Bertha O'Brien.
'May Day" (Rathbun) Misses F. Murphy, F. Morrissey.
'Sunshine" (Martin) Misses Edith Bernard, Freda Ready.
'The Cuckoo" (Van Gael) Master Tim Bernard.
'Vanities Waltz" (Spaulding) Master Chester Morrissey.
'La Vierge au Fuseau"
'Dreaming" (Englemann) Misses A. Morrissey, I. Conroy.
'Tarantella" in A. Min. (Risher) Miss Letitia Bernard.
"Zingausca" (Eggeling) Miss Rufina Hogan.
"On the Lake" (Williams) Miss Dora Hackett.
"Dance of the Sunflowers" (Story) Misses Dora Hackett, I. Conroy, Marion Anderson, R. Hogan.
"Fantasia" in D. Min. (Mozart) Miss Marion Anderson.
(a) Witches Dance (MacDowell) (b) At Donnybrook Fair (Pringle Scott)
"Sweet and Low"
God Save the King.

The large audience listened attentively to the excellent numbers which were rendered and on account of the different ages and experience of the performers it would be impossible to give anyone special mention.

At the close of the program Rev. G. J. McLellan thanked the Sisters and pupils as well as congratulating them on the splendid recital and the manner in which each number was executed. He also referred to the painstaking efforts of the good Sisters in charge and congratulated the parish of Tignish in having such an institution in their midst. Other fitting remarks were made by Rev. M. J. Rooney. Messrs J. A. Hackett, J. A. Bernard and C. L. Morrissey.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

The Young People's Society of York held their closing exercises on the evening of May 4th, the president, W. D. Cooke, presiding.

An excellent program was followed by a delightful banquet, at which Mrs. (Rev.) H. T. Smith was the guest of honor.

At the close, the following address together with a very nice club bag was presented Mrs. Smith.

Dear Mrs. Smith, — As we have again reached the termination of another year's activities of our Young People's Society, and having learned that you are shortly to leave us, we feel that we cannot let this opportunity pass without recognizing in some way your value to us as a member.

You have always been a willing helper and entered into all our undertakings with the greatest enthusiasm.

As a faithful and valued member we will cherish your memory.

We ask you to accept this gift as a small token of the esteem in which you are held by us, and in remembrance of the many pleasant and profitable evenings we have spent together.

Signed on behalf of the Class, W. D. Cooke, President.

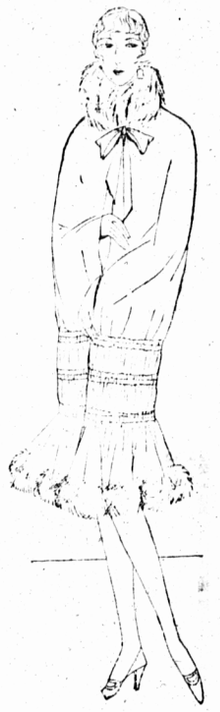
GEORGETTE FASHIONS THE SUMMER WRAP



By Marie Belmont

Double layers of georgette crepe are lined with pale pink georgette and the effect is that of a Summer cloud just about twilight time.

Shadows are deepened by the addition of soft grey fox fur used in a band at the throat, and again in a rippling band at the lower edge of the ruffled flounce. To form the new slender silhouette where slenderness is desired, three rows of double shirring are used.

A bow of silver ribbon ties the wrap closed at the neckline and falls into pretty, gleaming streamers at the front.
