A LIBERAL CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the vacancy in the representative of the Fifth District by the appointment of Premier Matheson to the Chief Justice will be held in the Town Hall, Georgetown on Friday, June 29th at 1 p. m. An advertisement appears in this issue. 1222-6-MEM.

IN GEORGETOWN.—In days of yore animals, such as cows, etc., were very common sights on the streets of Georgetown but now thanks to the Town Council all animals found on the streets will be taken to the Pound personally conducted by Mr. Ronald Yoston. Autos are now as common as the cows were formerly which shows that the Eastern Capital is rapidly improving.—Speaking of improvements the writer would like to say a word regarding the town Pumps of Georgetown. If the town can't afford to have an up to date water system installed they can at least have decent pumps. Out of the large number of pumps in Georgetown only a couple of out of the way ones are in good condition, either the water is bad, brackish or else the pumps themselves need repairing on the old forms fixed. Surely this important question will not be overlooked but that steps will be taken to safeguard the health of the people. Following are some "queries" which are asked by a number of the residents of Georgetown: Why isn't the numerous useless old buildings in Georgetown torn down and hauled away? Why doesn't the New Council install new pumps at convenient places? Why are little children allowed to play ball on the street? Why aren't some of the "shabby" buildings painted? Why aren't the side walks on the back streets repaired?—G.

BEFORE THE ASSAULT

The late Lieut. R. E. Vernede.

If thro' this roar o' the guns one prayer may reach Thee, Lord of all Life, whose mercies never sleep. Not in our time, not now, Lord, we beseech Thee To grant us peace. The sword has bit too deep.

We may not rest. We hear the wail of mothers Mourning the sons who fill some nameless grave; Past us, in dreams, the ghost march of our brothers; Who were most valiant whom we could not save.

Hark, the roar grows, the thunders re-awaken— We ask one thing, Lord, only one thing now; Hearts high as theirs, who went to death unshaken Courage like theirs to make and keep their vow.

To stay not till these hosts whom mercies harden, Who know no glory save of the sword and fire. Find in our fire the splendour of Thy pardon. Meet from our steel the mercy they desire.

Then to our children there shall be no handing O fates so vain—of passions so abhor'd— The peace which passeth understanding. Not in our time . . . but in their time, O Lord.

Arsenault of Urbanville is remodelling the foundation of his house having raised it and putting in a cement wall.—Mr. and Mrs. Lem J. Arsenault received a letter from their son Augustin on active service stating that he had been awarded the military medal. It must certainly be a source of satisfaction to them to know that their son is winning distinction at the front. He was on his way to Paris on a leave, when he wrote his letter. Judging by the contents of his letters and his cheerful words, one may imagine the great pluck of this young man, and his promotion two years ago, together with his recent honour prize is ample proof that his are not idle words. Word was also received from their son Aubin, telling them that he had recently undergone an operation and was now getting along well. He expects to be sent home as soon as his condition will permit.—M.

ELDERS ORDAINED.—A large audience was assembled at the North Bedouque Presbyterian church at the evening service on Sabbath, the 24th inst., the occasion being the ordination of Messrs. Theodore Ross, Clement Carruthers and Robert C. Auld, recently elected as elders of that congregation. The service was conducted by Rev. W. A. McQuinn, pastor, assisted by Rev. A. S. McKay, a former pastor of the same place and was a most impressive one. Special music was rendered for the occasion and after prayer and the laying on of hands, they were set apart for the work whereunto they were appointed.

DEPARTURE REGRETTED.—Miss Evelyn Arsenault, daughter of Moise Arsenault, Abram's Village, who has resided at Abram's Village for the past eight years, left last week for Summerside, where she will stay with her father. Miss Arsenault is an invalid having remained maimed after a severe attack of rheumatism which prevented her from pursuing her vocational calling, which promised a brilliant career. On the eve of her departure she was presented with a tangible gift, accompanied by an address which was read by Miss Clarice Gallant. The address breathed forth regret at the severance from her numerous friends occasioned by her departure, for, partly out of sympathy for her affliction, but more especially for her cheerful and amiable disposition, Miss Arsenault had endeared herself to all, and her wise counsels were always looked for, in matters relating to the educational welfare of children in her vicinity, as she had a good education and fine accomplishments. Her many friends will regret her departure and hope that ere long she will be in their midst again.—M.
