POLICE OFFICER APPOINTED

On the receipt of an order from His Worship Mayor Miller, His Honour the Magistrate swore in Mr. Stanford Biggar as special Police Officer, yesterday afternoon. Officer Biggar, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Biggar, City, is a fine specimen of physical manhood and will, without doubt, prove a valuable addition to the Police Force. No appointment to the position of chief of Police has yet been officially made and Sgt. Allan McInnis is yet Acting Chief.

BOATS PRIVATELY OWNED

One of the most notable events that added much to the visit of Mr. Baldwin and party when here was the way they were transferred to the island by the party's own boats. Many thought the boats which carried the party were owned by the Capt. and Mrs. Carr, but they were privately owned by Mr. Mac Irwin and Mr. Hal Bourke. It is indeed a credit to Charlottetown to have such smart looking boats as these and on occasions like this they supply the last word in service. They were as well manned and crewed as if done by the trained and credulous of the warships.

PRESENTATION

Miss Mabel Carr, who is soon to be the principal in an interesting event, was kindly remembered by her many friends last Thursday evening, when they gathered at her home, Dorchester Street, to present her with a nicely worded address and a $20.00 gold coin. A dainty lunch was served, after which the remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in music and dancing. About midnight the party dispersed after tendering their best wishes to Mabel's future happiness. Miss Carr was also tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of her friend, Miss Adele Fleming, Bay View, where a great number had gathered to honor the bride-to-be. Many useful gifts were received and the reading of the verses caused much merriment. A very enjoyable evening was spent. Miss Carr's marriage to Mr. Eugene Kelly of Detroit, Michigan, takes place at St. Dunstan's Cathedral on Wednesday, the 24th instant.

EXCELLENT SUCCESS

Mr. Halkett, investigating the scallop grounds outside Alberton Harbor in his investigations. The grounds where the scallops are most plentiful are some 100 yards to the north of the harbor closer in to the Kill-dare Capes. The result of a single drag some days ago resulted in picking up some one hundred and fifty fish which is a most generous haul. The fish taken are all healthy as possible, no sign of indication of disease or any kind. There is every chance of any fish in abundance here unless all signs prove false and misleading and with this development the existing hardness of the fishing industry may be ameliorated. That this investigation will bring promise of relief to the fishermen by opening up another branch of trade is due together to the energy and insistence of Mr. A. E. MacLean, M. P., and he must be given full measure of praise for this work.
