Cosette's Christmas COLOR CUT-OUTS

THE RAGGED STRANGER

This is one day's chapter of "Cosette's Christmas." Be sure and save all the paper dolls in the next two weeks so you will have a complete set to color and act out the story with.

Cosette did not notice the loss of her coin, and picking up the ball of water, started home. She had not gone very far when she felt the weight of the ball lifted from her grasp, and looking up saw a tall man walking at her side. He was poorly dressed, too, but there was an air of kindness about him, so that little Cosette was not afraid.

"Do you often carry such great, heavy loads as this, little one?" he asked.

"Every evening I carry the water to the inn," Cosette answered.

Then he asked her more questions, and Cosette told him all about her stepisters and stepmother and of how she had never known anything but drudgery. And in her interest she forgot all about the loaf she was to buy.

(Cosette's cape is red with a brown patch. The hat is brown and the dress beneath the cape is blue. The loaf is white with a brown crust.)

Getting Ready For Dal—

To be exact the Abegweit entourage has just nine days in which to round into hockey condition before their first game of the season, when they play the Dalhousie Tigers Thursday night week the first of a double-header schedule. For New Year's eve and New Year's night, last week due to ice conditions the red and black aggregation got in little or no practice, therefore this week and part of next should be spent in the vicinity of the arena. The Tigers are a fast bunch of skaters and stick handlers and their worth should not be taken very lightly.

Manager Parkman is very optimistic with respect to his team's chances this season, and says that the sextette will be going great guns within three weeks.

A departure will be made this year, in some departments, of the style of hockey played in former years by our local puck-men and much interest no doubt will be manifested as to the outcome.

City League Hockey

City League hockey is a much talked of subject these days and every hockeyist of any ability in the city is just itching to get into the swim. The League should go big this winter as the teams represented have excellent personnels and what's more they will be evenly matched. An innovation as a consequence this season will be the elimination of the "has-was-ers," that is the older fry of "Amazons" who have shot their bolt and would only be taking the place of the much younger material who are after a chance to make good. Therefore this is their opportunity to show some wares, and it is a safe bet that a number of dark young horses will loom conspicuously in the firmament.

Island Big Leagues.

Mention was made some time ago with reference to Charlie Cahill being the only Island hockeyist to make the "Big Time Circuit." Well such may be the case as far as the National Hockey League goes, but there were other Island hockeyists who made the grade and played with such hockey celebrities as "Newey" Lalonde, George Veizna, Dider Pitre, Joe Hall and others; the hockey men in question are the late Mike Murphy and Chester Gregory at present in New Glasgow and still playing hockey. This was about sixteen years ago when Mike and Ches played with the Renfrew team, owned by the O'Brien brothers, multi-millionaires of Rent new Ontario. The famous Wanderers of Montreal won the Stanley Cup this year, the same dented piece of pewter the teams of the National Hockey League are playing for today.

Booming The Island.

Local radio fans listening in on the Boston Bruin—Montreal game last week were surprisingly pleased on hearing Frank Brown, Boston announcer broadcast during the game the reception of a telegram from "Charlottetown, P. E. Island," adding that Charlottetown was the home of the Abegweits, well and favourably known by Bostonians. He said the Abegweits were great favourites in the land of "Bean" and would be welcome guests at any time. Thanks Frank—a little of that stuff won't hurt, not even the most modest.

Too Much Rough Stuff

There has been a plenitude of rough hockey in the N. H. L., and some sturdy newcomers are going to learn a hard lesson some day if they don't curtail their activities with their sticks. Recently Herb Drury, of Pittsburgh slashed "Red" Stewart across the face and put him out of action. From all accounts it was an exceedingly uncalled for incident, and since then President Calder plastered a stiff fine on this fiery petrel, and imposed other disciplinary measures. Stewart and Selbert the two new Maroons, have gained somewhat of a reputation as bad men, and they may also find their activities in this direction somewhat curtailed by official censure. When Sprague Cleghorn gets back in action there will be nobody picking on the Bruins, and the Maroons will get their first shot at skidding through a tough defence when they try to get by that Langlois-Randall rampart. From what Randall is showing at the present time, he is just as tough, and an even better hockey player than of yore.

The Great Ballyhoo

The New York Press is grinding out tons of copy working the "ballyhoo," but to many Canadians it is wasted effort as the writers know little or nothing about hockey, and their absurdities must grate considerably on such a trained hockey observer as Tommy Gorman, who is really the only one in the New York entourage outside of Tom Juggan and the players who knows what it is all about. Tommy himself proclaimed when he was home recently that the publicity was not what he was used to, and endeavored to sign up a trained hockey writer to handle it, but the New York Club apparently wasn't ready to ladle out the money he mentioned.

The Old Glory Sale.

After selling something like 440 horses in three days for about $360,000, the Old Glory horse sale closed recently for the year. Two notable sires were among the offerings reserved for the losing day. One of these, Justice Brooke, 2:08 1/2, is the sire of last year's sensational trotter, Tillie Brook 1:59, as well as seventeen others in the 2:10 list. He was purchased for $10,000 by R. W. Wright of Chicago.

Ortolan Axworthy, 2:07 1/4, the other prominent stallion sold, was purchased for $5,500 by Peter Goode, of Goshen, N. Y. The fourteen-year-old son of Axworthy is sire of Dr. Strongworthy 2:04 1/4 and many other fast ones.

How They Stand.

The following is the standing to date in the National Hockey League:—

Team	Won	Lost	Played
Ottawa-Senators	6	1	7
New York-Yankees	3	3	6
Pittsburgh-Pirates	6	3	9
Montreal-Maroons	5	2	7
Quebec-Canadiens	7	5	12
Toronto-St. Pats	2	3	5
Boston-Bruins	1	6	7

The Arena Is Open.

The Arena opened last evening for the season—and needless to say the hundreds of happy and care-free skaters enjoyed the good ice and exhilarating pastime. Skating is one of the best conditioned sports that one could enjoy. The rink management are to be congratulated on the success in getting away to an early start. The weather-man during the past three weeks has been on excellent behavior inasmuch as he has not gone to either extreme. The fact of the matter is that he has not as yet shown his natural "coldness" and as a result indoor ice making has been a most difficult and uncertain undertaking. Notwithstanding this, however, every cold wave has been used to the fullest advantage and judging by last night's surface and the number of skaters who remained on the ice until the last bell the work of the arena caretaker and his assistants has been most satisfactory indeed. The band music last evening was exceptionally good and well full of that "pep" so necessary in a skating program. Christmas is almost here and New Year's is fast following behind may they both bring joy, prosperity and just a little more frost.

Prince Of Wales Visits Dying Soldier

(Canadian Press)

LONDON, Eng., Dec. 17.—No hour of the day or night is too late for the Prince of Wales to visit at the bedside of a dying soldier. This fact has just come to light and illustrates an instance of his compassion for the afflicted.

A veteran of the war lay dying in a London hospital, and having no friends in the metropolis, Rev. T. B. "Tubby" Clayton, M. C. and padre of Toc II (Tabot House), called on him every day.

One day the veteran turned the conversation to the war and the days of Toc II, at Peperinge and to the man's close association with the Prince in the Ypres salient. He expressed the desire as a dying wish that he might see his Royal Highness again. Undaunted "Tubby" sought out the Prince, who had returned to York House after attending an evening function, only to find that the heir to the British throne had retired for the night. But on being acquainted with the fact, Mr. Clayton decided to leave a note for the Prince. The latter apparently recognizing the voice of the padre, descended the stairs in pyjamas and dressing gown to see what "Tubby" wanted. On being apprised of the soldier's wish, the Prince, though tired, immediately dressed and
