THE Tea Party under the auspices of the League of the Cross at Vernon River yesterday was a big success. About 1500 persons went from Charlottetown by the morning and afternoon trains. The site selected was particularly beautiful, a splendid maple grove furnishing comfortable shade. The view from the picnic grounds was superb, and much admired.

The proceedings of the day were pleasant and everything went merrily. Various sports were indulged in by the League of the Cross boys. At 9 p.m. a train of 30 cars, pulled by two engines came puffing into Charlottetown Station, bringing the picnic to a close. The boys formed into procession and marched to their Hall on Dorchester street, headed by their band. Here addresses were made and the prizes awarded to the winners of the sports. Too much praise cannot be given to Conductor McCarron and to engineers McCreary and Dorsey for the manner in which they safely conveyed such a large number of passengers to the City. No more impressive or creditable sight was ever seen on the streets of Charlottetown, than this large procession of earnest, happy boys pledged to total abstinence, and evidencing the strong temperance sentiment which is represented by such a hope-inspiring youthful army.
