IN MEMORIAM

Death is always sad, but when it takes away a loving mother, leaving a family of little ones bereft of her care and guidance, it is particularly so.

WESTMORELAND.—Miss Granville McVittie has returned to Charlottetown to resume her studies at P. W. C.—William McVittie purchased a valuable horse lately.—Albert Sturdy, West Street, Mass., has returned home and intends to spend the winter at his sister's, Mrs. H. McVittie.—The people of Westmoreland are glad to hear that Health McVittie is again well.—Chon McVittie has fitted up his house lately and made a fine place for the post office.

PRESENTATION.—A very enjoyable evening was spent Xmas Eve, at the hospitable home of Wm. E. and Mrs. Proffitt, Burlington, when a large number of friends appeared on the scene to wish Miss Beattie Proffitt, the very popular and efficient organist of St. Stephen's Church, Irishtown, a very merry Xmas. After pleasant greetings order was called and John A. Millman of Bel Creek presented Miss Proffitt with a nicely worded address, thanking her for her kind services during the past year, and for efficient work accomplished. Another very tangible proof of the esteem in which Miss Proffitt is held was the presentation by Wm. Paynter, Bel Creek, of a beautiful gold watch-chain and charm to accompany a valuable gold watch given last Christmas and a purse of money. Miss Proffitt, though taken greatly by surprise, thanked one and all very kindly. A short program of impromptu speeches, vocal and instrumental music followed. When the merry making was at its height supper was announced and all enjoyed a very dainty and bounteous repast, served by the ladies of St. Stephen's Church. About midnight, after the singing of "Auld Lang Syne," all departed to their homes, having spent a most delightful evening.

SAD DEATH.—A gloom was cast over the community of Kelvin on Christmas Eve when it became known that Mrs. Lewis Wickett had passed away. The family had resided in Oldtown, Maine, the past five years but owing to Mrs. Wickett being in failing health she had removed to this province last spring in the hope that the air of her native land might restore her to health again. All that kind and loving care could do was done for her by her devoted husband and family but all to no avail and she passed peacefully away on Dec. 24th. Mrs. Wickett was an earnest and devoted Christian having united with the Baptist Church in early womanhood. She bore her sufferings with patience and resignation and was never heard to complain. She will be greatly missed in the home and community where she kindly influence was always felt. To know her was to love her. Besides a grief-stricken husband she leaves three daughters—the Misses Lucy E. and E. Blanche at home, and Mrs. W. A. Terrill of Oldtown, Maine, now at home. The funeral was held on Thursday and was very largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. R. Osgood Morse of Summerside, assisted by Rev. Mr. Sutherland of Kensington and the remains were laid to rest in Margate Cemetery beside those of her son who was laid to rest there some years ago. The pall-bearers were: James Jardine, Robert McMurdo, Melburn Laird, N. L. MacArthur, Samuel Woodside and George Woodside.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—The semi-annual examination held in Middleton School on Tuesday, Dec. 24th, brought to a close a very successful term. That a keen interest is being taken in educational matters in Middleton was evident from the large number of parents and visitors who were in attendance. The pupils, who were examined in the various branches by Mr. Boulter, the popular Inspector of Prince County, and J. A. McDonald of St. Dunstan's College, acquitted themselves most creditably and their work showed a neatness and preciseness which can only be gained under an exacting and painstaking teacher. Many speeches were made all of which were eulogistic of the work done by Miss Hughes and her capable assistant Miss Gallant. Miss Hughes is one of the best teachers and all look forward to the near future when Middleton School, under her direction, shall be raised to a first class. At the close of the examination a musical program was very effectively rendered by the pupils after which they presented an address accompanied by an appropriate gift to their teachers. The singing of the National Anthem brought to a fitting close a very happy and well spent day.

A GOOD PRESCRIPTION

For a Long Life.

This is the prescription for a long life given by an old gentleman in Conn., who is 99 years old and still well and cheerful. "Live temperately, be slow to anger, don't worry take plenty of exercise in the fresh air, and above all keep cheerful."

Should the system get run down—digestive organs weak—the blood thin and sluggish take Vinol, which is a delicious combination of the medicinal—body-building properties of cod's livers, with the useless grease elimination and tonic iron added. We regard Vinol as one of the greatest body-builders and strength creators in the world for aged people.

Mrs. Mary Ivey of Columbus, Ga., says: "If people only knew the good Vinol does old people you would be unable to supply the demand; it is the finest tonic and strength creator I ever used."

We wish every feeble old person in this vicinity would try Vinol on our agreement to return their money if it fails to give satisfaction. E. A. Foster, Central, Drugstore, Ch'town P. E. I.

IN MEMORIAM

Death is always sad, but when it takes away a loving mother, leaving a family of little ones bereft of her care and guidance, it is particularly so. Such was the case by the death of Mrs. William Inman, DeSable, which took place on Sunday, December 1st, 1912, at the early age of thirty-eight years. Although never robust in health Mrs. Inman was able to attend to her household duties until a few weeks previous to her death. At times she would rally and it was thought she would ultimately recover, but on Saturday her illness took a serious turn and notwithstanding skilled medical attendance and tender nursing, her sister Mrs. Dix having come from Boston to be at her bedside, she gradually sank and on Sunday morning her gentle spirit took its flight to Him who gave it. The deceased was of a bright and sunny disposition and it was always a pleasure to visit her home and partake of her hospitality. The high esteem in which she was held was evidenced by the large attendance at the funeral which took place Tuesday, Dec. 3rd, to Hampton Cemetery. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Jas. MacDougall who spoke in eulogistic terms of the deceased. The pall-bearers were Duncan MacKinnon, Warren Inman, Harry MacNeven, Wesley MacNeven, Miller MacKinnon and Mack Ferguson. There are left to mourn besides a sorrowing husband, mother, brother and sisters, six children, Abigail in Boston; Elmer, Gordon, Keith and Erna and an infant son, to all of whom The Guardian extends its heartfelt sympathy.

SCHOOLGIRL'S EXHAUSTED NERVES

Headaches, Dizzy Spells and Weakness Overcome by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

At about the age that most girls are working hardest at school studying examinations there are important physiological changes taking place which are an additional strain on the nervous system. Mrs. J. A. Gallop, 135 Victoria street, St. John, N.B., whose husband is a carpenter states: "We have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in our family for nervousness, headaches, dizziness and nervous dyspepsia, and have found them satisfactory in every particular. My daughter, Bessie, was going to school, and became quite run down in health. By the time she had used three boxes of this remedy her nerves were steady, her general health was excellent and she was entirely free from headaches and dizzy spells. We are more than pleased with the results of this treatment. More recently we used the Nerve Food for my grandchild, who was out of school for nearly a year from nervous trouble, and noticed improvement in her condition at once."
