

Wills

There is a period in the life of every man when he thinks about the future welfare of those dependant upon him. Sometimes this does not come until sickness overtakes him. Then he makes a Will—but it may be made under wrong influence.

Had the Will been made during good health, the most deserving persons—according to the deceased's wish—would have shared in the distribution of the Estate.

Do you not realize that it is your sacred duty to no longer delay your Will? The advice of the Dominion Trust Company in this matter may be of value to you. All such discussions are treated in strict confidence.

A GERMICIDE LINIMENT

The following letter was received under date of February 18, 1913, from Mr. George Poulis, Howledale, Sask. "I have used Absorbine on one of my horses for thoroughpin. The case is now completely cleaned up. Now my horse is worth $200.00 and I couldn't have had more than $20.00 before he was cured. I will never be without your remedy as long as I am a horse owner."

ABSORBINE has been so successful in treating horses affected with thoroughpin or bog spavin, without blistering, removing the hair, or laying up the horse, that it seems to me a certainty that they can be removed. Don't use any old liniment, but procure one which is positive in action and known to be an excellent preparation.

Write me about your case so that I may give special instructions. I'll send you a pamphlet free on request. ABSORBINE—$2.00 a bottle at drug-stores or prepaid. W. F. Young, P.O. Box 141, Lymans Building, Montreal, Can.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. JOHN PETERS.

The death of Mr. John Peters, one of the oldest citizens of Toronto, Lot 23 took place last Saturday evening. The deceased had been ill for some time and suffered considerably during the first part of his illness. Although he was not expected to live very much longer and although he himself was perfectly willing to die some time since, yet it was hoped that, with the coming of fine arm weather, his health might improve somewhat. However this was not to be. The end came just at the closing of the Holy season of Lent, and the home is that already he may be commemorating in Heaven as those on earth, the resurrection of the Saviour of mankind.—Z.

EWEN MACMILLAN.

Ewen Macmillan, of 55 Porter road, Cambridge, Mass., died at his home, last week Friday evening, of acute bronchitis. Mr. Macmillan was born at Wood Islands, P. E. I., in May 1844, and had lived in Cambridge for 12 years. He was a member of Zion Presbyterian church and St. Lawrence Lodge I. O. O. F., both of Charlottetown, P. E. I. Mr. Macmillan was employed by trade and was employed at the Riverside press. He is survived by his widow. The funeral was held from his home at 12 o'clock, Sunday afternoon. Rev. Vincent Ravi officiated. Miss M. L. Shepard of Boston, sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," "Peace, Peace" and "We Shall Meet Beyond the River." The Oddfellows service was also held by a delegation of members of Mt. Sinai Lodge at the house and
