Could Not Eat

Constipation is caused by a torpid condition of the liver. Dosing with salts, castor oil, etc., to move the bowels, cannot afford more than temporary relief.

If you are to rid yourself of this ailment and the scores of annoying symptoms and diseases which come in its wake, it is necessary to get the liver right by such treatment as is suggested in this letter:

Mrs. Alvin Richards, R. R. No. 1, Seeley's Bay, Ont., writes: "For two years I was afflicted with indigestion, and in the morning when I got up my head was bad. I had a poor appetite, and just like eating certain foods. I had many different medicines as a laxative without benefit, and the doctor's medicine did not help me at all. Finally I tried Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and found them better than anything I had ever tried. I can highly recommend them to anyone troubled with constipation or kidney troubles."

Aviator Tried to Abduct Nun from a Convent

PARIS.—An attempt by a French aviator to abduct a nun from the Carmelite Convent at Marienthal is being keenly discussed in Strasbourg society.

It is said that the officer, who belongs to one of the best families in France, fell in love with the pretty nun, whom he first saw while flying over the convent garden.

On another aerial visit he dropped her a note saying he would marry her if she consented to renounce her vows. She did not reply, but was always in the garden when the officer flew over the convent.

Girl's Strange Sense Disappears Under Scientific Tests

MADISON, WIS., Nov. 29.—Willetta Higgins, Janesville, Wis., girl, who says she can smell colors and hear by the sense of touch, is neither totally deaf nor totally blind, said Dr. Joseph Jastrow, head of the psychological department of the University of Wisconsin, today.

Tests were made by the professor with Miss Higgins as the subject in the university laboratories. Articles about the girl have appeared in magazines and newspapers.

THAT FALSE TELEGRAM

The Facts as Declared by Hansard the Official Record of Parliament.

After Mr. Meighen's statement here regarding the bogus telegram that canard was dropped for a while but now revived again—The matter was ventilated in Parliament and the official report can be appealed to as the very best authority—we invite our readers to study the case.

On Sept. 24, 1919. (see Hansard page 556) Mr. D. D. McKenzie, (Cape Breton North and Victoria) moved:—

"Whereas the following telegram was despatched in code from Winnipeg by the Honorable Arthur Meighen one of the Ministers of the Crown to the Right Honorable Sir Robert L. Borden, Prime Minister of Canada, on or about the 30th. November 1917:—

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY'S TELEGRAPH
Winnipeg, Nov. 30th, 1917.

Sir Robert L. Borden,
Ottawa Ont.
(Here follows the code words.)

Charge Union Government Committee.
Arthur Meighen.

And whereas the said telegram when deciphered read as follows:—

Canadian Pacific Railway Companies Telegraph
Winnipeg November 30, 1917.

Sir Robert L. Borden
Ottawa Ont.,

Would like one thousand soldier votes at large for Manitoba, of which 300 for Selkirk, balance divided between Provencher, MacDonald and Springfield or same proportion of division no matter what allotment may be.

Charge Union Government Committee.
ARTHUR MEIGHEN

The above contains the alleged telegram then followed the balance of the resolution and speech which space will not permit to reproduce—But it is all found in the alleged telegram—

Mr. Mackenzie did not produce the original of the alleged telegram when moving his resolution, so Mr. Meighen could not tell whether he wrote it or not. He is reported in Hansard page 556, same date, as stating:

"I have no recollection of the telegram whatever. The message might have been sent; it might have been sent by me; it is a message that might have been sent by any honest man" etc.

Mr. MacMaster followed in a speech on the following and repeated the charge that Mr. Meighen sent that telegram and that he could prove it. See Hansard page 579.

We refer to Mr. MacMaster's statement only to show he was in the plot to the hit.

Observe the situation: Mr. Meighen was charged with writing a certain telegram and a supposed copy of it read and put on the records of Parliament but the mover would not let Mr. Meighen see the original as it was withheld.

On Oct. 2 1919, on page 848 of Hansard Mr. McKenzie is reported as follows: 555'44

"A great deal of fault has been found with me because I did not have the telegram. Here is the original draft of the telegram."

Mr. Meighen: Will the honorable gentleman be good enough to send it to me that I may see it?

Mr. McKenzie: I have no hesitation—I do not know whose writing it is. It is the original draft—The Code is there with it.

Mr. Meighen: The telegram is not in my writing, is not signed by me, the initials are not mine—Were never made by me—Not a word of it was written by me."

Mr. McKenzie: The minister in his speech the other day said that if the Committee sent out the telegram he is not going to go back on them. He accepts it—whether he wrote it or not it came from his office and he is the father of it."

The claim is that it came from Mr. Meighen's office, in short he admits it was taken from his office. Of course if it came from there it was stolen—we will close this part of the narrative by quoting Mr. Meighen's reply:

"Mr. Meighen: The honorable gentleman has endeavored to build up a case on the supposition that I sent the telegram. I did not send it—I never saw it—it is not in my writing—The initials were not made by me—it never came to my attention and the honorable gentleman if he does not know that, might have known it, and I think has known it all along."

After the vote was taken the Minister of Justice demanded that

MASTER MASON
PLUG SMOKING
It's Good Tobacco

HOLDING its freshness and full flavor to the last pipeful, Master Mason in the big plug is the tobacco for the man who knows a good smoke. Satisfying, honest tobacco at the rock bottom price.

THE BIG PLUG
20 cents

the alleged telegram he tabled but Mr. McKenzie refused. Why did he refuse to have it tabled? Because the evidence of his crookedness was too glaring.

On page 851 of Hansard will be seen Mr. McKenzie's admission that the alleged telegram was not addressed to any one nor signed by any one although he presented it to parliament in his first speech as addressed in full to Sir Robert Borden and signed in full by Mr. Meighen. Thus the plot was laid bare.

It was gotten up for campaign purposes and so little regard has Messrs Sinclair and D. A. McKinnon for truth that this bogus telegram is trotted out with airs of horror, at Mr. Meighen's Wickedness.

It is fortunate that we have a reliable record like Hansard to expose such political crookedness. If Mr. Sinclair and his colleagues in 1917 had taken the course that was their duty to have taken to send supports to the men on the firing line they would have received their share of their votes. And when the irritations incidental to the war will have passed away Messrs Sinclair, Hughes and their colleagues will find their record to be that of men who played an unworthy part. They broke faith with those who sleep in Flanders Fields.

Campaign Notes

(From The Examiner).

There is satisfaction and content in the minds and hearts of the men and women who have nominated and are supporting Mr. Donald McKinnon and Mr. John H. Myers in the present election to the manner in which they have conducted their campaign. Their attitude has been fair, manly and courageous. They published the dates of the meetings at which they would meet and address the electors of Queen's County and they invited the opposing candidates, of whatever stripe to attend these meetings, giving them equal time with themselves to speak and to hear. Could anything be more open, or more generously fair than this?

They knew that there would be two to one against them, at these joint meetings, candidates of the Liberal, the Farmer and the Labor parties and that in giving equal time to each speaker two thirds of the allotted half hours would be given to their opponents. But relying upon the greatness and justice of the cause to which they were committed they did not flinch from the odds. It will be clearly seen from this that whatever lack of courage, or of fair play, of manliness, or of generosity the campaign may have developed Messrs Donald McKinnon and John H. Myers have not been found wanting in those qualities which all fair-minded men and women must consider as prime requisites in our public men.

Aches And Pains Of Rheumatism

Sometimes They are Unbearable

There are weather conditions that make rheumatism worse. They are not the same in the cases of all persons. Some rheumatic suffer more in dry warm weather than in moist, cold weather, but all suffer more or less all the time. The cause of rheumatism is an excess of uric acid in the blood, affecting the muscles and joints, causing aches and pains. Hence the blood must have attention for permanent results in the treatment of this disease.

Hood's Sarsaparilla has given entire satisfaction in thousands of cases. Do not fail to try it. For a laxative take Hood's pills.

Be it further observed that in their addresses at the long series of public meetings these gentlemen have met every issue squarely and without concealment or evasion. They have been uniformly courteous to their opponents; they have sought to promote good temper and good feeling among the candidates and the electors; they have appealed to the reason and not to the passion or the prejudices of their hearers; they have kept to the high ground as men of honor and of self-respect will always do; they have maintained in their attitude and utterances the dignity which befits and adorns the best traditions of Canadian public life. This is saying much, but it is justly due to the men of whom it is written, and who is there among all the thousands who have listened to them who can honestly deny one iota of the commendation.

The black-washing of others argues no special merits in those who wield the brush with soiled hands. Unwavering fidelity to a good cause is a better advocate than violent denunciation. We have had some examples during the campaign that are to be regretted in which the discussion was adjourned from the high ground to the low, but no such charge can or will be laid at the door of Donald McKinnon or John H. Myers. They have worthily sustained the position and dignity of able men pursuing a faithful public course and supporters of a great leader whose ability and integrity, whose statesmanship and patriotism have placed him "in the clear upper sky."
