THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown.

The latest news first of all.
 J. R. Monaghan, Mill View, was in the City Saturday.
 Roderick W. McKay, Wood Islands was in the City Saturday.
 The tide will be high this afternoon at 2.28 and tomorrow afternoon at 3.
 Everyone should remember the fancy dress Carnival, Wednesday, night, Jan. 20th.
 Miss Gladys Dawson, Little York, was a passenger east Saturday afternoon from this City.
 There is a splendid program at New Wonderland tonight as will be seen by the program on page four.
 A letter to sportsman which appeared incomplete in Saturday's Guardian is being repeated today.
 There was a very large crowd of skaters on the harbor Saturday afternoon enjoying the good ice and pure air.
 True Success and how obtained will be the subject of Mr. Parkman's address in the Baptist Schoolroom Monday evening, 11th inst.
 Bedford Estabrooks, of Central Bedeque, P. E. I., passed through Truro on the seventh at Alton, where he will remain for the winter.—Truro News.

George Dunn, Rusticville, was in the city Saturday.
 Thomas Kichham, Souria, was in the City Saturday.
 Angus D. McPhee, postmaster at Georgetown, was in the City Saturday.
 Miss Lena Farquharson, East Royalty, is visiting Miss May Wood, Hazelbrook.
 The Scottish Trio will be at New Wonderland tomorrow evening. No one should miss them.
 R. B. Hogan teller of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Summerside, has been transferred to this City.
 The school at Rocky Point is progressing most favorably under the tuition of the painstaking teacher, Miss Ida McKenzie.
 Miss Mary Stewart, formerly of this city, who has been residing in Calgary for the past few years has taken a position in the government offices in Edmonton.
 Mrs. W. E. Bagnall entertained this evening at a dance in honor of her daughter, Miss Ethel Bagnall, who is returning to school in Montreal—Ottawa Free Press. Mrs. Bagnall has many friends in this City.
 On Thursday last a very enjoyable time was spent at the home of A. S. and Mrs. McNeill, Block House, Rocky Point, when a few relatives and friends gathered and whiled away the hours in social chat, music, games, etc.

The New Year began very pleasantly in Rocky Point and vicinity as there were excellent roads and good ice, but owing to the recent thaw the people are now deprived of both. Notwithstanding all this the mails come regularly.
 On New Years eve three young people of Rocky Point had an icy bath in some twelve or fifteen feet of water while crossing from Rocky Point to York Point. However they managed to extricate themselves from what might have proved a fatal accident.
 E. S. Ellis & Co., 156 Atlantic Avenue, Boston, solicit consignments of smelts and eels from this Province for which they will pay highest market prices and make prompt and satisfactory returns. Shippers are asked to write them before placing their goods elsewhere.

Crowded houses greeted the fare well performance of Mr. Brown and Miss Wilnot at New Wonderland Saturday night. The program of moving pictures was one of the best ever given and the management is to be congratulated on the excellence of the performance given.
 A pleasing event occurred at New manufacture, Toronto, recently when the employees presented the general manager Will H. Newsome, a native of this City with a beautiful table set of cut glass, accompanied with an address in water colors. Mr. Newsome's reply expressed confidence and appreciation of employees and larger hopes for the future of the business.

The Christmas number of the Edmonton Bulletin comes to hand, handsomely illustrated with portraits and scenes of the growing northern twin cities of Edmonton and Strathcona. The Bulletin is the property and home organ of Hon. Frank Oliver, Minister of the Interior. D. S. McKee, formerly of the Charlotte Town Guardian, is an active member of the Bulletin staff and an excellent full page article in the Christmas number is from his facile pen.
 The services of the week of prayer ended in St. James Church Saturday night. Rev. J. F. Floyd rendered a very impressive sermon on the lights of the Time. Quite a number were present and listened attentively to the speaker. The various hymns were sung with great heartiness by a large number of those present. During the entire week the services were impressive and the large numbers present who joined very heartily in the worship, along with the spirit of helpfulness put into the meetings, show that much good is being done.

The Star Rink social will be held in Pownall Hall January 14.
