IN OUR ISSUE OF TODAY you can see the first advertisement of the De Vere School of Aviation. This is a most fascinating subject, and one which all young men ought to take a very great interest. This is the pioneer school of the Maritime provinces, in fact east of Toronto, and ought to receive a great ovation, from the town in which these young men have chosen to start their enterprise.

ISLAND LADY BEREAVED.—After a lengthy illness Mr. Herbert W. Kent, a pioneer resident of Vancouver and one of the most prominent business men of the city, died at the family residence, 2937 Osler avenue, Shaughnessy Heights, recently. A resident of Vancouver for nearly thirty years, Mr. Kent was for a great portion of that time manager of the B. C. Telephone Company, leaving the service four years ago to become district manager of the Northern Electric Company. A keen and enthusiastic lover of sports, he was identified with the establishment of the Rowing Club and Horse Show Association and was a patron of all branches of clean sport, manly athletics. Mr. Kent was prominent in club and social circles and had a large circle of friends throughout British Columbia who will extend their sympathies to Mrs. Kent in her bereavement. He was married in 1897 to Miss Florence Findlay of Charlottetown, daughter of Mr. Findlay of the firm of Weeks & Findlay.

REV. MR. FREEMAN IN HALIFAX The Halifax Chronicle says: Rev. C. K. Freeman, Charlottetown, President of the Maritime Baptist Association is at present in the city and Sunday preached at both services in the Baptist Temple, Gottingen Street. Mr. Freeman, who is a strong and forceful speaker took in the morning his text from verse twelve of the eighth chapter of John: "I am the Light of the World." In the evening he chose words from Romans 7 verse 2: "For the law of the Spirit of the life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death." Mr. Freeman plans on being in the city for a few days in connection with the work of the Assoc. etc.
