Salvation Army Tag Day and Street Collection :: Feb. 23rd.

COMMISSIONER RICHARDS appeals for $20,000

Which is Urgently Needed for the Upkeep and Extension of The Army's War-Time Work Amongst the Canadian Troops

Throughout Canada a Tag Day and Street Collection is to be held in every city and town where the Army is established. The date of this effort has been fixed for FEBRUARY 23rd. The object is to raise money for our War Work, the needs of which must appeal to every Canadian.

REST HUTS FOR CANADIANS

Rest Huts are being operated for and used exclusively by Canadian troops, as follows: Great Britain: Bramshot (near Haslemere), 27 Huts; Wilby (Mildford), 3; West Sandling, 1; East Sandling, 1; St. Martin's Plain (Shorncliffe), 1; Diggate Plain, 1; Seaford, 1; Shoreham-by-Sea, 1. France: Hut at Base Camp (Havre), 1. Another at Etaples. The huts at Seaford and Shoreham are what may be termed double huts, meaning that there is one hut for recreation and refreshments and another for meetings. At the other places there is one hut which is for recreation and refreshments and another for meetings. In addition to the above three large marquees have been sent over to France by International Headquarters and are under the charge of Chaplain Captain Steele.

WHAT THE HUTS STAND FOR

While this goes some of the way towards describing in actual terms a little that has been accomplished, the greater, vaster, and more valuable work can never be expressed, since so very much of Salvation Army force is active in spirit. A lad enters an Army Hut with the ostensible purpose of purchasing a cup of cocoa. He is away from home for the first time; he is missing most of all, for he is up against terrible odds. Now, when needed most, he comes to pay his penny for cocoa and receives the gift of a trustful smile from the Army Adjutant's wife. That the Adjutant should find time to sit at his table for just a minute appears quite natural, that the boy should tell him something of what is in his heart, quite the simplest thing in the world; that the Adjutant should guess at the simplest thing in the world; and that words can make plain, and all happens in the most ordinary way; and that the boy should leave the Hut with a new elasticity in his stride and a firm lift to his chin is what The Army expects, for our optimistic ministry aims at making men—good men!

SERVING THE SERVICE MEN

If You Want to Know What The Salvation Army's War-Time Work is in a Wider Sense, Here are a Few Items

Huts, Homes, etc., for Soldiers at some 100 Centres in England, thousands of men helped daily. Numerous Homes and Agencies for Soldiers in Northern France. Work amongst the Forces in Canada, Egypt, Malta, South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, India, Ceylon (thirty-four Salvation Army Officers are officially appointed as Chaplains). Visitation of wounded in French and English Hospitals by Women Officers. Canteens and Lodging-Houses for Employes at Munition Works. Officers tracing the Missing on the Continent, and Carrying out Burials of the dead. Rest Rooms for Troops at Railway Stations. The Army's fifteen permanent Naval and Military Homes, where thousands of Service men are cared for. Organized Visitation of Soldiers' Wives and other dependents.

SALVATION ARMY CHAPLAINS

Out of the thirty-four Chaplains mentioned above six are with the Canadians. They are as follows: Captain Steele, now at the Front in Flanders; Adjutant Penfold, Bramshot Camp (England); Adjutant Carroll, at the Base in France; Major McGilivray, London (England); Major Walton, London (England); and Staff-Captain White, Eschibon Camp (Toronto). All of these Officers are doing devoted service amongst our Boys in Khaki, caring for their moral and spiritual welfare, advising and helping them in their temporal affairs, and doing all in their power to keep them cheerful and straight in spite of the great temptations they are up against.

THIS WORK MUST BE KEPT UP

Heavy expenditures have been incurred in connection with this War-Time Work, and the above-named sum is needed at once. We ask our friends, therefore, to give generously on Tag Day.

Some two dozen ladies will distribute tags for a consideration and the consideration will form part of the Salvation Army Fund that is being raised to provide rest huts for the soldiers. Every tag bought means so much to help the soldiers. Wear a tag.

ST. MARGARETS NOTES.—Mr. John B. McDonald, had the misfortune of losing a very fine cow a few days ago. The animal while trying to masticate a frozen tuber, failed with the inevitable result. The school is progressing favorably under the capable and efficient teacher, Miss Laura McKinnon, and although the attendance is not what it might be, still many are obliged to remain at home on account of the exceptionally cold weather. Mr. Mark Cheverie has engaged Chas. Ellsworth, of South, to install a 4 H. P. Engine in his new lobster boat, the "Katie H". His many friends are pleased to learn that Mr. J. B. Feehan, who has been confined to his bed for some time with pneumonia, is improving as well as can be expected. Mr. and Mrs. Laughlin McIntyre, who have been visiting in Ch'Town, the guest of Mr. Angus P. McCormack, have returned home. Mr. Henry Doucette, St. Charles who has been repairing and remodeling the residence of Mr. R. D. McDonald, has completed his contract and returned home. Mr. Doucette has secured a year's work on the large building in New Glasgow, doubtless he is equalled by few, and surpassed by none in his line, as a carpenter.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.—A most impressive memorial service was held in the Presbyterian Church, Long River on Sunday, Feb. 17th in memory of the late Pte. Leslie W. McLeod, a member of the 104th Battalion, who it will be remembered met his death from gas poisoning in a hotel while on leave in Glasgow, Scotland on Dec. 30th last. The service was conducted by the pastor Rev. G. W. Irvine. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion. In front of the pulpit was a beautiful wreath of flowers presented by members of the choir and friends of the deceased enclosed with the wreath was a small photo and directly underneath an enlarged portrait of the departed hero. Mrs. D. M. Johnstone presided at the organ and feelingly rendered the "Dead March in Saul" at the outset of the service. The music throughout was appropriate and well rendered. Special mention must be made of the solo by Rev. Mr. Irvine "Will the Circle be unbroken", also one by Miss Laura McKinnon, "Crossing the bar", and the male quartette, "Brave heart forever still" by Messrs Irvine, McKay, McLeod and Johnstone. Rev. Mr. Irvine chose for his text—"So Ahab went up to eat and to drink and Elijah went up to the top of Carmel". A Kings 18:42, from which he delivered a masterly message to the living and paid an eloquent tribute to the one in whose honor the service was held. The whole service was impressive and a sympathetic feeling was noticeable over the large audience which filled the church to its capacity. Long River has surely done its part in this gigantic struggle of right against wrong, having given three of its best and bravest sons on the altar of sacrifice. Three homes saddened by the irreparable loss they have sustained yet comforted with the thought that their heroes have nobly done their duty.

FUNERAL TOMORROW.—The funeral of the late John A. Dalziel will take place at Georgetown at 2.00 p. m. tomorrow (Sunday.) After a short service at the house the body will be taken to St. David's Presbyterian Church where services will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Green. A telegram was sent to William Dalziel, eldest son of the deceased, whose headquarters are at Ottawa but as his duties at times take him to different parts of the country it is not likely that he can be reached in time to enable him to attend the funeral. The late Mr. Dalziel resided fifteen years in this city before removing permanently to Georgetown.

DOVER SCHOOL.—The semi-annual examination of Dover School was held on Thursday, Jan. 31. Quite a number of rate payers and visitors were present. The pupils were examined by the Rev. W. H. Sweet of Murray River to the entire satisfaction of all. The ready response of the pupils to all questions in proof of their ability, pleased Mr. Sweet and his teachers. Mr. Sweet complimented the teacher and a pupil on the work they are doing. D. Sterling Whiteway then read the following address while Chester Whiteway on behalf of school presented the teacher Miss Sadie Ewan. "Crossing the bar," and the male quartette, "Brave heart forever still" by Messrs Irvine, McKay, McLeod and Johnstone. Rev. Mr. Irvine chose for his text—"So Ahab went up to eat and to drink and Elijah went up to the top of Carmel". A Kings 18:42, from which he delivered a masterly message to the living and paid an eloquent tribute to the one in whose honor the service was held. The whole service was impressive and a sympathetic feeling was noticeable over the large audience which filled the church to its capacity. OUR EMULSION OF COD LIVER OIL tastes good because it is fresh. The oil is produced from the best quality goods, and is filtered at zero temperature. The intense cold prevents the greatest yield from the Cod Liver, but the oil that is obtained is absolutely pure and free from the objectionable, fishy taste characteristic of cheap oils. SURPRISE PARTY.—Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gliddings, Murray River, there transpired an enjoyable surprise party, in the honor of Mr. Parker White, who was recently returned from overseas. The affair was in every way a pronounced success, games, songs and instrumental music, paying the way for everyone present to enjoy a "bumper" time. A feature of the function was the photographing of the guests by flashlight. The inner man, being also catered to, helped to round out a perfect night, and everyone agreed that the muse of entertainment (if there is one), had gone the limit in lending her arts to the occasion. Toward the close the guests presented Mr. White with a fountain pen, as a token of the esteem in which he was held by them. A vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Gliddings, who kindly placed their home at the disposal of the gathering, was unanimously and enthusiastically rendered. After the singing of the National Anthem the party broke up. The more a woman has in her hand the less she thinks about what she has on it. You may be sure of one thing—can't be too sure of anything.
