OWNED BY SPENCER CO.—The Kentville theatre which was burned Monday night was owned by F. G. Spencer Co. Ltd. of Saint John, which operates the three theatres in this city. The Kentville theatre would rank in size between the Prince Edward and the Capitol here. The manager, Mr. George Fielding, who was manager here for a time in past years said the theatre would be rebuilt as soon as possible. Cause of the fire was an exploding oil furnace. Damage was placed at $180,000.

THE NECESSARY TOOLS

"It is true that great strides have been made in lessening the amount of this disease in our midst and some authorities believe that the tools at our disposal could be employed to wipe out tuberculosis. In a generation, or at least to make it as rare as smallpox. What are these tools? They include such factors as: Financial assistance, education of the public, provision of diagnostic facilities, treatment of the patient, rehabilitation of the patient. These tools by themselves are of little use. We must consider the effectiveness to which we are able to use them. I shall deal with each more fully.
