ENGLISH MAMMOTH LATE RED CLOVER

Imported direct from LONDON, ENGLAND. Just arrived a shipment of this BEST OF ALL CLOVERS. Many farmers have asked us why we cannot procure the OLD ENGLISH MAMMOTH CLOVER that used to produce such large crops years ago. Well we find it difficult to get a real good sample of the GENUINE MAMMOTH variety. Two years ago we imported a nice lot that sold readily and gave excellent results. Last year we could not get a sample of the GENUINE MAMMOTH variety. The ENGLISH crop was very poor and the Seed could not be recommended. A lot of CHILIAN RED Clover Seed has been sent to Canada in recent years and sold as ENGLISH CLOVER. No farmer should sow this variety; it is not at all suitable for this country. A guarantee that we have the GENUINE OLD ENGLISH MAMMOTH LATE RED CLOVER SEED is that a sworn statement to that effect accompanies the shipment. The Seed is large, plump, and very free from Weed Seeds. It is the finest quality of this variety that we have ever seen. Costs a little more than the Canadian variety, but the cost of the Seed is small compared with the increased yield of nutritious Hay produced. Only a limited quantity to offer. Write us for Samples and Prices.

FOR MOTHER'S SAKE

This is the title of the new reel at New Wonderland tonight. An uncommonly strong picture one which teaches a touching lesson, and a lesson which leaves its memory gratefully behind it. The Child's Love, and Time Flies Backward are the remaining films this evening. The illustrated song pace of acquiring new members and its advancement in this particular has been up to the standard. The new ritual adopted at last session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge has been mastered by nearly all the lodges, and all acknowledge it to be far superior to the old. In the line of practical philanthropy, the homes for aged and indigent Odd Fellows have been well looked after, and several new ones are under construction. These have proved to be a great boon to Oddfellowship and one of the principal features of its teaching. Wards in Hospitals have been established in places, which are entirely supported by the institution. Many other great works in keeping with its principles are being carried out for the benefit of the members of which all Odd Fellows are justly proud.

ODDFELLOWS CELEBRATE NATAL DAY

(Continued from page 9.) Onefellowship is sometimes spoken of reproachfully by reason of its name, on account of the seeming levity it conveys. It is not unfrequently taunted as a borrower, and thus having nothing in its organization which is original, having derived everything of consequence in its system from other sources. For some years during its early career, such unjust as well as ungenerous imputations obtained; but for the most part it has outgrown such reproaches, and conquered by the general good favor. Touching the name it may be replied, that if not agreeable in sound, that fact is wholly unimportant so long as the object in view is worthy and honorable, even should a name not be appropriate as fully indicative of its purpose. An objection on this is equally wanting in force, for the reason that fitness in the mere selection of a name is rather the exception than the rule; taste, caprice, and sometimes even prejudice, generally determine the choice.

As to the principles and ceremonies, these we are willing to admit rest upon a common basis with other secret societies. We have the same grand natural truths and the same base, they are of the same species. All avail themselves of the like means of intercommunication and recognition, viz. a language of signs and symbols; all aspire to an important and moral agency in promoting closer relations among men, and in the elevation of the race. The triumphs of Oddfellowship are not on the battlefield amid the groans of its slain, victims sacrificed to the insatiable ambition of some monarch, or to enhance the glory of some warrior; but in the silent vigil at the bedside of a sick brother, and in generously supplying the requisite means for the sustenance and comfort of the needy and suffering objects of want. The benedictions of the weeping widow and desolate orphan are its trophies, more honorable and valuable than those acquired upon all the fields of carnage, by all the heroes of all the military exploits of the world. Over five millions of dollars was expended for the relief of sick and distressed brethren, also widows and orphans, which alone will convey some idea of the magnitude of the work of the Order. The year just passed has been a very successful one from all points of view. It has kept up its swift pace of acquiring new members and its advancement in this particular has been up to the standard. The new ritual adopted at last session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge has been mastered by nearly all the lodges, and all acknowledge it to be far superior to the old. In the line of practical philanthropy, the homes for aged and indigent Odd Fellows have been well looked after, and several new ones are under construction. These have proved to be a great boon to Oddfellowship and one of the principal features of its teaching. Wards in Hospitals have been established in places, which are entirely supported by the institution. Many other great works in keeping with its principles are being carried out for the benefit of the members of which all Odd Fellows are justly proud.

The Order has no set form of program for the celebration of its Natal Day. The manner of fittingly celebrating the day is left entirely to the option of the local lodges. But they are supposed to do it in some way creditable to the Order. In this City the members will meet at their lodge room at 2.15, and will form in procession, headed by the Fourth Regiment band, and march to the Central Christian Church, where a sermon appropriate to the occasion will be delivered by the pastor, the Rev. J. F. Floyd. In the evening the high class drama entitled, The Galley Slave, will be put on in the Opera House under the auspices of the I.O.O.F. by local talent. This will be one of the best plays of the season, as it is a heavy production, and is in the hands of good performers.

INDEED THEY ARE WONDERFUL

What Thos. McDonald says of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

He Had Lame Back, Kidney Disease and Heart Flutterings, and One Box Cured Him.

SHUBERNACADIE, HANTS Co., N. S., April 23—(Special)—"I suffered from Lame Back, Kidney Disease and Heart Flutterings, caused by cold and a strain, for three years. I was looking over some papers and saw Dodd's Kidney Pills advertised and I bought one box which completely cured me. Dodd's Kidney Pills are wonderful."

That is the simple, straightforward statement of Mr. Thomas McDonald, a well-known resident of this place. It shows how quickly Dodd's Kidney Pills cure Kidney Disease when taken in its earliest stages. Lame Back is one of the first symptoms of sick Kidneys. Heart Fluttering is another symptom. It is caused by blood, from which the sick Kidneys have failed to strain the impurities, increasing the work of the heart. Dodd's Kidney Pills make the sick Kidneys well, the lame back disappears, the blood is purified, the heart is relieved and the fluttering stops. If the case is of long standing, it may take longer to cure it, but Dodd's Kidney Pills never fail to do it.

POLITICS IN NEWFOUNDLAND.

ST. JOHN'S, April 23.—The strenuous politics of the Colony developed, still another sensation when Walter Grieve, a leading merchant and ship owner was placed under arrest charged with criminal libelling Sir Edward Morris, the Premier of Newfoundland. Sir Edward, in his complaint, alleges that Grieve, during the present campaign, wrote a letter stating that in the pay of the Canadian Government and secretly working to bring about the annexation of Newfoundland to Canada.

"Chamois Lined Vests are the proper thing for winter wear—Light as feathers yet keep the cold and wind and the price would hardly pay for the pockets in a fur coat.—For ladies and gentlemen. See them at 'The Two Mac's Druggists.'"
