I. where they will spend their honey moon. They will be at home after Aug. 1st at Pleasantville, Iowa. Mr. Warren was a former principal of Montague High School and his many friends here will be delighted to hear o this success in the educational world, as well as having won so talented a bride.

..*CARDIGAN NOTES.—Miss Belle F. Shaw for several years the efficient and trusted employee of W. L. McLaren & Co., of Cardigan has resigned her position there and leaves in a few days to spend the summer with her sister Florrie in New Hampshire. On Friday evening 23rd inst. Miss Shaw was waited on by the members of the C. E. S. of St. Andrew's Church and presented with a beautiful Bible and the following address:— Dear Belle we, your co-workers sincerely reget that we must soon part with you. We will miss your cheerful, optimistic spirit, which enabled you always to see the bright side of everything and the best side of everybody, which spirit we recognize a s the crowning grace of true christian character. We will miss you every day, and we know that the public whom you so obligingly served will miss you also, and we all now join in wishing you a pleasant journey and that your visit with Florrie may be filled with pleasure. We hope as the days go by, you may be able to call up some pleasant memories of the year spent in Cardigan, and that you will cherish in your heart the patriotic sentiment "Cardigan! with all thy faults I love thee still." That we may help you to remember us, we ask you to accept this Bible as our gift to one we love. And we trust that in the future as in the past you may be guided by the principles found therein. And now we needs must say farewell, and may God be with you till we meet again. "Com"

..*LOOKING FORWARD TO FAIR. The teachers and pupils of Panmure Island, Gaspereaux, Pembrook, Cambridge, St. Mary's Road, Sturgeon and Albion schools are preparing for a concert and basket social in order to raise funds for the School Fair next September. As it is necessary to hold such an entertainment before the schools close it is their intention to do so on Wednesday night, June 25th in the Sturgeon Hall. Needless to say a large attendance is expected as both teachers and pupils are working hard to have a good programme prepared. We would heartily wish the teachers and pupils every success in their project.—G.

..*SCHOOL WORK.—The ratepayers of the Georgetown High School have showed themselves to be both generous and considerate by increasing the supplements of the teaching staff six hundred dollars. This makes a total supplement voted of eleven hundred dollars and brings all the supplements of the school up to the Union standard. The ratepayers, deserve the greatest credit for their generosity, and it goes to show that they consider the money spent in the welfare of the school to be a good investment. The "G. H. S." has attained an enviable reputation among educational institutions of the Province. This has been brought about by a most capable and efficient teaching staff, as well as the co-operation and interest of the ratepayers, who consider that nothing is too good for the advancement and education of their children. The school has sustained a loss in the resignation of Mr. Lloyd Shaw as Principal. He intends to follow a new line of work, in which we all heartily wish him every success and happiness. Two other members of the teaching staff have also resigned, Mr. Hutton Dalziel and Miss Gallant, both of whom showed themselves to be most capable and efficient teachers.—G.

..*WEDDING BELLS. — A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. M. MacKeown Georgetown, on Monday evening, June 9th when her daughter Margaret was united in marriage to Mr. Elmer Jenkins, of Georgetown, in the presence of a number of invited guests. The bride who was attractively and becomingly attired in a travelling suit of blue, with hat to match, and who wore a beautiful shower boquet, was unattended. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Thorpe, acting pastor of St. David's Church. After a most enjoyable and delectable supper had been served up by Mrs. MacKeown, the happy young couple left immediately to spend their honeymoon in Western Canada, carrying with them the heartiest and sincerest good wishes of their many friends for a long and happy wedded life. They were also the recipients of many useful and practical gifts including many valuable articles of silverware and cut glass. We would extend to Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins our sincerest and best wishes for a peaceful and happy voyage through their wedded life and are pleased to learn that they intend to reside for the future in their home town.—G.

—FROM OVERSEAS.—The many friends of Nursing Sister Madge H. Thomas, of North St. Eleanors, are pleased to see her home again after serving eight months with the American troops in France. Nursing Sister Thomas will spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, before reporting in New York.

—RECENT FIRE AT SEA COW POND.—In the item which appeared in the local press recently referring to a fire at the residence of Mrs. J. C. McCarthy, at Sea Cow Pond it was stated that the fire was supposed to have originated from a defective flue This was not the case. The fire was caused by sparks from the kitchen chimney lodging in the shingles of the roof, there being quite a gale blowing at the time. Mrs. McCarthy and her son, Mr. Francis McCarthy, were in the house at the time. The alarm was quickly given to the men working in the lobster factory a short distance off, who worked hard to extinguish the blaze, but their efforts proved unavailing. The house was completely consumed only a few articles being saved. The net loss was $4,000, and was partially covered by insurance.

—SENT TO SUPREME COURT.—The preliminary trial of the young man, Fred Gallant, charged with breaking and entering the butcher shop of Mr. Harry Silliphant on Water Street and taking therefrom a sum of money, came up for hearing on Friday morning before Judge McQuarrie at the police court. The evidence showed that $6 was missing from the cash register while the store was locked between 12 and 1 o'clock on Thursday the 12th inst and on Friday the 13th $5 was missing between the hours of 6 and 7 p. m. On Saturday the 14th Chief of Police Oakes was put on the job during the noon hour and a few minutes after was rewarded by the capture of Gallant who gained an entrance by forcing in a back door. The evidence also showed that the prisoner admitted taking $11 from the register. His honor remanded the prisoner to jail to await trial at the fall term of the Supreme Court —H.

—HEROES REMEMBERED.—Quite a number of the people of North Bedeque and adjoining districts gathered at the home of Clement Carruthers on Wednesday evening, June eleventh to do honor to his brother Captain Sim Carruthers, who had returned some time before from overseas. He enlisted as medical officer in a battalion recruited in British Columbia. After some time had been spent in merry making Professor Theodore Ross addressed the returned hero, and Miss Jessie McCaull presented him with a signet ring. He then made a fitting reply. The National Service Committee also presented Capt. Carruthers and Sergeant Robert Laird, (who has also nobly acquitted himself with an artillery unit through many hard battles;) with suitably inscribed Bibles. Speeches were made by Rev. W. A. MacQuarrie, Thomas Humphrey and D. B. MacDonald. Capt. Carruthers gave a very good account of the work done in France by the C. A. M. C. and Y. M. C. A. Refreshments were served, and the National Anthem brought to a close a very enjoyable evening.

—WELCOMED HOME.—A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mrs. Jas. Carruthers on Wednesday evening June 11th when the people of North Bedeque assembled to do honor to her son Capt. R. S. P. Carruthers who had lately returned from overseas. After a half hour social chat, the meeting was called to order by Professor Theo. Ross, who on behalf of the North Bedeque Red Cross in fitting words extended a hearty welcome to Capt. Carruthers while the President, Mrs. Robert Baker presented him with a valuable signet ring. Capt. Carruthers replied in grateful terms and in a neat speech told of the work he had been permitted to have a part in for his country and humanity. He also eulogized the work of the Y. M. C. A. as he saw it at the front. Rev. Mr. MacQuarrie then spoke on behalf of the Bedeque Presbyterian church and Miss Jessie MacCaull, Secretary of the National service committee of that church presented Capt. Carruthers and Sergt. Robert Laird (also lately returned from overseas) with a valuable Bible each. Sergt. Laird for himself and Capt. Carruthers thanked the people for the kindly interest that was taken in them. Mr. D. B. MacDonald and Mr. T. J. Humphrey also made short speeches suitable to the occasion after which the ladies served ice cream and cake which was heartily enjoyed by all.

—TWO CENTS PER WORD each insertion for advertising in this column. Cash must accompany order minimum charge twenty five cents.

—SUCCESSFUL OPERATION. — His parents and friends at Ebbsfleet will be pleased to hear that Mr. Austin Rix has been successfully operated on for appendicitis at the Prince County Hospital and his complete recovery will be only the matter of a few weeks.—H.

—LAYING SEWERS.—A gang of men are now employed on Cental Street digging and putting down sewer pipe, the work which is for drainage purposes, will extend from Water Street to Green Street and when completed this street will be put in a proper shape with crushed stone followed by the steam roller.—H.

—BASEBALL. — An interesting game of baseball was played in the High School grounds, Summerside, Thursday evening between the Independents and Pioneers resulting in a score of 5—3 in favor of the Independents.

L.

—WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.—The regular meeting of the New Annan Women's Institute met at the home of M. N. J. McNeill, Friday afternoon, June 13th. There were 15 present. School Improvement was discussed and it was decided to hold an ice-cream social on Wednesday, June 25, to raise funds for this purpose. An interesting demonstration was given by the Assistant Supervisor. Lunch was served by the hostess. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Miss McKenna and the hostess. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. E. J. Wright. This is the Annual meeting and a large attendance is requested

—NORTH BEDEQUE NOTES.—A large number of people gathered at the North Bedeque Hall to honor four of their boys Gr. David Laird, Sergt. Robert Laird, Lieut. Alexander Lefurgey and Pte. Frank Bowness The two former having been overseas and seen much fighting. Gr. David Laird had been wounded and in Hospital but was fast recovering his normal wealth and spirits. Robert also had been through some heavy fighting but came out without a scratch. Lieut. Lefurgey and Pte. Bowness on account of ill health did not get to the front. Mr. Jesse Wright as Chairman opened the meeting with a few well chosen remarks, after which an excellent programme was rendered. Professor Theo. Ross in a very appropriate manner spoke of what each boy had done, and on behalf of the North Bedeque Red Cross extended a very cordial welcome home to them, while Mrs. Robert Baker presented them with signet rings. Gr. David Laird replied, thanking the Red Cross for their present as well as past favour. He also gave an interesting account of the soldiers life at the front in the trenches and behind the guns Sergt. Robert Laird also made a few remarks thanking the Red Cross for the many parcels sent to them while at the front. Mr. D. B. MacDonald gave a very interesting and patriotic address going fully into details of the war and the part Canada had in it. Rev. W. A. MacQuarrie also gave a very interesting address welcoming the boys home again. Cake and coffee was then served after which the meeting closed with all singing God Save the King.

SPRING IN HIDING.

Are you hiding from us, Springtime,
hiding in the slashing?
Coming from the mountain, I saw your tracks go down In among the willow swamps, I heard your young feet splashing, Saw—among the older stems—the glitter of your gown!

Found—upon a snowdrift—toys you dropped in running, Cups of pale anemone, full of fairy fire;
On the mossy benches, where the deer
were swimming,
Almost caught a glimpse of you,
clad in green attire;

All but caught you peeping; caught the corner lifted
Of that dainty veil you weave, of cedar, lace and mist;
The shadow of your flying robe across the plow land drifted,
The ridges blushed to purple which your little feet had kist.

The catkin told your secret. He was bursting, dear, to tell it,
And the dimpled baby brooklet just chuckled it aloud,
All the fog grew opal-tinted and a miracle befel it—
Was it just a common rainbow or your smile behind the cloud?

Ah, then, won't you come, coquette?
Must we weary for you yet?
Won't you teach the world a quick-step, put a rose behind its ear?
Won't you sing us all the silly songs that coax us to forget?
Sow a hope in every bosom and a rainbow in each tear?

—From "Songs From a Young Man's Land," by Clive Phillippe Wobley.

THE HATLESS BRIGADE.

Mrs. Pankhurst, speaking recently at the Kitchener House for Officers, Grosvenor Place, London, England, gave an interesting account of some of her experiences in Russia during the summer of 1917, when she went out there to assure the people that Ramsay MacDonald, (who also intended going until the sailors prevented him) only represented a very small minority in England, the London, (England) Eeevning Standard says.

Apparently ladies of the Bolshevist persuasion never wear a hat, and Mrs. Pankhurst and her friends took advantage of this peculiarity when laying their plans for safety in case of danger. They determined that in the event of their hotel being raided, they would divest themselves of their headgear, and join the raiders in their search for trouble.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ARCHIE MCPHEE.

The residents of Forest Hill were deeply shocked on May 6th when it was learned that the spirit of Anni beloved wife of Archie McPhee had departed this life for her Heavenly home after a lingering illness, borne with true christian patience, leaving to mourn besides her husband, three children: Christy, Effie and Murdoch. She was a woman of true Christian character always cheerful and ever ready to give a helping hand in anything for the betterment of the coummunity and hospitable indeed to any who had the pleasure of visiting her home. Her funeral which was largely attended took place on the 10th being delayed awaiting the arrival of her sister, Mrs. Tucker from Boston. The services were conducted by Rev. James Heron, Mt. Hope. Interment took place in Dundas Cemetery. "Blessed are they that die in the Lord."
