in games and music. After the wee small hours the people returned to their homes, but not before wishing the bride and groom every happiness in their wedded life.

—FUNERAL OF MRS. MARY JANE ADAMS—The funeral of Mrs. Mary Jane Adams took place on Monday from her home to the Presbyterian Church at Kensington, Rev. D. L. Griffiths officiating. Interment was in the Malpeque Cemetery. The late Mrs. Adams was formerly Miss Mary Jane Cousins and married Mr. Frank Adams, of Sea View. After her husband's death, about twenty years ago, she lived for awhile in Indian River, but removed later to Kensington, where she resided until her death. She leaves to mourn, one daughter, Ethel, Mrs. Dockendorff, to whom sympathy is expressed.—S.

—FUNERAL OF MR. HENRY SPEARS—The funeral of Mr. Henry Spears of Summerside was held on Tuesday afternoon from Mr. P. L. Bowness' Funeral Parlor to the People's Cemetery, Rev. Archdeacon White, D.D., officiating. Among those attending the funeral were Mrs. Lottwell and her son from Bloomfield. The pall bearers were Messrs. George Bowness, Reigh Tinney, George McCallum, H. H. Lefurgey, William Clark and F. J. E. Wright.—S.

—FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of the late Artemas E. Farrow, of Bedeque, was held on Sunday afternoon and was very largely attended by friends from Summerside and other parts of the Province. There was a short service at the house followed by a service in the Baptist Church. Rev. Mr. Crowe officiating. A male quartette composed of Messrs. J. B. Lewis, J. Lidstone, Covey Lewis and Howatt Schurman rendered two appropriate hymns. Mr. J. B. Lewis also sang very effectively "Shadows." The pall bearers were Messrs. William Calbeck, Leonard Schurman, George Taylor, John Stewart, John Frizzell and Rufus Bagnall. Interment was in the Baptist Cemetery at Bedeque.—S.

—HARBOUR ALMOST FROZEN OVER—The cold snap of the last two days has put an end to shipping in Summerside harbour and except for a small open space of water in the channel the harbour is frozen over. Some men have been seen walking on the ice, but it is none too safe yet and will require a few more cold spells before it will be safe for travelling. Skating on the pond near the electric light station is as usual at this time of year very popular with the children. The rink was flooded for the first time on Tuesday and if the cold weather continues will soon be ready for the season. The Crystals are hopeful of having a tryout on their own rink within the next few days. There is some talk of an intermediate team being formed in Summerside to fill up the ranks of the Crystals as they fall out. This is a good idea and worthy of support.—S.
