

THE EDUCATIONAL HORIZON

A SATURDAY FEATURE— PRESENTING NEWS AND VIEWS OF INTEREST TO TEACHERS AND ALL OTHERS SEEKING IMPROVEMENT IN EDUCATION

ENGLISH Song of St. Cecilia's Day

John Dryden was post-laureate at the time this poem was written; in fact the poem was written in the regular routine of his duties for a banquet celebrating the anniversary of the patron saint of the organ...

From Harmony, from heavenly Harmony This universal frame began. Where he gives us, in his poetic language, the theory of the Greek thinker, Pythagoras, who believed and taught that at one time this earth was a mass of atoms which were "harmonized" by the music of the spheres...

CANADIAN HISTORY FROM 1854 TO 1940

Aug. 7, Belleau—J. A. MacDonal Administration. Oct. 20, Proclamation fixing the seat of government at Ottawa. 1868—May 17, Termination of the Reciprocity Treaty by the United States...

for Port Moody, July 31, First quinquennial census of Manitoba 1887. — Interprovincial Conference at Quebec, Apr. 4, First Colonial Conference in London. 1888—Feb. 18, Signing of Fishery Treaty between United Kingdom and United States at Washington, August. Rejection of the Fishery Treaty by United States Senate...

GEOGRAPHY TEST (ON SCOTLAND)

1. The three natural physical divisions are— 2. The highest peak of the mountains lies in the county of York, the Yorkshire Dales. 3. The most gradual slope is towards the west...

PL. WESLEY G. ROSS

Word has been received of the death in the Hawaiian Islands on April 8 of Cpl. Wesley G. Ross, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Ross of Matapan, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Andrews of Wheatley River, P.E.I. Death was a result of burns received from an incendiary bomb.

Veteran Trainer Newmarket Coach

LONDON, May 6 (CP)—The Newmarket racing meet was something in the nature of an oldtimers' race. Hon. George Lambton, 83, and a trainer for 50 years, had charge of the horses...

Mother's Day, Sunday May 10

Select Something Practical FOR MOTHER

- Any of the following articles we are sure will be appreciated. BLOUSES:—In plain and dotted sheers, assorted colors up to ————— $2.98 In cottons and piques, white and coloured stripes $1.19 to ————— $2.98 GLOVES:—In leather and fabrics ————— $1.00 to $2.50 SLIPS:—In satin and crepe—tearose and white ————— $1.00, $1.19, $1.98 PYJAMAS:—In satin and wash silks ————— $2.98 NIGHT GOWNS:—In plain and printed silk ————— $1.98 BED JACKETS:—In plain and printed quilted satin ————— $3.25 to $3.75 UMBRELLAS:—Assorted colours ————— $1.98 HATS:—In felts in pastel shades ————— $1.98 to $2.69 In straws in assorted shades ————— $1.98 to $4.49

KENNEDY'S LADIES' WEAR

154 Great George Street

Field Marshall Gerd Von Rundstedt, former chief of the German army, is due to (1) ————— and the (2) —————. 25. Sugar imported from the West Indies is refined at —————. 26. Spanish frontier. Vichy Cabinet, Marshal Petain was left with the nominal title of chief of state. Admiral Darlan, demoted as vice premier, was put in charge of the armed forces and Petain's successor, Laval designated himself chief of government and took over the most important posts, the Foreign Interior, and Propaganda Ministries. Twenty-two Cabinet members were named, five as ministers, the rest as secretaries of state.

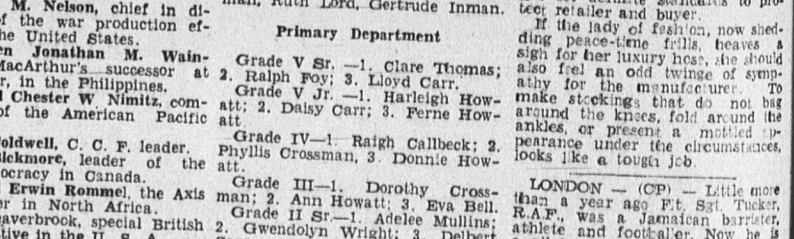

This Department is conducted by the Prince Edward Island Teachers' Federation. Contributions are welcome and should be addressed to H. Lawton, Charlottetown.

WESTERN PORTS OF THE BRITISH ISLES One-third of all the ships constructed in the British Isles are built on the banks of the Clyde. 22. Glasgow, like 25. Sugar imported from the West Indies is refined at —————. 26. Spanish frontier. Vichy Cabinet, Marshal Petain was left with the nominal title of chief of state. Admiral Darlan, demoted as vice premier, was put in charge of the armed forces and Petain's successor, Laval designated himself chief of government and took over the most important posts, the Foreign Interior, and Propaganda Ministries. Twenty-two Cabinet members were named, five as ministers, the rest as secretaries of state.

TRON CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL Report for April: Senior Department Grade X—Sr. 1. Marion Leard; 2. Ralph Robinson; 3. Gertrude Imman. Grade X Jr.—1. Flora Mac Crossman; 2. Ralph Edwards; 3. Madge Thomas. Grade VIII—1. Marion Foy; 2. Doris Bell; 3. Verne Lea. Grade VII—1. Elinor Bell; 2. Audrey Thomas; 3. Annie Belle MacDonal.

Paul MacNutt, chairman of War Man-Power Commission of the United States (will harness man power for the war). Donald M. Nelson, chief in direction of the war production effort in the United States. Lt. Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright, MacArthur's successor at Corregidor in the Philippines. Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, commander of the American Pacific Fleet. M. J. Caldwell, C. C. F. leader. John Hickmore, leader of the New Democracy in Canada. Marshal Erwin Rommel, the Axis commander in North Africa. Lord Beaverbrook, special British representative in the U. S. A.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE UNCLE AMOS, YOU ASKED ME TO FIND AN OLD CAN TO MAKE THE ROBOT'S HEAD! THIS BUCKET O.KAY? I FOUND IT IN THE GARAGE! EGAD! EXCELLENT, ALVIN! MY LAD, THIS EPISODE SUGGESTS AN ESSAY ON THE VALUES OF HIDDEN IN JUNK PILES! THINK OF HOUSING MY ROBOT'S 'BRAINS' IN A DISCARDED LARD PAIL! HAR-RUMPH! ARE YOU GOING TO BUILD THE ROBOT WITH A MIND LIKE YOURS, UNCLE BULBY?

By J. R. Williams

OUT OUR WAY GOSH, AIN'T SHE A GORGEOUS THING? THEM SOFT, APPLESOME EYES—THAT SWEET VOICE—DID YOU HEAR HOW SHE SAID 'THANK YOU'—JUST LIKE A SOFT, TINKLY BELL. WAIT A MINUTE TILL I GET OUTA HERE—BEFORE YOU GO BACK AND GIVE HER MINE, TOO!

HEROES ARE MADE—NOT BORN